

CITY PLAYGROUNDS BULLY PLACE TO FROLIC, SAY THOUSANDS OF CHILDREN

FILTHY SLAUGHTER HOUSES AROUSE HEALTH OFFICIALS

Drs. White and Lytle Confirm Reports That Diseased Cattle Cut Up and Sold in City of Portland.

"Something must be done at once to cleanse slaughter houses and meat shops."—Dr. C. S. White, state health officer. "Much of the meat would not be sanitary or safe to eat without thorough cooking."—Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian.

Hogs at Banquet. "In some places horses and other domestic animals that had died of accident or disease were kept within a few feet of the slaughter houses, where the hogs shared banquet honors with the homeless dog and buzzard. Files in myriads swarmed from the carcasses and offal to the freshly slaughtered beef and mutton that was hung for periods of from 12 to 20 hours in these pest houses before being taken to the markets in town, or put in the wagons to be hauled over the country for food.

"One long recess time with the teacher away" is the way one little dirty-faced chap expressed his idea of the playgrounds in the city parks.

Another said it was a bully place to play, and still another said he ran away from home to get with the big crowd of children at the playfield.

Whatever it may be in the minds of these happy children, many of whom never got outside a dingy little apartment building, the park commissioners are satisfied the playground feature is a success.

Record of Attendance. The record of children attending the five parks from July 24-31 inclusive is as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Name, Total Attendance, Ave. Attendance. Rows include North Park, Peninsula, Sellwood, City Park, and Columbia.

On August 30 an athletic fiesta is to be given at the Peninsula park. All the children frequenting the parks will be taken to the Peninsula, and there contests in various games, dances and athletic feats will be held.

COURT HOLDS DOG LICENSE MUST BE PAID TO COUNTY

This Decision Among Others Handed Down by Judge Morrow Before Leaving on His Vacation.

Circuit Judge Morrow, prior to his departure for the east last night on his vacation, handed down several decisions in cases which had accumulated during his recent term as presiding judge. Among the decisions was one affirming the sentence of Municipal Judge Bennett in fining E. A. Parsons for keeping dogs without paying license.

Judge Morrow held the dog license of $3 per head must be paid, despite previous payment as personal property. The $75 fine imposed by Judge Bennett was reduced to $10.

In the case of the Portland Sash & Door Co. against Kats E. Parker, Judge Morrow dismissed the complaint and declined to allow costs to either side. The company sued for a balance alleged to be due on material furnished for construction of a house for Miss Parker in Ivanhoe.

Other decisions announced, were as follows: Shipman, Denny, Rhame & Co. against the Portland Construction company, motion to supplement complaint overruled.

Horn & Co. against Sam Wagner, motion to strike out plea in statement denied; plea overruled because filed too late.

William C. Westley against the Denver & Rio Grande railroad and others and Rena M. Westley against the same, motion to quash service on the Denver & Rio Grande allowed.

Protesters from all parts of the state are pouring into Jefferson City, Mo., against the signing of the proposed contract for the sale of 2100 Missouri convicts for four years at the rate of 70 cents a day to a combination of prison labor contractors.

FRAUD IS CHARGE; NO PROSECUTION

No Statute for Criminal Action Against Hillman Real Estate Firm.

Because of the lack of a statute covering the alleged offense, there will be no prosecution of the firm of Cooper & Taylor, promoters of the townsite of Hillman, accused of misrepresenting conditions in selling lots.

"I thought of trying to make a case of obtaining money by false pretenses," said Mr. Garland yesterday, "but it is necessary that there shall be some sort of a written agreement before a charge of this sort can be made.
