Country Business Good.

Commission merchants report an in-creasing demand for stuff from the country. Wholesale growers report out of town trade excellent.

Dressed Meats Weaker.

Owing to the very mild weather with its consequent ourtailing of consump-tion, there is smaller demand for dressed meats on the street.

tention to Damage News; All Others Affected.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Regardless of consid-erable effort on the part of the local bull interests to create some encourage-ment, helped by some doubtful bull news near the close of the session, the wheat market relapsed into heaviness. Trade began the day with a very bullish Liverpool cable. Selling pressure in the English market, due to large deliveries on contracts and failure of the Argen-tina market to make any response to the crop damage claims in that country. The trade, however, took the same view of the Argentina news, ignored it and sold wheat lower at once. Late today there was a cable report that Greece had withdrawn her repre-sentative from Constantinople, because that Greece had withdrawn her repre-sentative from Constantinople, because of the present political troubles. Southwest markets had moderate re-ceipts for the day. There are some re-ports of damage to wheat in stocks in North Dakota, where it was gathered at headers. On the whole, there is very little in the situation to relieve the gen-eral bearishness. Corn traders started the market weak

Corn traders started the market weak and lower. Later it hardened with wheat and some week end covering by local shorts. Bear traders, not making the headway expected, turned buyers the last hour. Feature in acts to the source of the source that month closed the same as yester-day. Run of hogs at most packing points is a little larger than the trade expect-ed. Prices at yards were reported 10 cents lower, and later indicated even more break. Many shorts have been run in during the week. These left the market open to an attack from local
