Fire in the Clothes Closet—Fire which started in a clothes closet in the dwelling of William Harris, a dining car waiter employed by the O. R. & N. railroad, at 213 Second street, shortly before 2 o'clock this morning, did small damage before it was extinguished by the fire department. According to the report made to Captain E. A. Slover by Patrolman C. F. Frey, the fire appeared to have been of incendiary origin. At 6 o'clock this morning the cab of a steam shovel belonging to J. C. Cook, a contractor, and left in the street at Eighth and Davis streets, was found burning. The fire department put out the blaze before it reached the oil tank. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Peddler Insults Woman—C. R. Walker, a peddler, got into difficulties when he insulted the wife of Patrolman E. E. Lyon at their home at 634 Mildred street, yesterday. Walker ignored the "No peddler" sign on the fence and when he walked in Lyon's bulldog made a dash for him. Mrs. Lyon appeared in the doorway at the same time and Walker used some strong language in speaking to her as he retreated. Lyon returned home a short while afterward and when told of Walker's conduct followed him and brought him back to the house. There he forced Walker to make a profuse apology to Mrs. Lyon.

Views in Slides—Portland views will figure prominently in lantern slide lectures on "The Modern City" that will be delivered all over the states by A. D. Warner, a well known and popular lecturer on civic matters. The colored slides will be furnished by the Chamber of Commerce, Assistant Secretary D. Monaghan having already taken steps to fill the request from Mr. Warner. The views will show Portland in Rose Festival garb, and it is expected that a great deal of valuable publicity will be gained thereby.

Warning—Those who pay their vehicle tax insist on having "paid under protest" written on your receipt by the city auditor. The supreme court has now passed on the validity of this ordinance. Save the auditor's receipt.

Wanted—By Y. M. C. A. automobile school, automobiles to repair; no charges except for parts furnished. Phone Educational Director, Private Ex. 65-45661, Y. M. C. A. bldg.

Stockyards Luncheon—D. O. Lively, general agent of the Portland Union Stockyards company, has mailed to George W. Dixon, assistant secretary of the Hotel association a general invitation to members of the association to take luncheon at the Transit house, North Portland, Friday at 12:30 o'clock, as guests of the Portland Union Stockyards company, the Union Meat company and the Peninsula Industrial company. Those who accept the invitation will leave Portland at 11 o'clock in the morning from Second and Washington streets, on the "L" car, transfer to the cars of the Kenton Traction company and be delivered at the Exchange building at the stockyards.

Glory in Retreat—Rev. Father Servais is in full charge of the eastern Oregon Catholic ministers now on retreat with the other clergy of the state at Columbia university. This combination retreat throughout the state is being made for the purpose of greater harmony and economy. Eastern Oregon having but eight diocesan ministers and being still in an impoverished pioneer condition cannot yet afford the making of an independent retreat for its clergy. The retreating ministers, now in session, will, according to their usual custom, have their pictures taken in a body at the closing of the retreat and placed in the "Gallery of the Saints" at the university and cathedral.

Pneumonia Caused Death—The autopsy on the body of J. A. Simpson of Elkhead, Or., yesterday afternoon, showed that death had been caused by lobar pneumonia, induced by the excessive use of alcohol. It was suspected that Simpson had been given "knockout" drops by one of a quartet of men and women with whom he had been seen. Simpson's relatives have been notified of his death and will come to the city today to take care of the body.

Urges Arrest of Wife—In a long distance telephone message to Police Captain E. A. Slover at an early hour this morning, L. M. Bach of Seattle, said that his 18-year-old wife left Seattle last night in company with her mother. He asked that the police arrest her on her arrival or notify him of her address. Bach did not accuse his wife of any crime and his request to take her into custody was denied.

Wagner Files Declaration—Constable Lou Wagner is the latest candidate to file a new declaration of his candidacy to the voters may understand he was not a candidate before the assembly. His new declaration is the same as the old, with the words, "anti-assembly" added, to be placed on the ballot after his name. He is standing on his record, repeating his former pledge that he will continue his present policy as constable.

Leg Broken in Fall—While standing at the bar of the All Nations saloon at Second and Burnside streets with a glass of beer in his hand last evening, Michael Ward, a laborer, aged 40, slipped and fell heavily to the floor. When he tried to rise he found that his left leg was broken. He was removed to St. Vincent's hospital.

Mass Meeting—A general mass meeting will be held tonight at the Kentworth Presbyterian church, corner Gladstone and East Thirty-fourth streets, to discuss the sewer question and to consider the bids and estimates of the contractors. As many are requested to attend as may possibly do so.

Boy Hurt in Collision—John Olson was slightly injured yesterday morning when knocked from his bicycle by an auto truck at the corner of Park and Washington streets. Olson was riding down Washington street. He and the truck turned the corner at the same time. Olson was scratched.

Falls From Chimney—C. A. Martin, aged 59, a steelworker, fell from the tower of the Sunnyside Methodist church while adjusting a steel beam yesterday afternoon. His right arm was dislocated and he received several cuts about the scalp. He was removed to St. Vincent's hospital.

Court Approves Sale—County Judge Gleason has approved the sale of property belonging to the estate of Susan King made by the executor, J. R. King, Lots 1, 2 and 3 in Highland were sold to E. P. Mahaffey for $3250, and lot 8 in block 218 of Holiday's addition to east Portland to W. P. Hawley for $5050.

 Noxall is a chemical compound which at first causes a free exudation of all poisonous secretions. It cleanses and sterilizes the pores, thus eradicating offensive odors and excessive perspiration. Following this action is a proliferation and casting off all dead epithelium, including corns and callouses, rendering the feet sound and healthy. Noxall also toughens the feet so a smaller shoe may be worn with comfort. Noxall performs miracles and is all the name implies. Watch the transformation of your feet after using one box.

 We have moved. Our old quarters got too small to accommodate our growing business, and we have taken a long lease on the N. W. corner rooms, second floor, of the Lumber Exchange building, Second and Stark streets, said rooms being numbered 311 to 315. Our facilities here will be better than ever before for accommodating those having business to transact about purchases heretofore made in Irvington Park, Beaver Acres and Banner Acres, and for the furthering of the sale of Banner Acres, which we claim is the best acreage now on the market, and the price, $100 to $150 per acre, far, far—very far—below its real value.
