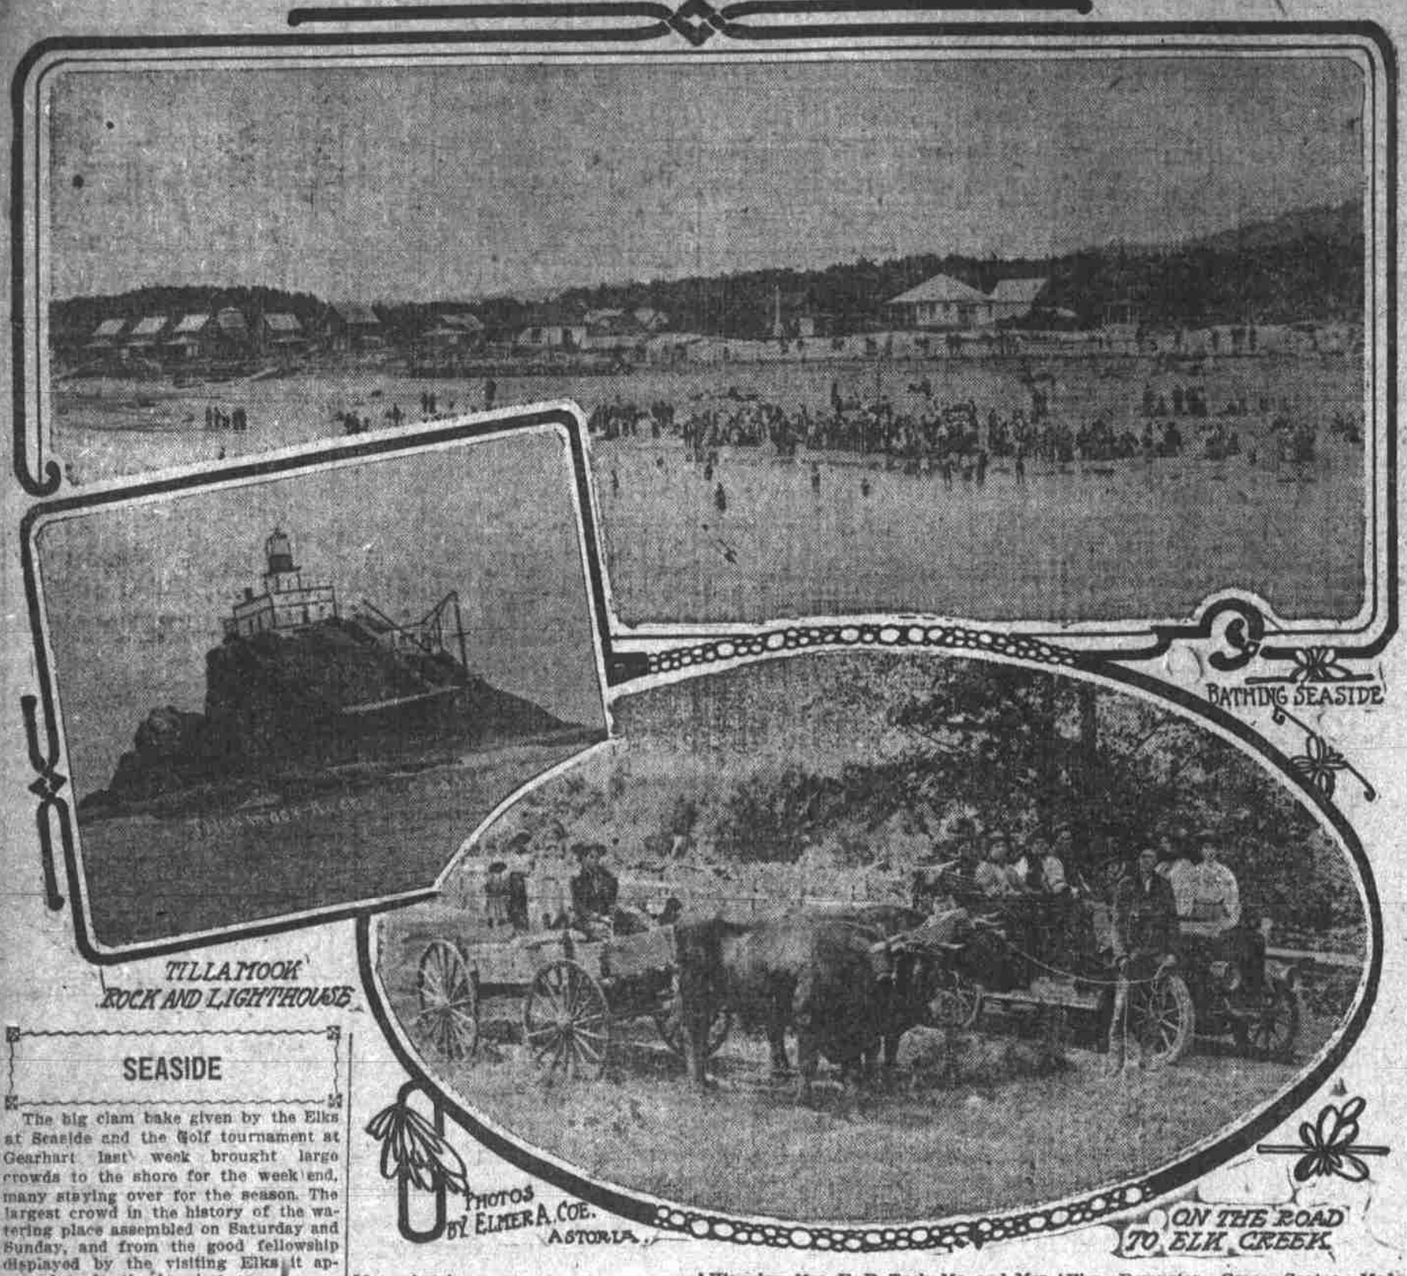
AT THE SEASHORE



SEASIDE

The big clam bake given by the Elks at Seaside and the Golf tournament at Gearhart last week brought large crowds to the shore for the week end, many staying over for the season. The largest crowd in the history of the watering place assembled on Saturday and Sunday, and from the good fellowship displayed by the visiting Elks it appeared to be the happiest one.

Seaside gained many friends last week by the courtesy paid to the visitors; all being afforded accommodations, hundreds of the citizens opening their houses to the Elks and their friends.

Senator Chamberlain and acting governor Bowerman and staff were present at the clam bake, as were also many other people of prominence throughout the state.

The tournament at the Gearhart golf links was a most successful one, large crowds coming from different points throughout the northwest. Russell Smith, W. B. Mixter, Mrs. Koehler and Mrs. Ayer were the successful golfers who won the cups donated by H. C. Bowers and the Hotel Gearhart.

Every day the skating rink is crowded with people who have taken up this pleasure, many of the younger set coming down from Gearhart.

Both Mr. Campbell's student band parties at the new pavilion and the Octagon affairs are most popular with the dancers, and every evening parties are formed who attend one of the parties.

The new natatorium at Gearhart is becoming more popular each day, and crowds come up from all points on the beach to indulge in this most healthful exercise.

NORTH BEACH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

North Beach, Wash., Aug. 13.—The eastern Oregon and Idaho excursions to North Beach the past week have brought throngs to the different stations along the beach. And at this time of the month there is always a banner week-end crowd coming down on the Potter—so it might be truthfully said that this week and the next fortnight will see the banner crowds of the year at the beaches.

At Ocean Park all the cottages are occupied and the hotel is filled while many resorters are enjoying tent life, always so popular at the beach. The Bequeath orchestra at the Breakers is having a most successful season, crowds going from points along the beach to listen to their music at dinner hour and on Tuesday and Saturday evenings, when the ball room of the Breakers is thrown open to the guests.

