Miss Evelyn Wilson, and Miss Anita-Burns, who returned with Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Hurns. The return of Miss Burns is of particular interest on ac-count of her work in the world of art and her particular talent for portraits vuring her stay in Florence she had a picturesque studio in the hills overlooking Florence and enjoyed the dis-tinction of studying with George De Forest Brush until his return to America a year ago. Mr. Brush is now oc-cupying the studio of Proctor, the noted animal sculptor, in McDougal alley, the haunt of New York artists. Proctor in turn has taken an attle studio where he is modeling some heroic animals to be placed on either side of the ap-proaches to one of the bridges over the Friends of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Malpas have been grieved to learn of the death of their young son, Frederick, on Friday of last week. A delightful bit of news to reach Portland is the approaching marriage of Miss Louise Jean Bruere of New York and Walter L. Whittlesey, formerly of Portland. The romance had its incep-tion at Seaside a year ago, when Mr. Whittlesey was on his vacation here for the summer and Miss Bruere was spending a year with her brother, Dr. G. E. Bruere. After leaving Portland Whittlesey occupied the chair of mathematics at Princeton, but is now connected with the Western Union in New York. Miss Bruere has a delightful Soprano voice and has been heard in concert in Portland. She was much entertained during her stay here. The date of the wedding has been set for November 39.

A pretty compliment to Miss Blanche Schott was Miss Marguerite Boschke's luncheon on Tuesday. The table was centered with a graceful cluster of pink dahlias and the place cards were water colors of the same flowers. About the table were seated Miss Schott, Miss Nellie Flake of Belton, Texas, Miss Ruby Crichton, Miss Carrie Neal Becker of The Dalles, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Joseph Hawkins, Miss Louise Williams, Mrs. George W. Miss Elizabeth Sander of Seattle, who was the house guest of Miss Elizabeth Stewart for 10 days, returned to her jorthern home Monday. While in Portland Miss Sander was the inspiration for some delightful informal entertaining. Among her hostesses were Miss Stewart, Miss Alice Forbes and Miss Mamie Dunn. Miss Stewart was recently the much feted guest of Miss Sander in Seattle.

Mrs. George F. Brice entertained the Portia club Tuesday at her East Twenty-eighth street home which was prettily decorated for the occasion with sters and sweet peas in pastel shades. Three tables of 500 were played and prizes won by Mrs. John Manning and Mrs. Frank Grant. Mrs. Oglesby Young will be the next hostess. Those present Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mrs. Clyde R. The rooms carried decorations of red and white flowers and in the all were two beautiful flags, one of the United States and one of the Confederacy, During the evening Mrs. Gadis Nichols sang. Mrs. Joplin was assisted in receiving Duff Silva, and Mrs. George H. Thomas. The fund raised is to be applied to the Shilo monument and to the Raven Gap educational fund.

The opening concert of the season undet the Lois Steers-Wynn Coman direction at new Baker theatre Tuesday night with Antonio Scotti and Mme. Bernica de Pasquali as the bright particular stars, was only a repetition of the social and artistic success of these affairs during the past seasons. The popularity of these concerts, which society and music lovers have claimed for their own pleasure, is attested by the large increase in the subscription list which had to be closed on account of lack of room. "SLENDER" NEMOS

Stout Women No Longer Monopoliz the Nemo Hygienic Service

Many women still think that all Nemos are for stout figures. No doubt some dealers encourage this to sell goods that sell easiest-and cally sell themselves, the world over. The truth is that the "slender" Nemos do just as much for women of slight build as the more famous Self-Reducing Corsets do for their stout sisters-same hygienic excellence, same comfort with perfect style, same unequaled durability. Your dealer will show you the "slender" Nemos, if you insist.

Nemos the World's Standard (New York Press, Mar. 13, 1910.) This American product-the Nemo Cerset-is worn in every part of the world where women wear corsets.

Lastikops Corset No. 330

Most Stylish and Comfortable Corset Ever Made for Slender Figures Nemo No. 330 is not merely an improvement-it's an actual REVOLU-TION in corset making.

Such a corset could never have been made before we invented our new "Lastikops Webbing"-and can never be made without it. It is a Beau-

No. 3 LASTIKOPS BANDLET

Greatest of all Inventions for Figure Reduction and Control

The illustration below shows the construction of the semi-elastic Lastikops Bandlet; also its position in the corset, and that comfortable supporting curve, which cannot be produced by any other fabric, and which insures the highest degree of fashionable slenderness.

The Bandlet gives better support than the best separate abdominal band you can buy at any price; selfadjusting, can't slip out of place; overcomes all dangers of tight lacing. Used only in Nemo Self-Reducing Corsets Nos. 522 and 523, at $5.00.

Lastikops Hose Supporters Every Nemo Corset (except the few $2.00 models) is finished with Lastikops Hose Supporters, guaranteed to outwear any corset.
