Taking Interest in Coming Horse Exhibition.

In the fourth annual horse show to be given by the Portland Hunt club for three days, beginning October 13, the juvenile members of the club will take prominent part. The youngsters are ust as enthusiastic over the big show as iq senior members, and are doing their timost to make the event a success. They are taking great interest in the various events in which they may compate, and are teaching their ponies good manners so they will not misbehave when they go on exhibition before the immense throngs that are expected to crowd the oriental building in which the show will be held.

There are many valuable saddle pontes ed by juveniles in this city which will be entered in the saddle ponies classes. Master Douglas Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrell, has entered his pony, "Cub," and is confident of winning a blue ribbon. He is giving his pony a tryout each afternoon. Mas-ter William Biddle, on "Martinet," and his sister, Margaret, on "Rowdie," will display the good qualities of their po-nica. Miss Mildred Keats will ride the purchase of tubercular cows. Yesterday afternoon a large number of the members of the Hunt club were at the oriental building giving their mounts a tryout in the ring, which is nearly finished. Much of the time was spent in training the horses to leap the hurdles, as several of the members of the club will make a great effort to capture some of the prizes in the hurdling events. They realize they have strong competition, however, from the Seattle Hunt club members, who will enter several fine horses, and the officers from Vancouver barracks. Prominent among the latter who will ride are Lieutenants Waring, Budd, Dalton, Sears, Scoffeld, Sharp, Bishop and Seaman. Their horses are the best trained of any which are entered in these events. Colonel Jason Waters and Herr Von Koch, the judge, left New York yesterday and will arrive in Portland early next week, according to information received by President Cronin of the Portland Hunt club. Many of the horses which have been entered from points outside of Portland are also arriving Gamblers have their choice of three and being assigned to stables adjacent to the oriental building.
