

MANY UNABLE TO CROWD INTO BIG SUNNYSIDE RALLY

Anti-Assembly Speakers Draw Many Voters; Joseph and McGinn Show Corporations' Interest in Campaign.

Time and again were the anti-assembly speakers applauded, and urged to speak on, last evening, in the largest rally of this campaign in the outlying districts. The meeting was held in Hunter's hall in Sunnyside, and the big room was unable to hold half those that gathered to hear the issues. After the meeting adjourned men stood about the hall and on the street for an hour still talking of the growing wave of insurgency against the assembly and machine rule.

The meeting last evening can well be taken as an indication of what Sunnyside will do in the primaries, and it was practically conceded by everyone present that anti-assembly candidates and issues would win by a vote of 3 to 1. George W. Joseph and Henry E. McGinn were the principal speakers, and both were given round after round of applause throughout their remarks. The former is candidate for senator from Multnomah county against Clifton N. (Pat) McArthur, while Mr. McGinn is candidate for circuit judge against Judge Cleland.

Speakers in Demand.

So great is the demand of Sunnyside people to hear these speakers that J. N. Davis, chairman of the meeting last evening, is considering holding another meeting this week. The talks of Mr. Joseph and Judge McGinn last evening were eloquent, and were a powerful denunciation of the assembly machine. The speakers showed how the present assembly crowd is struggling to continue this form of machine rule, and further showed how they were discovered in their attempts to murder the direct primary law and thus defeat the overwhelming voice of the people.

Judge Cleland Flayed.

After a few remarks by J. N. Davis, chairman of the meeting, Allen R. Joy was introduced. (Mr. Joy flayed Judge Cleland, saying he is a tool, and a good one, in the hands of corporation interests. He said it was a notorious fact that the Bar association was packed for his endorsement.)

George W. Joseph, candidate for senator from this county, was next introduced. He told how he formerly worked under the bosses, and how certain lawyers are under obligations to bosses and machines. Mr. Joseph explained there are some attorneys in this city who owe their existence to the bosses. A strong denunciation of such obligations to one man or one set of men was made by the speaker, who was loudly applauded by the audience.

Mr. Joseph said the passage of the direct primary law took away the rule of the bosses, and machine, and was aimed to give every man a square deal.

Bosses Fear Primary.

"No sooner was that law passed," said Mr. Joseph, "than the bosses began to tremble. They saw a mistake had been made. They saw their power could be taken away from them and placed with the people. It was then the bosses and machine politicians began to devise ways to defeat this law. When the bosses lost their power, the small political henchmen lost out, and they began to cry for help. The bosses and corporations have been fighting the Oregon direct primary law, which all states in the Union have been watching so closely, night and day. The assembly is one of their last schemes. And this assembly, my friends, is going to be so utterly defeated that the last stand of such rule will be overturned."

Three years ago, when the bosses were making an attempt to defeat the primary law, I was the only one who stood up in a crowd in the Belling-Hirsch building and protested. I declared then and there that the people wanted the direct primary law, and that it gave every man a free chance to be a candidate, and every attorney a free and equal chance to practice his profession. There was a time when the bosses were in power, and every young attorney had to bow to the dictatorship of these bosses."

Must Ignore Jealousies.

Mr. Joseph concluded his talk by urging every voter to support the entire anti-assembly ticket. He said it was a time when petty and personal jealousies should be cast aside, as issues were more important than men. It was what a man stands for in this election, he especially did he urge the defeat of the assembly candidates for the legislature. At the close of his talk applause followed applause, and many men throughout the audience declared they would give their time the rest of this week in working for the overthrow of the assembly idea.

Judge McGinn followed Mr. Joseph, and launched into his address by saying he would answer Ralph W. Wilbur, who had sent a friend to McGinn to ask if Wilbur's companies would get a square deal should McGinn be elected.

"Yes, Mr. Wilbur, your corporations will get a square deal," said the judge, "but they will get no more."

"I want to call your attention to the disreputable methods the old gang is using every day," said the speaker.

Cason Campaign a Blind.

"The latest thing is in putting up Boon Cason to defeat Mr. Joseph. C. N. McArthur is back of that scheme, and it is to draw votes from Joseph. Cason says he is running in good faith, but I know he is not. His picture is in the Oregonian, and glowing editorials are in the Oregonian, and you know that paper is not boosting the anti-assembly candidates and the direct primary law, which Boon Cason says he is for."

Judge McGinn further asked the assembly crowd many pointed questions, and further exposed the inside working of the assembly machine. He told how the three meetings were held by the big corporation lawyers at which the assembly ticket was framed, how it had leaked out and was printed in The Journal before the nominations were made.

The speaker further told how Wallace McCamant furnished the scheme to rob Judge Marquam of the building bearing that name, and called him "the despotic of poor old Judge Marquam." "Do you want a man like that to be elected to the supreme bench?" asked Judge McGinn. Again he urged the defeat of the assembly ticket from beginning to end, if the people wish to be free from boss and corporation rule.

MILD ATTEMPT TO HOLD PRO-ASSEMBLY RALLY; TWENTY-NINE RESPOND

Twenty-nine people, more than a third of whom were assembly candidates, gathered at Jones' Hall, Front and Gibbs streets, last night for an assembly meeting.

ASSEMBLY FORCES PAY MANAGING COMMITTEE TO AID FAILING CAUSE

It pays to be a member of the "managing committee" of the assembly forces, according to the statements of members of the committee. Several of the committee have stated that the reason they were devoting so much time to the work of the committee was because "There was something in it" for them. One member said he was making more as a member of the committee than he could by following his regular vocation, and another has made the statement that he was receiving $5 a day for his efforts to aid the assembly movement in Multnomah county.

DUFUR TO TAKE RAP AT ASSEMBLY SCHEME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) McMinnville, Or., Sept. 21.—One of the interesting features of the Yamhill county fair that is now in full blast will be Grand day, which will be Friday, September 23. W. H. Dufur of Portland will be the principal speaker. Mr. Dufur is an interesting speaker, a former member of the state legislature, one of the committee that drew up the original resolution condemning the assembly in Oregon.

Surveyors in Curry County.

Gold Beach, Or., Sept. 21.—A crew of railroad surveyors is working down the Rogue river, being now between Mule creek and Tillamook. They are not giving out any information for publication but are supposed to be in the interests of the Hill system.

"Loofah" Sponges

IMPORTED BY US

Direct From Japan

Before preparation for commerce the Loofah resembles a large gourd or giant cucumber. When dead ripe it falls from the tree to the ground, where the meat in time falls off, leaving the fibrous, sponge-like framework, which is gathered up by the natives, the seeds shaken out and the sponges packed in large bales of 2000 or 3000 sponges each. These sponges are ideal for the bath and no one should be without one. See display in our windows.
