

HOLD UP 35 MILES OF PAVEMENTS

Work Being Delayed Pending Outcome of Vote on Water Mains Amendment.

Thirty-five miles of street improvement in Portland are being held up pending the people's vote upon the water mains amendment, November 8. Paving cannot be laid until the mains are down and the mains cannot be laid until the people vote, because under the present confusion as to the law no contractor will accept work putting down water mains, as he is not sure of getting his money for his work.

The civic council representing the improvement associations of the East Side is extremely anxious that the people shall approve the water mains amendment by their vote at the special election November 8," said Sherman W. Walker, secretary of the council yesterday.

"The civic council wants it understood that the water mains amendment has received the approval of, and was largely originated among the people of the East Side, who under the present system cannot obtain water and who suffered last summer from a water famine.

"The civic council wants it understood that the water mains amendment, besides providing for the water department to attend to its own business and extend mains where necessary under reasonable regulations, also contemplates the repayment to those property holders who have paid out money under the old law of the amounts which they have expended."

"LIVE WIRES" ARE QUICK WITH COIN

Ready With Response to Request for Money to Start Auditorium Bond Issue.

Ready response came yesterday from the "Live Wires" as soon as the information had been spread that each was to dig up $2 for a fund with which to start the campaign for a municipal auditorium. Two hundred of the live wires, it was announced at the meeting at the Commercial club Friday, would put up their money without a whimper and others are falling in line rapidly.

The letters asking for checks of $2 from the "Live Wires" were out in Friday night's mail. At 11:30 yesterday the first remittance was received. The volunteer proved to be Charles F. Berg. His message was laconic:

"Here's mine. Yours auditoriously, Charles F. Berg."

E. C. Peterson, burster extraordinary of the desired fund, was cheered mightily by the promptness with which the first response reached him, and declared that the incident augured well for the subscription list and that within 24 hours he expected a flood of letters, each with its little check.

The eagerness with which the "Live Wires" themselves are coming across with their $2 shows a widespread general interest in the campaign for a municipal auditorium, declared Mr. Peterson.

"We propose to accomplish the building of an auditorium here that would be a credit to any city on earth. In order to have the question of issuing bonds for the structure placed on the ballot next June we must have 15 percent of the registered voters sign our petition. But we will do more than that. We expect to get a much larger percent of signatures, so that the people who pass on the matter when it is presented to them will know of the great public interest in Portland's auditorium and they will feel they are only following out the public demands in voting for it. Portland must have its auditorium and the "Live Wires" are determined to bring the movement to a successful issue."

Secretary Peterson posted Mr. Berg's letter on the bulletin board at the Commercial club and it became the rallying point late yesterday for other faithful workers in the cause.

NEWSPAPER ARTISTS ARE NOT CONNECTED WITH EXHIBITION

Facsimile of card of admission to art exhibition.

Thirteen of the leading newspaper and special artists of the city have prepared a statement for publication, in which they disclaim any connection with the art exhibition to be given on the second floor of the Imperial hotel November 17 to 19, inclusive, under the direction of Francis Thompson, an artist who conducts a studio in the Minger building.

It is said that solicitors working for Thompson have represented to Portland patrons of art that the coming exhibition would number among its contributors the most prominent brush and pencil artists of the city. On the strength of such representations, it is said, the solicitors have obtained a large number of subscriptions for the exhibition.

For the sum of $5 a ticket is issued to the subscriber, which entitles the holder to preference in purchasing pictures on exhibit. The general public is to be admitted to the exhibition without charge, but subscribers are given first chance to make purchases.

"If any of my solicitors have made statements to the effect that this exhibition which I am backing is for the benefit of local artists exclusively they have done so without authorization of any kind from me," said Mr. Thompson yesterday.

"I have already obtained the promise of pictures from some of the best cartoonists and artists of the country," he continued, "and while I cordially invite local contributions, I am not depending for the success of the art display on them."

Following is the statement prepared by local artists:

"Attention of the public is called to subscriptions being solicited for an art exhibition to be given in Portland soon, under the representation that it is to be aided by local newspaper artists and cartoonists.

"Solicitors have been working in the city for several weeks securing subscriptions for the benefit of the exhibition. Apparently, local newspaper artists and cartoonists are to contribute their work for the exhibition. This is not the fact. Portland newspaper artists and cartoonists have no connection with the proposed exhibition.

GOOD PROGRAM FOR SCHOLARSHIP FUND ASSEMBLY SHOULD BE THROWN OVER

Senator Dolliver and Former Governor Folk to Be Among Speakers.

