

MANNING'S FIGHT PROVE CENTER OF MANY ANXIOUS TO HEAR SPEAKERS TO AID CRUSADE FOR BETTER MILK IN HOOSIER STATE

Multnomah county is to be the pivot point and the storm center in the congressional fight of the second district, according to those who have made a close survey of the congressional situation. Admitting that the friends of John Manning, Democratic nominee for congress against A. W. Lafferty, the Republican nominee, contend that Manning has a shade the better of the argument here and an even break in the eastern part of the state. Therefore they predict his success in November.

Multnomah county, in the primary election gave Lafferty a plurality of 2921 votes. His plurality in the whole district was 2376, thus making his plurality in all the counties outside of Multnomah only 445.

Those who have studied the situation believe that this condition gives Manning an advantage throughout the district which will result in his election in November. Manning, in the past, has shown himself to be a good vote getter in Multnomah county and it is believed that he will support this record in November.

Business interests of the city and county are falling in line behind Manning, contending that they would rather see him in congress as their representative than his opponent, who is practically a newcomer in the state, who is relatively unknown and who is to a great extent unacquainted with the needs of the city, county and district in legislation.

Up in Umatilla county and throughout eastern Oregon generally, the sentiment against Lafferty is growing, according to reports which come from there. The friends of Congressman Ellis are not converts to the idea taught in the good book that when one cheek is slapped the other should be turned. They are not strong Lafferty men and it is reported large numbers of them will swing their strength to Manning.

Another and a potent influence is working against Lafferty in eastern Oregon, according to men who come from that section and tell of political conditions east of the Cascades. At the time of the primary election it was not generally known throughout eastern Oregon that Lafferty was one of the special agents assigned to detective duty during the land fraud investigations under Heney. Since that time, however, eastern Oregon men have begun to hear the name of a special agent to Oregon in 1908 as a special agent and was assigned to "shadow" the late Senator Mitchell. His work in following Mitchell and gathering data to be used against him in his indictment and trial, and his work in building up the case against Congressman Williamson and others well known in eastern Oregon is becoming known.

The friends of Senator Mitchell and of Congressman Williamson are many throughout eastern Oregon and these men are not looking with favor on Lafferty since his connection with their indictment and trial is becoming known.

Baker county gave Ellis 338 votes and Lafferty 258; Clatsop, Ellis 215, Lafferty 343; Crook county, Ellis 212 and Lafferty 219; Gilliam gave Ellis 183 and Lafferty 154; Grant, Ellis 149, Lafferty 209. The vote in the other counties, Multnomah excepted, was as follows: Malheur, Ellis 178, Lafferty 171; Morrow, Ellis 156, Lafferty 158; Sherman, Ellis 129, Lafferty 88; Umatilla, Ellis 77, Lafferty 344; Union, Ellis 201, Lafferty 228; Wallowa, Ellis 135, Lafferty 221; Wasco, Ellis 310, Lafferty 309; Wheeler, Ellis 165, Lafferty 157.

As seen, this vote was very close, and it is believed that the Ellis men who refuse to support Lafferty, and those who are turning against him because of his activity as an agent of Francis J. Heney, will vote out the lead he had and give it to Manning. This, with Manning's strength in Multnomah county, is expected to put Manning in the lead and Lafferty in second place.

Manning expects to leave for eastern Oregon in a few days to begin a active campaign for election. He will be accompanied by United States Senator George E. Chamberlain, and Manning, Oswald West, candidate for governor, and Senator Chamberlain will tour the second district.

Crowds That Will Attend Lecture Will Demonstrate Necessity of Auditorium.

United States Senator Dolliver.

The joint committee of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae and Oregon Alumnae, having in charge the lecture and entertainment course for the season, is much pleased at the interest shown. People are appreciating the chance offered them of hearing so many of the celebrities of the day at such a nominal rate. It shows again the need of a larger auditorium, as the Masonic Temple will not accommodate all who wish to attend.

Senator Dolliver and Governor Folk will speak at the armory, but the other six numbers will be placed in the Masonic Temple.

The first attraction to appear will be Montaville Flowers, dramatic reader and impersonator, who is recognized as one of the great successes of the Lyceum platform. He combines the arts of the lecturer, the actor and the reader. He will appear November 10. All course tickets must be obtained before that time.

The members of both societies have tickets and they are also on sale at Eilers, Gillis, Woodard & Clark's and Frank Nau's drug store. Mrs. George Beach is chairman of the ticket committee.

U. S. Attorney Tells Consumers' League Members He Can Not Fight Milk Combine Until Anti-Trust Law Violated.

The pure food committee of the Consumers' league called in a body upon United States District Attorney McCourt to ask him to invoke the Sherman anti-trust act against the alleged milk combine. Mr. McCourt explained that the law had reference only to interstate commerce, but that if the traffic between Oregon and Washington were disturbed by the combine he would be only too glad to investigate and aid in bringing the offenders to justice.

The pure food committee, composed of the city's most representative women, decided upon further action. They will go before the city board of health at its next meeting and demand that the board take action to bar milk from cows known to have consumption. The local law makes it an offense punishable by fine and imprisonment for dairymen knowingly to sell milk from diseased cows. Evidence has been furnished the committee that cows tested a year ago and now wearing brass tags in their ears are supplying milk to the city.

There are so many cows thus used, say the members of the committee, that it seems there must be a lack in some department of the city inspection. A rigid enforcement of the law will be demanded of the city board of health, all of whose members are in perfect sympathy with the campaign for better milk. The officials have stated that they will be glad to receive evidence as to the sale of tubercular milk in Portland.

