

MRS. QUINN FREED FROM CONTROL OF TINGLEY PEOPLE

In Court at San Diego She Chooses Guardianship of Brother, and Says It is Good to Be Free Again.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Diego, Cal., Sept. 30.—"It is good to be free again!" These were the words that came today from the lips of Mrs. Julia P. Quinn, who was freed yesterday afternoon by habeas corpus proceedings instituted by her brother, George H. Patterson, a millionaire banker of Newcastle, Pa., against the Universal Brotherhood and Theosophical society, for alleged unlawful restraint.

Interviewed in the office of her attorneys, Mrs. Quinn declared she had not seen a newspaper for months. She asked for a paper, saying she wanted to know what was going on in the world. She declared that in the two years she was at Mrs. Katherine Tingley's home on Point Loma, she had received but $35. Mrs. Quinn said she got $10 on each of her birthdays and $5 when her mother left to go east, where she died.

Got $25 Out of $12,000. During that time, she said, the sum of $12,000 had been paid Mrs. Tingley and her associates for the support of herself and two children, William, 12 years old, and Harriet, 14. She said she was permitted to see the children but one hour every Sunday and two hours every alternate Sunday.

This restraint, she said, applied also to her mother when she was at the institution just before her death. Since she entered the Theosophy home, March 8, 1908, she had met, besides the attendants, she said, only six persons, three of whom were her relatives—her brother and his wife and Mrs. Crowell.

Until two months ago she lived, during her stay at the institution, in a small bungalow with a tent roof. When Patterson came here from Pennsylvania to see his sister, she was removed from the bungalow into the homestead.

Claimed Mrs. Quinn Was Insane. Although witnesses from the institute testified in court that Mrs. Quinn was mentally unbalanced, necessitating her being subjected to "moral" but not physical restraint, and that she had had but two lucid intervals during the past month, it seemed to those who spoke with her today that she was of sound mind, although of a nervous temperament.

"My sister is not insane," said Patterson. "She is nervous and high strung but mentally capable of looking after herself."

After resting here for several days Patterson and Mrs. Quinn will return to Newcastle. They will not leave, however, until an effort is made to have Mrs. Quinn's two children released from Point Loma homestead.

Patterson to Contest Will. Patterson's suit to upset the will of his mother, who left thousands of dollars to the Theosophists, will come up in about two months.

Mrs. Quinn was ordered released from the Theosophical homestead late yesterday afternoon by Superior Judge Lewis. The court declared that the evidence showed beyond doubt that Mrs. Quinn had been restrained by people who had no legal right to do so.

J. W. McKinley, attorney for Patterson, declared that the entire proceedings were teeming with absurdity on the part of the counsel for Mrs. Tingley.

"I have just as much right," said McKinley, "to go into the street, lay my hands on a stranger, bring him to my house and tell him that he must remain there, as these people had to forcibly restrain Mrs. Quinn or her liberty."

Affecting Scene in Court. Mrs. Quinn and her brother were showered with congratulations when Judge Lewis ordered her discharge. Patterson threw his arms around his sister and kissed her. Mrs. Quinn burst into tears.

The court said: "Mrs. Quinn, with whom do you wish to go—Dr. Wood (of Point Loma) or Mr. Patterson?"

"I wish," she said, "to go with my brother George."

Dr. Wood tried to argue with her but was dismissed by his attorney. Patterson and his sister then left the court room together.

DEMOCRATS SEEK MEN FOR TICKET

(United Press Leased Wire.) Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Charles E. Murphy, judge Alton B. Parker, temporary chairman of the Democratic state convention, and Chairman Dix of the state central committee conferred today on the chief planks of the party platform to be adopted by the convention. The planks on the Payne tariff, the high cost of living and other national issues will be strong arrangements of the Republican party. The tariff plank, it is said, will be particularly radical.

After a lengthy conference the leaders were unable to agree on candidates and Murphy told Judge Parker to call the convention to order at 2:15 this afternoon. Permanent organization was effected and adjournment was taken at 9 o'clock this evening.

Herbert Bissell, permanent chairman of the convention, said: "Our duty is to present the plain facts. I do not believe the people's attention will be diverted by spectacular claptrap, tumultuously reiterated by a uniquely entertaining lion hunter who in the wilds of Africa seems to have been able to forget his share of the responsibility for the carnival of extravagance and a dishonest tariff revision."

