Eight Hour Day and 50 Cents per Hour for Repair Work Demanded; Hard Fight Is Promised.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Oct. 7.—Between 50 and 100 employes of the Moran company walked out this morning, demanding an eight hour day and 50 cents per hour for all for the services of a stenographer. Miss repair work. These demands, were decided upon last night at a special meeting of the Iron Shipbuilders' union. The employers absolutely refused and the men quit work. The men were employed on a contract repairing the steamer City of Puebla, docked at the Hoffernan drydock. The Moran company is seriously handicapped by the union, which con-sidered the present time an opportune one to make the demands, as the contract on the Puebla is limited to 25 days. A fight to a finish is promised, as the company has been annoyed since the metal workers walked out.
