Great Business Activity

Numerous large industries have located on the Peninsula within the last few years. Why? Because the unexcelled shipping and railroad facilities proclaim the Peninsula to be the coming business center of Portland. Portland is moving down the river. Remember that the Peninsula is very limited in extent. Buy now while property is cheap and sold on easy terms. In a few years property on the Peninsula will bring enormous prices.

University Park
Is in center of Peninsula. I have 75x100 feet near Columbia Park, graded street, gas and electric lights, 15-foot alley; only $50 cash and $15 monthly, without interest if all payments are made when due.

"Portland's Most Scenic Acreage."

SEE IT

WILLALATIN PARK

Give us the opportunity of showing you this sightly tract of land. It is on the west side of the river, easily and quickly reached. Such acreage as this, on the West Side, as close to the city, is limited and bound to increase in value beyond your expectations. Prices now

$400 And Up Per Acre
10% Down, 2% Per Mo.

This price is within most everyone's reach. It's an investment you will never regret. You will not only get the natural increase of the land, but the improvements the St. Helen's Hall will make on their 23-acre tract in Willalatin Park will greatly increase the value of this land.

Make it a point to see Willalatin Park.