Salmon, Or., Oct. 1.—Congressman W. C. Hawley and Attorney General A. M. Crawford advised the Republicans assembled at the "get together" banquet of the Salem Young Men's Republican club here last night to accept the ruling of the people on the principles involved in the recent primary election. Mr. Hawley said he thought the decision was emphatic and that the party should accept it.

A. M. Crawford also advised the Republicans that the movement for an assembly should be thrown over, that the people had spoken clearly and emphatically and that no future attempt should be made to supplement the direct primary with an assembly. None of the other speakers, however, touched upon this point in their addresses; they merely called upon the rank and file to support the ticket down the line, assembly and anti-assembly, without discrimination.

Among the speakers was Hal D. Patton, nominated for state senator on an anti-assembly and Statement No. 1 platform. He said he did not agree with Jonathan Bourne, that no man who received the recommendation of the assembly should be supported on that account. C. N. McArthur and C. B. Moores of Portland were present, and each promised to support the present ticket in Butte, as well as in other counties. Addresses were made by Walter L. Toose, Superintendent of Schools; J. H. Ackerman, L. R. Alderman, nominee for superintendent of schools; Dr. J. N. Smith and John A. Carson.

TIRE OF SLOW WORK ON BRIDGE AND STREETS

The delay in completing the Madison street bridge is one of the principal subjects to be discussed Thursday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Seventh Ward league. The session will be held at the Brooklyn hall, Powell and Milwaukee streets. Another subject for consideration will be the proposal charter amendment on water mains.

The southeast districts are thoroughly groused over the slowness with which the Madison street bridge is nearing completion. By this delay thousands of people are inconvenienced twice a day.

The slowness with which the pavement is being laid on Milwaukee avenue is another subject scheduled for discussion. The people of the league insist that public work be completed as specified in the contract, and they want more speed shown in some things. The site of the proposed bridge at Elsworth street to connect with the west side will also be discussed.

WOMAN'S PRESS CLUB TO HOLD FIRST MEETING

"Reporters' Evening" is the title given to the program of the first meeting of the Women's State Press club of Oregon, which will be held next Wednesday evening, October 5, at 8 o'clock, on the second floor of the city hall. Miss Lillian Tingle is expected to talk on the "Domestic Reporter," while papers on social, commercial and legal lines will be presented by Mrs. Beale Guinean Stone, Miss Margaret Monroe and Mrs. L. Bronson-Salmon.

Mrs. M. L. T. Hedges is the president, having been unanimously re-elected for a second term. The club is in a prosperous condition financially, and has an excellent program arranged for the season.

A WISCONSIN PIONEER SAYS Pe-ru-na is "Worth its Weight in Gold."

John Paulin, Sr., Says: "Peruna Cured My Catarrh."

Mr. John Paulin Sr., a pioneer of Port Washington, Wis., 119 Franklin St., is held in high esteem by the residents of that place. He is one of the oldest citizens. In a recent letter he says:

"I have used Peruna with good results for coughs and colds which troubled me every fall and winter. It has also cured my catarrh, which always became worse when affected with but a slight cold. I am recommending Peruna because it is worth its weight in gold."—Mr. John Paulin, Port Washington, Wis.

Pe-ru-na is a Catarrhal Tonic Especially Adapted to the Declining Powers of Old Age.

Hale and hearty old age means simply healthy organs and healthy functions retained beyond the usual time. As a rule, at the age of 60 or 70 years, the functions begin to wane and the various organs to lose their natural power.

This need not occur. At least not in all cases. Many a man and woman have retained their health and vigor much later in life.

We have on file several letters from octogenarians who have found Peruna of priceless value to them as their declining years advanced.

Mr. Levi Kegg, Rainsburg, Pa., writes: "Your medicine has done me so much good I intend to keep it on hand all the time."

"I had all the symptoms of systemic catarrh. My eyes were red and inflamed, my throat, stomach and bowels troubled me, was nervous, had nervous headaches. I am now entirely cured by Peruna."

"I am eighty years old, and I never weighed more than 140, but now I weigh 155 pounds."

Great Publicity Contest

We have recently reorganized our business under the firm name of HOVENDEN PIANO COMPANY, for the purpose of acting as coast distributors for ten of the largest and best eastern piano factories, selling directly from "factory to home," and thus saving to the purchaser the middleman's profit, which usually runs from $100 to $150, according to the expense of doing business. This, with the amount appropriated by our factories in the way of Manufacturers' Piano Purchasing Checks, for this special contest gives you a great opportunity to secure a high grade piano at very small cost. We also want to test the advertising strength of our city papers, so please mention in your answer, the paper from which you responded to this contest. If this proves successful here as it is doing in the east, we shall feel well compensated in an advertising way, for our generous offer. As the contest closes October 11, please send in your answer at once. Only one answer will be recognized from a family.