Murphy said today that he preferred an upstate candidate, as being a stronger opponent to Stimson. The four names under consideration by Murphy are Edward M. Shepard of Brooklyn, John Dix, Martin Glynn and Judge Martin Kehoe.

Hood River Boy Injured. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., Sept. 30.—Spot Stranahan, son of C. H. Shanahan of Hood River, fell from a train near The Dalles last night and is probably fatally injured.

SCHWAB NEGOTIATING FOR CRAMP SHIP YARD; CHINESE NAVY IN VIEW

(United Press Leased Wire.) Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Reports from New York apparently authentic, assert that Charles M. Schwab, the steel magnate, has opened negotiations to purchase the plant here of William Cramp & Sons. It is understood Schwab wants the property to use in building war vessels for the Chinese government.

IS WOLGAST STALLING OFF TITLE CHASERS

(United Press Leased Wire.) Fond Du Lac, Wis., Sept. 30.—Fight fans are accepting with bad grace the announcement that Champion Ad Wolgast will be out of the game for several months because of an injured arm and many are inclined to the belief that the Milwaukee scrapper is "stalling." Wolgast said a glancing blow on Tommy McFarland's head during their bout last night, reopened an old injury and he would not again enter the ring until it had thoroughly healed.

Registration of Voters. Registration of voters was reopened yesterday at the courthouse and will continue until October 17. All who failed to register previous to the primaries and those who have changed address now have an opportunity to get their names on the rolls. Yesterday 11 voters were added to the list, besides several transfers.

MRS. PALMER IN PERIL AT HANDS OF BOMB BEARER

Fred Wahlenmeyer Arrested at Door of Potter Palmer Mansion Armed With Knife and Bomb.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, Sept. 30.—What is believed to have been a maniacal attempt to dynamite the home of Mrs. Potter Palmer was made public today. Fred Wahlenmeyer, 26 years of age, is under arrest on suspicion of being either a dangerous maniac or a plotter against the lives of members of the Palmer family. Wahlenmeyer was arrested last night on the porch of the Palmer home. A bomb ready for ignition was in his possession. Wahlenmeyer rang the bell at the Palmer home. The butler said Mrs. Potter Palmer was sick. Suspicion was aroused and the police were notified. When they arrived they found Wahlenmeyer waiting outside the door with a butcher knife in his hand. He resisted but was finally overpowered. Wahlenmeyer said he had seen a man crawling toward the porch and had attacked him. The bomb, with fuse attached, was lying on the porch. He admitted having made it. The bomb was filled with smokeless powder and nitroglycerine. The fuse showed evidence of having been lighted and then pinched out. Wahlenmeyer is believed to be insane. After being taken to the police station he declared he was engaged to marry a niece of Senator Cummins. Emily Wahlenmeyer, a sister of the man under arrest, told the police he was insane as a result of an injury to his head. In the Potter Palmer home at the time of the man's arrest were Judge

Honore Palmer, Mrs. Potter Palmer's brother, Honore Palmer, her son, and Mrs. Potter Palmer. Since the incident the house has been guarded. A note opening with "Dear boy," and signed "Mary Des Moines," was found in Wahlenmeyer's pocket. City physicians were unable to determine whether Wahlenmeyer was insane or not. It is believed by some that he planned to get a reward from Mrs. Palmer by playing the role of a "hero."

nitroglycerine, and then stacked meat around the safe to deaden the sound. The robbery was not discovered till this morning when the shop was opened. No clew to the burglars was found. The thieves also went through the unlocked safe at Bashko's mill but secured nothing.

MULTNOMAH CLUB TO HAVE USE OF BIG TANK

The Multnomah club has secured the use of the Ringier natatorium at Fourth and Yamhill streets for the exclusive use of the club members. The ladies' annex will use it Wednesday and Friday mornings. The junior boys will use the tank Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock, and the junior girls the same hours on Tuesday. Seniors may use the tank when not otherwise engaged. Arthur Cavill will continue the instruction.

Suit Against Railway. Sarah E. Blair has begun suit against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in the circuit court for $15,314 damages for injuries sustained in alighting from a streetcar at Eleventh and Salmon streets. The accident took place one year ago. The plaintiff says she was thrown and injured about the left arm, neck and shoulder. Journal Ads bring results.
