300 acres, 140 of which is under cultivation, balance in yellow for timber, which will more than pay for the clearing; sawmill 1½ miles from place. This place lies on one of the best county roads in Clackamas county, is well watered, having 6 springs and one 60 foot well, with creek running through one corner of place, only half mile to the town of Yloia, with school, church, store, etc., but 6 miles from electric line, also an assumed electric line which will soon be built and in operation through this particular section. This is A1 apple land, the soil is red shot. Owner is absolutely compelled to sell, as this price will testify. Only $50 per acre, $6000 cash, balance very easy terms. If you are looking for either a home place, or speculation this will certainly fill the bill. Let us prove our assertion that bill. Let us prove our assertion that this is 331-3 per cent below any other acreage in this locality at our expense.
