

DIAZ TO IGNORE FUGITIVE MADRIZ

Following Precedent in Zelaya Case—Any Other Course Would Offend U. S.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Mexico City, Aug. 24.—Jose Madriz, deposed president of Nicaragua, will visit Mexico during the national centennial celebration in September, duplicating the action of former President Zelaya who also came to Mexico after his abdication in Nicaragua. Previously Madriz announced that he would send a special representative. He was informed by the Mexican government that President Diaz would not accord the representative any favors and the president's present attitude does not indicate that he will change his ruling, even though Madriz himself comes here. Efforts are being made by Americans here to impress upon Diaz that special honors to Madriz will be considered an insult to the United States.

CANDIDATE ASKS COURT TO RESTRAIN PUBLICATION

(Continued From Page One.) tary of the state central committee, and that both of them are now claiming to be exercising the authority granted them by the law. Mr. Joseph then points out the provisions of the corrupt practices act governing the filing of arguments in favor of or against the candidacy of any person for public office and shows by that law that the only occasion upon which a state, county or city central committee may file arguments in support of the candidates for office is not later than 30 days prior to the "regular" general election. It is shown that all persons who are now candidates for office and who are seeking the Republican nomination have complied with the provisions of the primary law in order to be allowed to become candidates and that the assembly candidates did not, and could not, rely upon the fact that he was endorsed by the "assembly" in order to become a candidate.

Charges Conspiracy. The complaint then goes on to allege as follows: "That certain members of the Republican state central committee conspired and confederated together for the purpose of securing an advantage on the part of said assembly candidates, over the candidates who are not assembly candidates, by preparing certain arguments and statements in favor of said assembly candidates, and filing the same with the secretary of state, with the request that they be published as required in said section 2, of said act passed by the legislature in 1909, in what might be termed the 'political pamphlet'."

"That said M. C. George and E. V. Littlefield, in consummation of said conspiracy, and for the purpose of giving said assembly candidates an apparent endorsement of the Republican party of the state of Oregon, signed said statements and arguments so requested to be published, as alleged in the last preceding paragraph, as follows:

"Republican State Central Committee. By M. C. George, chairman. By E. V. Littlefield, secretary."

To Deceive Electors. "That certain members of said Republican state central committee are by reason of the facts hereinbefore alleged, fraudulently and unlawfully attempting to secure on behalf of said assembly candidates an apparent endorsement thereof by said Republican state central committee, and to thereby mislead and deceive the electors who may read said arguments and statements in said political pamphlet, and who may vote at said primary election, in this: That the said electors will believe that the assembly candidates, being those candidates in favor of whom said arguments and statements are requested to be published, are in fact the candidates for their respective offices selected and endorsed by the Republican party, through said Republican state central committee, whereas in truth and in fact said assembly candidates, as hereinbefore alleged, are seeking the nominations the same as all the other candidates, and were designated by said assembly as desirable candidates, which assembly consists of delegates irregularly and unlawfully designated and appointed to attend a pretended convention or assembly in the city of Portland, Or., assuming the power and authority of naming candidates for the offices created for the government of the state of Oregon, all municipal governments included therein.

Assembly Unlawful. "That in truth and in fact said assembly was unlawful, and not authorized by any law of the state of Oregon, and the attempt by the Republican state central committee to make it appear that said assembly candidates are the choice of the Republican party of the state of Oregon and of the county of Multnomah is greatly to the detriment and injury of each of the candidates, excepting said assembly candidates, and to the prejudice of their rights, and to the right of this plaintiff."

Multnomah is greatly to the detriment and injury of each of the candidates, excepting said assembly candidates, and to the prejudice of their rights, and to the right of this plaintiff."

"That said action of said officers of said Republican state central committee is not authorized by law, but is unlawful and against law, and was done by said officers in consummation of the conspiracy hereinbefore alleged, to make it appear as though the Republican party of the state of Oregon and of Multnomah county had endorsed said assembly candidates, to the exclusion of all other candidates."