The pure food committee will also cooperate with milk dealers in putting forward plans for a state wide tuberculosis test for dairy cows. Members of the committee said yesterday that such a law would be only the natural outgrowth of the city's pure milk law. They also expressed sympathy for the individual dairymen who at the present time are compelled to shoulder all the loss from the slaughter of tubercular cows. They agreed with dairymen, creamerymen, city officials and others that the dairymen who obey the law and kills diseased cows as a measure of protection to public health should be recompensed, particularly in those instances where the dairymen's only capital and means of support for his family consists in the herd, most of whose members may be slaughtered after test.

Mayor Simon said yesterday that he would ask the city council, at its next meeting to authorize an investigation into the present milk situation. It is desired to know whether a milk combine exists, and if more money is now being charged for milk than circumstances warrant.

Democrats Would Endeavor to "Show Up" Colonel; Bryan Will Trail Roosevelt for One Week.

(Publishers' Press Leased Wire.) Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 8.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt vs. Colonel William J. Bryan, is the program of the rival party organizers of Indiana for the coming week. The former comes first and will make a dozen speeches from a special train Thursday.

Colonel Bryan arrives the following morning. He will answer Colonel Roosevelt and will attempt to show that the Republicans were extremely inconsiderate of their own platform in bringing Roosevelt to Indiana. Colonel Bryan, in a short statement to managers of the Democratic committee, says:

"I predict that when Colonel Roosevelt comes to Indiana he will be half as insurgent as he was in Kansas, and twice as insurgent as he was at Saratoga."

Bryan has been called into the fight by the Democratic leaders for the express purpose of trailing Colonel Roosevelt and to "show up" his efforts and those of Senator Beveridge. The latter and his lieutenants are confident that his Roosevelt tour will mean many thousands of votes for their tickets. Members of the Republican organization say, however, that Colonel Roosevelt's coming would have had a better effect if the Saratoga convention had not endorsed the Payne-Aldrich tariff, opposition to which is the main spring of Senator Beveridge's campaign.

The Republicans have made elaborate plans for the Roosevelt tour. Senator

Beveridge, Chairman Lee of the state committee, and a large number of party leaders will meet him at Covington, Ind., and accompany him until he leaves for Richmond at night. Senator Beveridge will assist with the colonel at each stop, the plan being to have the latter laud the senator for his attitude on public questions.

Arrangements have been made for a number of all day rallies, at which Colonel Roosevelt will be the headliner. His meeting here will be the occasion for the first appearance of former Vice President Fairbanks in the campaign, as the latter will preside and deliver a short address.

Claim Inconspicuous. Colonel Bryan is scheduled for a week's tour that will take him into every district. The Republican leaders say that the coming of Bryan is not inconsistent from a Democratic standpoint as is the coming of Roosevelt from theirs. Bryan is standing for county local option in Nebraska. The Democrats of Indiana are after the repeal of the local option and the substitution of city option in its place.

Worst Drunkard in City

Sent by Mayor to Neal Institute--Now Has Honorable Work and Supporting His Family--
Read Mayor's Own Description

Atlantic's Mayor

HON. S. W. W. STRAIGHT, ATLANTIC, IOWA.—

To Whom It May Concern:

Soon after it was publicly announced in this city that Hon. J. E. Bruce had associated himself with the Neal Institutes Company of the United States, he advertised for the purpose of giving the people of this city and county, where he has lived something over 28 years, a practical demonstration of the Neal treatment and cure, that he would bring Dr. Neal to the Atlantic Hospital for the purpose of treating any persons afflicted with the drink habit who might make application. He publicly stated that he would be glad to receive some of the worst cases that might be picked up in the county. I had a man that I had sentenced to jail a number of times from drunkenness; he was one of the worst drunkards I ever knew, and probably the worst in the city. He had neglected his family, was a wreck physically and mentally and seemed to be beyond any earthly help. He was treated for three days under my observation at the Atlantic Hospital by Dr. B. E. Neal, and at the end of that time he was discharged and to every appearance perfectly cured.

The results of the treatment in his case are truly marvelous. This treatment took place in the early part of January, and I have seen this man frequently since and have made frequent inquiries about him. He is wonderfully changed and improved mentally and physically. Immediately after his treatment he took up honorable employment and is today working and supporting his family. I personally know of three other very similar cases that were treated at the same time, and so far diately after his treatment he took up honorable employment and is one of our most prominent and leading citizens, has resided in this county for 28 years—is a man of remarkable business ability. He stands above reproach, and has shown good judgment in associating himself with said company. I have no hesitation in giving this treatment, and Senator Bruce, as well, my unqualified recommendation to all my brother officers and those who may be interested.

S. W. W. STRAIGHT,
Atlantic, Iowa, 3-3-10. Mayor.

There is a reason why a treatment is indorsed and praised by everyone—the first treatment that was ever perfected to successfully overcome the evils of alcoholism. The reason is that the Neal Institute, in THREE SHORT DAYS, positively cures the worst Drunkard. There are no Hypodermic Injections or any deleterious harmful drugs used. The Neal Institute not only announces that the Cure is guaranteed, but insures that each patient take their Franchise Bond and Contract, which puts all Responsibility on the Neal Institute as soon as patient enters Sanitarium, so that, unless the Neal Institute effects the cure as it claims, the Entire Fee—Which has Simply Been on Deposit—is Returned to the Patient at the end of the third day of treatment.

Our proposition is simply the Guarantee of a Reliable, established, Institute of the East, to the people of the northwest—where it is not so well known—and where the people may yet be somewhat skeptical of a Treatment that several years ago Astonished and Convinced the Medical Profession.

It should be the Duty of Every one in Need of Help, or Their Friends and Relatives to Call and Write TODAY. You would not delay in calling a Physician when it is a Life and Death Matter, and the Evil of Alcoholism is More than a Life and Death Matter. And the Neal Institute offers immediate and positive relief.
