IN SOCIETY

Society paid homage to James K. Hackett by gathering in large numbers at the Helig theatre last night to see "Monsieur Beaucaire." It was a smart assemblage, beautifully gowned and showing unqualified approval of the excellent playhouse in its air of perfect enjoyment.

WASH THAT ITCH AWAY

It is said that there are certain springs in Europe that give relief and cure to Eczema and other skin diseases. If you know that by washing in these waters you could be relieved from that awful itch, wouldn't you make every effort to take a trip to Europe at once? Would you not be willing to spend your last cent to find the cure? But you need not leave home for these distant springs. Relief is right here in your own home, town!

TALKS ON TEETH

By THE REX DENTAL CO., Dentists. AD-REM (To the Point Direct). In our crusade against bargain counter (junk dealer) dentists and dental work, we have in no manner or form made a single derogatory comment regarding the highest class dentists. Our endeavor has been to gain for ourselves that class of patronage. We want the very best that is possible in dental science and to caution the public against buying cheap penny made dental work which is worse than nothing (nothing—nothing is made). The man who follows our advice and patronizes only the best dentists will be decidedly the beneficiary in the end. No dentist who can do the goods has any right to take exceptions. We do not blame the man who cannot make good for trying to do so. Livelihood out of a profession that he has spent his three years' time and money at a dental college, trying to learn. Not every man who graduates from a dental college turns out to be a success story. Nay, verily, I say unto you, but few do. Our crusade merely protects people from being humiliated and opens the way for all good high class dentists to get their share of the business—an ulterior motive we do not deny.

APPRECIATION OF PARENTS

ONE of the most common remarks a young girl makes is: "Mother has such old-fashioned ideas." Apology and complaint ring out in these words, but were you to ask that girl if she is ashamed of her mother, you would only bring down wrath upon yourself. Of course, she is not ashamed of her.

Some day when she is older she will come to love all these things, just as others do. This simplicity and sincerity will be delightful and she will regret not only the fact that she worried foolishly, but that she has not shown appreciation instead of making others uncomfortable. So many chances slip by the ordinary girl—chances to show the love one really has for parents by loving the things they love and giving up the things they do not care for.

Yeorhals, Mrs. H. C. Cabell of Vancouver Barracks, Mrs. George Simons, Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, Mrs. L. Alleh Lewis, Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, Mrs. A. G. Barker, Mrs. H. C. Wortman and Miss Valentine Pritchard.

E. C. Meigs left Tuesday for a business trip to Chicago and New York.

Mrs. Julia Freeman returned Monday from several days' visit in Astoria, where she was the guest of honor at a bridge afternoon given by her sister.

The Portia club met yesterday with Mrs. Oglesby Young in her East Salmon street home.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Laidlaw and Miss Ellenore Laidlaw, of Spokane, who brought their splendid string of horses for the horse show, returned to their home Sunday. Other of the prominent horse show folk who have returned to their homes are Mrs. J. D. Farrell and Miss Helen Farrell, of Seattle, who left Sunday morning; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McGregor, Miss M. C. Gregor and D. G. McGregor, Jr., of Vancouver, B. C., who returned Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Howe and Miss Howe, also of Vancouver, B. C., left Monday and the judges, Colonel Jason Waters and Herr W. T. Koch, of New York, were among those who left on Sunday.

The marriage of Miss Josephine A. Whipple of Portland and Lieutenant Jere Baxter of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, U. S. A., stationed at Fort Niagara, N. Y., took place Wednesday at St. Paul's church, St. Paul, where Rev. G. N. Ten Brock performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Howe and Miss Howe, also of Vancouver, B. C., left Monday and the judges, Colonel Jason Waters and Herr W. T. Koch, of New York, were among those who left on Sunday.

AT THE THEATRES

Hackett at Helig Tonight. The attraction at the Helig theatre tonight at 8:15 o'clock will be James K. Hackett and his excellent company of players in his well known success, "The Prisoner of Zenda." Tomorrow night, "The Return of Don Caesar."

Seats Selling for "The City." Clyde Fitch's great play, "The City," will be presented by Shubert Brothers at the Helig theatre, for three nights, beginning next Thursday, October 20. A special price matinee will be given Saturday. Seats are selling for the entire engagement.

Funny Billy Van. That grand old minstrel man, Billy Van, is heading the new bill at the Grand. Van is in a class by himself and is considered the most original comedian wearing burnt cork. Surrounding him is a strong vaudeville program.