Mr. Joseph in his complaint also charges that because the members of the Republican party greatly exceed those of all other parties in the state an apparent endorsement of the Republican party of the assembly candidates would be a great and irreparable injury to the rights of all other candidates of the party; that by reason of such facts the publication of the intended pamphlet would mislead the voters of the party in the state. He asks, therefore, for perpetual injunction restraining the secretary of state and the state printer from allowing the publication of the arguments of the state central committee.

SHERMAN REMAINS SILENT; INDICATES HE'LL STAND PAT

LEADERS OF NEW YORK FACTIONS PREPARE FOR BIG FIGHT IN THE OPEN

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, Aug. 24.—A battle for control of the state Republican convention between the regulars, led by Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, and the progressives, headed by Lloyd C. Griggs, chairman of the state central committee, will be fought out at the city primaries Monday to name delegates to the convention. Politicians are active today preparing for the struggle, which has suddenly become an open one. Chairman Woodruff, National Committeeman Ward, William H. Barnes Jr., and Speaker Wadsworth are arranging conferences with their lieutenants and planning to oppose Roosevelt's delegates. Griggs, Senator Davenport of Utica, who was praised by Roosevelt in his speech before the Herkimer county grange, and James Greiner of Buffalo, Roosevelt lieutenants, are equally active and are ready to carry the fight to the polls. Many conferences are scheduled for today and tomorrow and a complete campaign, which will be short but sharp, has been mapped out.

M'KINLEY ON FENCE IN RELATION TO CANNON

(United Press Leased Wire.) Springfield, Ill., Aug. 24.—Voters of Springfield, Ill., are wondering whether or not Congressman W. D. McKinley has followed the lead of Nicholas Longworth in repudiating Joseph G. Cannon for speaker of the house. McKinley does not say he has not repudiated the Republican house leader; he merely denies that he was present at a certain meeting at which the alleged statement was made. "There are two definite statements I would like to deny," said McKinley today. "First, that several candidates were mentioned as intending to come out against me provided I did not re-nounce Cannon; and second, that at a meeting of the congressional campaign committee I repudiated Mr. Cannon and requested the members to spread the news among the voters. In reply to the first statement let me say that it is common knowledge in the Nineteenth district that the name of no man has ever been mentioned as a candidate against me. In answer to the second statement, on the day of the meeting of the congressional committee, at Decatur, I was at Beverly, Mass."

RAILROAD'S BOLD ATTEMPT TO GRAB STREETS CHECKED

RAILROAD PLANS GRAB

Before the council met Grant held a stormy session with Attorney Snow, representing the railroad, who, according to the city attorney, had not only planned to secure the adoption of the ordinance by the council before submitting the deed to the properties promised the city by the railroad interests, but had determined upon certain significant phrasings in the ordinance themselves, the significance of which could only be understood through the presupposition that the railroad intends to grip all the city property it can obtain, as absolutely as it can and with as little recompense as it can be forced by circumstances to stipulating that the ordinance would be passed, railroad representatives crowded the gallery of the council chamber. Their disappointment because of the sudden turn taken for the city's protection was obvious. In his formal report to the city council this morning Mr. Grant states that he returns the ordinance in shape that he can approve, but adds: "The council is advised that in my opinion said vacating ordinance should not be passed at your meeting of August 24, 1910. My reasons are that the deed from the railroad companies granting unto the city all of the rights conceded by said railroad companies has not been executed or delivered to the city of Portland.

Corporation Holds Dead.

The representatives of the companies, however, and myself, have not agreed upon the form thereof. The various descriptions of properties to be deeded have not been checked up; the title to some of the property has not been examined, and it will take at least two weeks more in order to get said deed in proper form. Mr. Snow has agreed with me that said deed will be executed and placed in my hands, and then the council may pass the vacating ordinance, and when said ordinance becomes effective I will then be at liberty to record said deed. This, in my opinion, is the proper way in which to protect the interests of the city in this matter."

The amendment to section one of each ordinance was also taken exception to by the railroad attorney. "I have provided," said Mr. Grant, "that if, in the future, it should be deemed necessary by the city to construct a new bridge across the Willamette river in the vicinity of the streets to be vacated that the city would reserve to itself the right to use so much of the surface of the street to be vacated as may be necessary for the location and maintenance of piers to support such bridge or any approaches thereto."

RAILROAD BLOCKS CITY.

