MULTNOMAH PLAYS WASHINGTON HERE

Manager Latourette Arranges Game for November 1 at Vaughn Street.

Menager Jack Latourette of the Multnomah club football team ennounced this morning that he had signed the Washington State college of Pullman for a football game in Portland, Tuesday, November 1, following the Washington State-Oregon Agricultural college game of Saturday, October 29. The game will be played on the Vaughn street baseball grounds, which are under lease to the club for the winter.

Pullman is said to have a great team this year and no doubt will put up pretty games against the Aggies and the clubmen. The club will be able to stage the game at much less expense than if Manager Latourette had brought the Washingtonians here himself.

Superintendent Walker of the Multnomah club put men to work on the grounds yesterday to lay off the field for the season. The Queen Anne high school of Seattle will play Hill Milltary Academy there Saturday and the field must be prepared for the game. The gridiron will be laid east and west with the grandstand and as close to the asserts the backfield is better than any he has ever seen. It consists of Dud Clarks, the famous Oregon punter Schmitt, the noted Notre Dame fullback; Hart, the crack Minnesota half back and "Rat" Rhinebart, the Oregon Aggie quarter, will make up the quartet behind the line. On the line will be such players as "Tub" Carlson, Rex Conant, Wells, Opie Smith, Jack Hick-son, Ford and others.
