SCECACIÓN What would you say to living in central British Columbia, in the wildest and richest provinces of Canada?, Where stock runs out the year round and fatten on the wild pea and bean vine and are ready for the market early in the spring. The soil is a rich, black loam, with clay subsoil. In fact, it is park-like land, most of which is ready for the plow; $10 will clear any acre in the tract, and we own 164,000 acres, all of which les from 1 to 12 miles from the rallroad, which will be completed next spring. Imagine land like this, only $14 to $20 per acre, and then you 'have five youngleted next spring. Imagine land like this, only $14 to $20 per when the rallroad, which will be from the train and the set of the number of the plow.