"Old Soldier Fiddlers" at Orpheum. The new bill at the Orpheum this week was greeted by two crowded houses yesterday. A quartet of gray-haired, civil war veterans, lively old tunes and enjoyable comedy, completely took the house by storm. Matinee every day.

Sensational Cycling Act, Pantages. Greatest of all cycling acts in vaudeville today is that presented by the Leo Troupe at Pantages this week. Allen Doone, the Irish comedian, is toplined in his charming playlet "Sweet County Kerry."

Billy Clifford at Bungalow. It must be a pleasant misison on earth—just going around making people laugh. Probably that is what makes Billy Clifford, now at the Bungalow, so good humored. He is appearing in a new musical comedy, "The Girl, the Man and the Game."

"The Lion and the Mouse." The Baker Stock company is giving splendid performances of Charles Klein's famous play, "The Lion and the Mouse" this week with Alice Fleming as Shirley Rosemore, the first really strong fact the favorite leading woman has had this season.

At the Big Four. There are exceptionally clever programs offered at each of the Big Four theatres today. At the Star several features make up the show. At the Astoria every picture is a hit. At the Oh Joy "The Making of Airships" is extremely interesting.

At the Lyric. Marjorie Mahr, assisted by the Temple City Quartet, is a rare treat at the Lyric theatre this week. It calls forth rounds of applause and is greatly appreciated by the audience. "A Summer Blizzard," presented by the company, is a screen from start to finish. Two performances nightly, matinee daily.

Pardon Sought for Murderer. Scharff murdered the woman, who was his mistress, and her little daughter by choking them to death on board a small boat. After killing the pair he threw their bodies into the Milwaukee river.

SCARED INTO SOUND HEALTH.

H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind., had all the symptoms of a serious kidney disorder, and as none of the medicine he had taken helped him, he finally tried Foley Kidney Pills. He writes: "My back gave out. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition, and felt all played out, was bothered with dizzy spells and would become nearly blind, my head would swim and specks dance before my eyes. At this time I heard of Foley Kidney Pills and took them regularly. Before they were half gone I was much improved, and the action of my kidneys and bladder became regular and normal. I am now perfectly well and Foley Kidney Pills have cured me."

Sweet Potatoes

Sweet Potato Soup—Peel and steam four sweet potatoes. Preps through colander. Add one pint of hot water, one pint of sweet milk, and two table-spoons of butter. Season, heat, and serve.

Sweet Potato Croquettes—Roast sweet potatoes, mash, season with butter, and add yolk to bind, fry brown in fat after forming them into small oblongs and rolling in crumbs.

Scalloped Sweet Potatoes—Parboil about one and one-half pounds of sweet potatoes and peel them. Slice thin and put in layers in buttered baking dish, sprinkling each layer with bits of butter, a little salt, and a tablespoon of brown sugar. Dot the top layer with bits of butter and brown sugar. Bake 40 minutes, keeping covered the first half of the time.

Sweet Potato Pone—Chop fine sweet potatoes that have been pared. Add small cup of sugar, tablespoon of butter (more if desired), and tablespoon of mixed spices. Bake in low flat dish until a rich brown.

Mashed Sweet Potatoes in Jackets—Bake the potatoes, cut them in halves lengthwise and carefully scoop out the inside. Mash well, add a little butter, pepper, and salt and milk; beat until creamy, return to the shells, heating lightly, and place in oven to reheat.

Fried Sweet Potatoes—Peel and wash thoroughly four good sized potatoes. Take a half tablespoon of butter, more or less, and a little lard and let it brown lightly. Then put in the sweet potatoes and let them brown nicely on both sides. Potatoes prepared in this way should fry slowly in order to have them thoroughly done.

Mushroom Catsup. Mushroom Catsup No. 1.—Take two quarts mushrooms, cleaned and sliced; stew over them about one third cup salt; stir daily and after three days strain the liquor; measure it and to every pint allow one tablespoon pepper-corns, one half teaspoon mace; boil until reduced one half; leave until next day, then pour into small bottles. The sediment and "squeezeings" of the mushroom may be used for seasoning gravies.

A more highly seasoned sauce may be made according to the following: Mushroom Catsup No. 2.—Pick, wash, drain and slice one peck mushrooms; press through a sieve; add one pint vinegar, two tablespoons salt, half a teaspoon cayenne, two teaspoons mustard, one teaspoon cinnamon and one-half teaspoon cloves and mace. Cook half an hour longer; then bottle while hot.

