BIG GREGG PITCHES BEAVERS INTO LEAD

Portland's Great Southpaw Fans 14 Senators; Locals Hit Ball Hard.

Lefty Gregg, the animated sapling from Astoria county, b'g, pitched Portland back into first place yesterday, after several weeks' absence from that exalted position, on a 3 to 1 score. In doing so the hardball hurler allowed but six hits and struck out 14 men, making the unusual, if not record breaking, feat of 48 strikeouts in the last four full games he pitched in. In an inning August 4 he struck out two, making a total of 50 strikeouts in 37 innings. Gregg's record for the season is 175 for the number of games he has participated in, which is less than 30. It is the best in the league by a good margin. But to get back to the baseball game: It was a hummer. The best of the series and before a ladies' crowd at that. The grandstand was filled with the fair ones, and every play was applauded, whether made by Senator or Beaver. The ladies are wholly impartial when it comes to a nifty play.

Nothing in Six Frames. For six innings there was nothing but a succession of goose eggs on the scoreboard. More than one fanette began to have visions of home and the old man's porters. But the Beavers set their minds at rest temporarily in the seventh. Rutherford, after Ort was robbed of a hit by Boardman, slammed a single down the left boundary. Gregg pulled off an awkward sacrifice, but it got there just the same. Olson crashed into

One Hit Proves Enough

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 13.—McCammont allowed Seattle one hit but the urks got away with the long end of a 3 to 1 score. The costly errors made by the Tigers caused their defeat. Score: Tacoma, 3; Seattle, 1.

Engle Trims Indians

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 13.—George Engle, a Seattle castoff, broke the Indians' winning streak here, yesterday afternoon. Jess Baker was hit at the proper time. Score: Engle, 4; Indians, 1.

Krapp Leading Pitcher

Portland, Or., Aug. 13.—Sporting Editor the Journal—What is Gregg's pitching average and is he now the leading pitcher? Gregg has won 15 and lost 10 games, giving him an average of .600. Krapp is leading pitcher with 16 won and 11 lost, an average of .645.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN

"Nuttin to it. Pust place for de bunch by an ey-lash."

Burns for the Senators landed on one of Gregg's curves for a double. This chap is a corner. He cut off a few hits yesterday by his clever fielding.

Rutherford showed some speed yesterday when he beat out an infield hit. He later leaned against another of Baum's benders for a single to left. Keep it up. You only have one fault "Please legs" and that is, it looks nice when you put two hands on them in this league. Maybe you misjudged that fly of Briggs's yesterday, but then you know.

Tommy Sheehan drove out a few bingles yesterday. The little third nacker is beginning to get his batting eye. His fielding has been above par.

Did you see Pearl Casey take a slide for life in the eighth inning? Pearl had the throw beat a mile but like all experienced and finished ball players he took no chances. Casey is as good an infielder as there is in any league around these diggings, and his hitting O! O! O! Can't keep a good man down!

When the news came over the wire that Frisco and Oakland had both lost their games, you ought to have heard the fans cheer. "First place," they were saying to each other. There sure were some rooters there yesterday.

Johnnie Callahan has been sold and is going up into the big "brush." Yes sir, Johnnie told Ed Detrich that McCredie had sold him for $10,000 to Cleveland but that he didn't care to go as McCredie and himself had a little brush over the division of the purchase price. A few strangers were near who heard Johnnie make the crack. They wondered who the high priced youngster was, and as soon as Callahan beat it out to the edge of the sidewalk, the strangers asked Ed who the high priced youngster was. "Gene Krapp," responded Detrich, "off for Cleveland." "Well by golly he is some humdinger. Ten thousand dollars, Cleveland paid for him!" Yes sir. It was Johnnie Callahan bound for the big brush at Albany. Good luck to you Johnnie and if he isn't elected to the office of mayor inside of a month we will miss our guess. Leave it to Johnnie.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 13.—Lying in state at Whatcoat Methodist church, the body of Joe Gans, former light-weight champion pugilist, was viewed today by 35,000 persons. Hour after hour they filed silently by the flower covered coffin.

Early today the final services in the Argyle street home of the "Old Master" were held. Reverend Carroll Gibbs officiating. The ceremony was brief, and attended only by the immediate members of the family.

After the last prayer had been said the bier was carried from the house to the waiting hearse. Carriages, automobiles, people on foot, young and old, were waiting in the street. When the procession started for the church, the mourners formed themselves into orderly ranks that stretched back through three miles.

Eight carriages, banked and smothered in a wealth of flowers, followed the hearse. Behind these came the closed carriages of Mrs. Gans and the foster-mother of the deceased. Burial takes place this afternoon.

Boardman for Sacramento played a beautiful game at third base for the Senators. He made some beautiful stops of what seemed like hits in any league. George Ort might have had a few singles and possibly doubles if it hadn't been for this chunky boy at third.

Doo Anderson missed the game. The fans were looking for Doo to lead the bunch in the seventh but he couldn't be found. The girls missed him something awfully.

The Sacramento rooter changed his place of squatting yesterday. He made so much noise in Thursday's game that the local fans were after him hard yesterday. He sure is a good natured chap, as he took the hiding of the fair sex like Mr. Duck takes to aqua.

Angels Win Third Straight. Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 13.—The Angels made it three straight from the Seals yesterday afternoon. By the score of 4 to 2. The Angels scored three runs in the third inning on errors by the Seals. Another tally was made in the fifth on errors by the Seals.

Mohler scored both of the Seal's runs. He came home in the third on a sacrifice fly and in the eighth on his homer. Score: Los Angeles, 4; Seattle, 2.

Batteries—Thorsen and Waring; Henley and Harry.

WILL NOT DECIDE NICARAGUAN CASE

Uncle Sam Stands By to Protect Citizens; Factions Must Fight It Out.

(United Press Special Wire.) Washington, Aug. 13.—In an attempt to gain recognition from the United States, General Sebastian Salinas and Dr. Modesto Barrios are in conference today with Acting Secretary of State Huntington Wilson, presenting the claims of the Madriz faction in Nicaragua. It is reported on high authority that Wilson made it clear that his government would not change its attitude toward the Central American dispute between Madriz and Estrada, recognizing neither except where injury to Americans or their interests was involved, when both would be held responsible.

Wilson, it is said, expressed a desire to bring about a compromise. The representatives of both Madriz and Estrada will probably meet at the state department to discuss the situation.
