

BEGIN FALL TERM OF SUPREME COURT

241 Appeals for Washington's Highest Tribunal to Decide—Long Session.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Olympia, Wash., Oct. 7.—The fall session of the supreme court will begin Monday, October 10, at 10 o'clock in the morning. This court has been rearranged by Chief Justice Rudkin since adjournment in July. At present department one of the court will be composed of Justices Mark A. Fullerton, Wallace Mount, Mack F. Gees, Emmett N. Parker, Department Two, Justices Ralph O. Dunbar, Stephen J. Chadwick, Herman D. Crow, George E. Morris.
 There are 241 appeals on the calendar and of this number King county has 85, Spokane coming second with 53 cases, and Pierce county with a total of 13 cases.
 The court will remain in continuous session until December 30, with a two day's vacation at election time and one day off for Thanksgiving.
 Clarke county has five appeals on the calendar and will be given a hearing on November 21 and 22. The titles of the cases are: C. D. Hays, appellant, vs. City of Vancouver, respondent, Stapleton & Templeton for appellant, P. J. Kirwin for respondent, Carrie Mayer et al, appellants, vs. Mike Jacob, respondent, Miller & Cross for appellants, Haur & Green, J. P. Stapleton for respondent, Lilly Caldwell, respondent, vs. Northern Pacific Railroad company, appellant, Frank E. Vaughn for respondent and A. L. Miller and G. B. Reid for appellants, Jennie L. West, respondent, vs. William Shaw, et al, appellants, R. H. Back for respondent, Miller & Cross for appellants, John Jagsy et al, respondents vs. Patrick Reaney et al, appellants, H. W. Arnold and A. L. Miller for respondents, and J. P. Stapleton for appellants.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT ALBANY HEARS ROSE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Albany, Oct. 7.—Ex-Mayor David S. Rose of Milwaukee, Wis., the first of the speakers to be sent here by the Greater Oregon Home Rule association in combatting state wide prohibition, was greeted by a large audience at the opera house last night. The speaker introduced by Dr. Hill. Mr. Rose spoke on the "Fallacies of Prohibition" and held the close attention of his auditors for over two hours.
 Petitions have been filed for the repeal of the local option measure in Lincoln county the coming election, and the "dry" and "wet" are lining up for the campaign.

CZAR LOOKING FOR ICE FREE SEA LINE

Thinks He Has Found What He Wants; Gets Busy Along Borders of Sweden.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—The hastening of reserve forces to the Swedish frontier is causing a great deal of speculation here as to the czar's intentions and the belief is general that Nicholas will seize the ice free strip of seaboard along the North Atlantic he has been yearning for years.
 Nicholas' recent visit to Germany is believed to have had something to do with his energy along the Swedish border. Some understanding with the Kaiser was reached, it is believed here, although no official announcement to that effect has been made.
 Stories of Nicholas' reception in Germany are reaching here daily. They are to the effect that the Socialists, Liberals and Radicals alike did their best to make his visit uncomfortable, although the Kaiser and his followers extended him every courtesy.

JAPANESE SUES TO GET LICENSE

S. Tanda Would Marry White Girl, but Seattle Clerk Can't See Point.

Seattle, Oct. 7.—To compel Claud F. Gage, a clerk in the county auditor's office, to issue a marriage license to him, Sulkohi Tanda, a Japanese farm hand, has begun suit in the supreme court. Tanda appeared at the auditor's office a week ago and asked for a license that would permit him to marry Miss Daisy Tithill, a prominent girl of Vancouver, Wash. The license was refused because the auditor believed that marriages between white girls and Asiatics in Seattle were becoming "altogether too numerous."
 Records for Portland cement production in the United States were broken last year with an output of more than 2,000,000 barrels, worth more than $60,000,000.

BOY FOUND AFTER 4 YEARS' SEARCH

Sam Isaacson, Lost During the San Francisco Fire, Shows Up at Palo Alto.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Detroit, Mich., Oct. 7.—Sam Isaacson, 12 years of age, is en route to Detroit from Palo Alto, Cal., where he was found after a four years' search. The lad disappeared from the home of his aunt, Mrs. J. Cornfield, in San Francisco at the time of the fire in 1906. Mrs. Cornfield came to Detroit shortly afterward and since then has kept up a continual search through the medium of newspaper advertisements.
 Milton Smith, a publisher at Palo Alto, found the boy through one of these advertisements. The lad was living with a family named Frohman and was known by the name of Garoty. What caused him to change his name is not known.

SAYS RICH FOLKS ARE WORST OF SMUGGLERS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 New York, Oct. 7.—"The richer people are, the more inclined they seem to be to defraud the government," remarked Federal Judge Hand, as he handed out a fine of $5000 to Mrs. Ada Adriance today. Mrs. Adriance pleaded guilty to a charge of smuggling.
 Judge Hand said his experience with smugglers had taught him that his remarks were especially true in smuggling cases.
 A woman arrested yesterday for smuggling a necklace worth $12,000 had a hard time escaping a prison sentence. Judge Hand finally heeded her pleadings but he remarked: "I will send the next offender to prison."
 When Mrs. Adriance's case was called today the prosecuting attorney recalled the remark. Mrs. Adriance was compelled to pay $30,000 in penalties to the customs officials.
 "Rich people must stop smuggling," said Judge Hand in passing sentence, "and they must stop it right now. I have been lenient for the last time. Fines seem not to deter rich people. The next smuggler goes to 'prison.' I will set an example that will frighten these wealthy customs dodgers."

BOB CHANLER'S BROTHER DEFIES THAT DALGOROUKI

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Cobham, Va., Oct. 7.—"I have named my prize bear Dalgorouki," said John Armstrong Chaloner, brother of "Sheriff

Bob" Chanler, today. Chaloner leads the simple life on his farm near here. "I meant it as an insult to Dalgorouki, not the bear," said Chaloner. "I shall expect a challenge to a duel. If Dalgorouki seeks satisfaction he will get it. I am an expert marksman. I win both ways, for if he does not challenge, he will go through life with the sting of an insult unresented."

Fruitgrowers' Union for Hillsboro.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Hillsboro, Or., Oct. 7.—A call has been issued for a meeting to be held here October 23 to perfect a fruitgrowers' association. The proposition is to be ready to handle the apple crop next year. This county has produced a considerable apple crop and the need of an organization to market the crop is quite apparent.

Extend Eugene Water Mains.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Eugene, Or., Oct. 7.—The city council is planning about five miles of water mains extensions in the near future and has just placed an order with an eastern manufacturing firm through a local hardware house, an order for 15,200 feet of four and six inch water pipe and an order with a Portland factory for about 5000 feet of wood stave pipe. The latter will reach here at once but the iron pipe will not arrive for several weeks. Bonds in the sum of $30,000 were recently voted by the people of the city for this purpose, but the pipe ordered will cost only about $8000.

New Hillsboro Hotel Leased.
 (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
 Hillsboro, Or., Oct. 7.—A Portland man has taken a lease on the new three story hotel and it is to be opened for business by the holidays. The establishment will contain 55 rooms for guests, besides living rooms for families. Workmen are now engaged in finishing the interior.