"Mr. Snow's amendment also provides that if the city at any time desires to use the streets to be vacated for sewers, water mains, tubes, pipes or conduits beneath the surface of the street or streets to be vacated, the exercise of this privilege should be in a manner that would not in any way impair the use of said streets for railway purposes."

The East Side business men who oppose the vacation of streets as opposed to public policy, make the point that should the city desire to build bridges or to obtain access to the river, it would be practically impossible if the streets are given away, especially since the railroad interests now control nearly all the waterfront and the proposed vacation, if consummated, would complete this control. The city attorney and others believe they see in the railroad's stipulations design to block any future plans for the city, either for bridges or for access to the river, where public docks might otherwise be located to prevent monopolization of shipping by corporate interests. These considerations, the East Side business men declare, are greater than the intrinsic value of the property to be vacated, which is in the neighborhood of half a million dollars.

GERMAN PRINCE NOT COMING TO AMERICA

(United Press Leased Wire.) Berlin, Aug. 24.—Count Von Bismarck-Bohlen, lord chamberlain to the household of the crown prince, today announced that the plans for the oriental tour of Crown Prince Frederick William had been changed. The prince will not return to Germany from India by way of the United States, as it was previously announced that he would do.

RIGHT-OF-WAY SOLDIER AWARDED A PENSION

Seward, Alaska, Aug. 24.—R. Phillips has been awarded judgment for $1,000 damages and costs against the Copper River and Northwestern Railway company by a jury in the United States district court. The suit grew out of the famous battle two years ago between the rival railroad construction crews for the possession of Keystone canyon, during which Phillips sustained a gunshot wound.

MAMIE M'LAUGHLIN 'ACQUITTED OF MURDER

New Orleans, Aug. 24.—Mamie McLaughlin, who pleaded the "unwritten law" as a defense for having killed Hugh Smith, a wealthy man whom she charged with having betrayed her, was acquitted of murder yesterday afternoon. The jury was out of the courtroom only half an hour. The trial was one of the shortest in the history of Louisiana murder cases.

Alice Blake, Smith's fiancée, testified that Smith had supported her for two years and that they had been engaged for two months to be married. She denied that any improper relations existed between her and Smith. Later Miss McLaughlin was called to the stand.

Gevurtz Broke the Power of the Machine Trust in Oregon

Before Gevurtz entered the field, the people of Oregon were compelled to pay $50, $60 and $75 for their Sewing Machines. The whole state was dominated by the SEWING MACHINE TRUST, selling machines under many well-known names, and immense profits were made. By securing our "Gevurtz Special" machines in full carload lots from a manufacturer not in the trust, and going direct to the people, we have in four years broken the power of the mighty trust in Oregon. We employ no agents, have no big commissions to charge up against each machine, but simply ask a small profit. We offer the most liberal credit of any dealer in the city, so any woman in the state need no longer be without her own machine.

$25 Machines and All You Need Pay Is $1 Down and then 50c Per Week

The Main Features Boiled Down

- Automatic Bobbin-Winder—So simple that a child can easily operate it.
- Feed Motion—Our latest patent, absolutely positive gyrating movement operated on ball bearings.
- The Double Four-Motion Drop Feed—Extends on both sides of the needle and permits a greater variety of work than any other.
- Shuttle—Absolutely self-threading and does not rattle when working.
- Stand—The stand has a full set of ball bearings and an automatic belt-replacer.
- Light-Running—On account of the ball bearing and other simple mechanical devices employed in its construction, it is one of the simplest, easiest operated, best made and most elegantly ornamented machines in the world, combining every requisite to produce a perfect machine. The ball-bearing feature itself is worth the cost of the machine to the woman who has much sewing to do.
- Woodwork—The woodwork is golden oak, the drawer fronts are embossed, and the top leaf is quarter-sawn oak—think of it! It also has a regular nickel-plated automatic lift. Simply lift the lid and the machine slips into position with the greatest ease and accuracy. There is practically no weight to it.
- The machine is a high-class high-arm (under the arm measuring 8 1/2 by 5 1/2 inches) lock-stitch, with the new ball-bearing stand and all the latest improvements. All exposed parts are nickel-plated.