Nature has truly endowed North Beach with beauty and the appreciative resorter and visitor loses no time in seeking out the many points of interest and the sequestered spots so dear to those who have made their homes at North Beach each year. Sand Island is a popular resort for the visitor as is North Head, Fort Canby, Dead Man's Hollow and the Rocks. Not a day passes but hundreds of people visit one of these spots, where can be seen picturesque beauty not found on any other beach.

The leading affair of the season along North Beach, by the younger set, was the dancing party given at Seaview on Tuesday evening. Raymond's orchestra was engaged for the evening and a selected list of music was played for the occasion. The hall was decorated with pennants, representative of the different schools and the orchestra discoursed sweet music 'neath a bower of ferns, while the merry dancers enjoyed themselves till the wee hours of the morn. Those attending were: Mrs. Hackney, Mrs. Charles Levy, Mrs. Martin Schacht, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Burr Wagner, Mrs. Cohen, the Misses Rose Schacht, Edith Levy, Hilda Hagadorn, Madelene Stone, Louise Gleason, Ada Lavinson, Margarette Schacht, Edith Sheehy, Genevieve Kelly, Wanda Levinson, Hildreth Humason, Irene Collins, Pauline Jacobsen, Estelle Stuart, Lillian Cohen, Bertha Schacht, Ines McGinnis, Clara Fleishman, Anna Mulligan, Daisy Gerson, Elva Burness, Margrette Hagadorn, Miriam Hagadorn and Messrs. Alfred Stone, Ted Woo., Harry Levinson, Lill McAllen, Jack Proebstel, Ed Sammons, Ted Collins, Chauncey Collins, Walter Seaberg, Lewellyn Buck, Paul Wetzel, Everett Peterson, Don Stuart, Arthur Merrick, Franklin Shea, Mr. Phillibar, Jerome Stone, Jack Schaub and Jack O'Bryan.

Mrs. Paul C. Bates, who has been at the Breakers all season, has returned to Portland.

Mrs. Henry Hart is a recent arrival at the Breakers.

An impromptu musicale was given at the Stone summer home, Seaview, on last Wednesday evening. Miss Madeline Stone, Miss Lillian Stone, Miss Rose Schacht, Miss Irene Collins, Alfred Stone, Harry Levinson and Jerome Stone pleased the invited guests with various musical selections.

A party of Ocean Park resorters journeyed to Long Beach on Saturday, walking from there to the Rocks. Those making the trip were Mrs. Stearns, Mrs. Spalding, Miss Mary Spalding, Miss Helen Spalding, Miss Gussie Howell, Miss

Shall we Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.