Salads Made in Foreign Lands.

A Russian salad is highly favored and usually contains a seasoning of caviars or anchovies. A favorite recipe consists of equal parts smoked ham and sausage chopped fine and mixed with cold cooked chicken or veal, diced boiled beets and potatoes, a little chopped pickle and shredded dill, served in place of caviars. This salad is served with a French dressing and garnished with slices of hard-boiled eggs, capers and olives.

A Swedish Salad contains pickled herrings. Select two fish of medium size, remove bones and shred the meat. Mix it with two sliced apples, two diced potatoes, a little cold cooked beet, one tablespoon of capers and chopped pickle, one hard-boiled egg chopped fine, and as much chopped cooked beef as fish. Use a French dressing and garnish with green onions. Substitute oysters or shrimps for herring, if preferred.

The Italian salad is made with chestnuts. Shell and blanch the imported chestnuts and boil them until tender. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise made with lemon juice or wine, and without mustard. Bananas, apples and celery make another excellent combination with chestnuts.

A Dutch salad has cooked goose for the foundation. Chop the meat and mix it with diced potatoes and hard-boiled eggs; serve on lettuce with a French dressing and garnish with minced chives.

A German salad is composed of all the different members of the cabbage family. Chop fine cold cooked cabbage, cauliflower, sea kale and Brussels sprouts and mix with potatoes, chopped onions, apples and beets. Serve with a dressing of oil and vinegar and garnish with slices of dill pickle.

For a pompadour, or French salad, boil artichokes and serve them with a mayonnaise mixed with a macédoine of cooked vegetables. Garnish with truffles or mushrooms.

A Japanese salad makes a nutritious luncheon dish. Boil and chill one cup of rice. Turn it into the center of a shallow bowl and edge the dish with small, crisp lettuce leaves. Arrange slices of hard-boiled egg, pickled beets and stuffed olives in concentric circles about the rice and serve with a highly flavored oil dressing.

Waldorf is considered the most distinctive American of salads. Cut three sour apples into dice and mix with four cups of celery cut fine. Add one-half cup of hickory nut meats, season with salt and paprika and serve with a stiff mayonnaise.

Training Course for Women. One of the most valuable courses at the University of Oregon for women is the physical culture course, which involves special training for teachers of gymnastics, given by Dr. Bertha Stuart. The course is largely practical, but carries special work in gymnastic training, the theory of gymnastics, corrective gymnastics, the art of teaching gymnastics, anthropometry, emergency and bandages.

Dr. Stuart is especially fitted for her work in physical training. Besides her gymnastic training, she received the degree of doctor of medicine from the University of Michigan. During her professional study, she served as assistant in the women's gymnasium at Michigan, and later was appointed head of the department.

O'Brien Potatoes.

Since a small onion and fry it in a small piece of butter. Add seven or eight cold boiled potatoes chopped fine, one-half a red pepper, and one-half a green pepper cut in small pieces. Salt to taste and add two table-spoons of milk. Have a moderate heat and let potatoes brown for about 10 minutes without stirring. Fold and roll as you would an omelet and turn on a heated dish.

Woman's Suffrage in Norway.

It is interesting to note that this month women all over Norway are voting at the municipal elections. Nine years ago municipal suffrage was given to women holding a certain amount of property. The plan seemed to work so well, with three fifths of Norway's women (the number entitled to vote), that three years ago parliamentary suffrage was granted to these same property holders and municipal suffrage was granted universally.

WHAT IS VINOL?

It Represents Twenty Years' Work of Two Eminent Chemists.

After twenty years of study two eminent French chemists discovered a method by which the alkaloids or medicinal elements of the cod's liver might be separated from the useless oil or grease, retaining all the good of cod liver oil and dispensing with the bad, as the oil has no medicinal value. These medicinal elements blended with tonic iron and a mild medicinal wine—make Vinol.

seekers in the forward tourist coaches. None was fatally hurt.

A negro porter in one of the tourist cars undoubtedly saved dozens of lives by creeping through the overturned coaches and turning off the cocks of all gas tanks.

According to the Southern Pacific officials, a faulty rail caused the accident.

The French army searchlights are mounted upon trucks independently of any other machinery, while the English are carried on motor trucks which also carry the electric generators.
