

WHAT CHAMP FIGURES SHOW

(United Press Lined Wire.)
Chicago, Oct. 21.—The Philadelphia Athletics slugged their way to victory over the Chicago Cubs according to the following tables compiled by the United Press, following the Athletics' third straight win yesterday.

The Athletics outbatted the Cubs 2 to 1, although the Quaker team only had a slight edge over their opponents in the fielding averages. In the pitching department the Cubs showed weakness, the Athletic twirlers having it all their own way.

Tinker batted at the terrific clip of .546, surprising even his staunchest friends and leading the batting list in the series.

MCCREDIE SECURE WHAT THEY DESIRE

Coast League Directors Virtually Victorious in All Their Requests.

San Francisco, Oct. 21.—Just what Walter McCredie and the directors of the Pacific Coast League in a matter of much discussion today among followers of the national game in San Francisco.

The action of the directors in forgiving and forgetting statements accredited to Walter McCredie and derogative to President Graham came as a surprise, but the permission was granted the McCredies to run two teams in Portland next year on their simple promise that the schedules would not conflict was a greater one.

Why the offer of a bonus to Sacramento if it beats Oakland four games this week was not investigated also is a source of much wonder.

At their meeting last night the directors besides adjusting the McCredie matters, decided to adopt a schedule for next year at the regular meeting November 3.

Here's the Situation

California came off second best in the Pacific Coast league meeting last night in San Francisco, when Judge W. W. McCredie, single handed, got everything he went after—the transfer of the Heiting decision to the National commission, the entrance of the Northwestern league in Portland and the rest of President Graham in the Walter McCredie "crook" interview. Evidently Judge McCredie made a profound impression on the California end of the circuit for about the only thing they did was to pass a new waiver rule, which gives the Coast league clubs first chance to purchase any player to be sold to a minor organization for $600.

That passing the Heiting decision up to the National commission with the endorsement of the league is the most equitable solution of the now famous controversy is apparent to all. Had it

SECOND RATER PUTS BLIGHT ON CORBETT

(United Press Lined Wire.)
New York, Oct. 21.—Young Corbett's days as a pugilist are over. For the second time since he first retired, the former great lightweight attempted to "come back," but he was handed a terrific beating by Willie Beecher, a New York second rater, in a scheduled 10 round go here last night.

Beecher floored Corbett twice in the second round. The Denveran managed to stall through the third, but in the fourth period so terrific was the punishment Beecher administered that the fight was stopped and the New Yorker given the decision.

Dreary Day for Game

New York, Oct. 21.—With the later city baseball series standing Giants 3, Highlanders 2, and one tie game, today opened dreary and stormy, foreshadowing possible postponement of the game.

CHICAGO FANS ARE GETTING COLD FEET

See World's Pennant Flying in Philadelphia Park Next Season.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—After an all night rain today dawned as raw and cold as the feeling and the feet of the Chicago Cubs' adherents. The ground keepers quished their way across the sodden field and the straw-strewn diamond at West Side park and their expert opinion was that the grounds were in poor condition and that a postponement of the fourth game of the world's championship series would be announced this afternoon.

Meanwhile the spirit of the Chicago fans is as damp as the weather. All the sporting writers concede the defeat of the Cubs by Connie Mack's men from Quakertown, Captain Chance alone holds to his faith in National team. Otherwise the universally expressed opinion is that the Americans will make it four straight.

Mack Is Acclaimed.
Connie Mack, privately known as Cornelius McGillicuddy, today is the Napoleon of the National pastime; he is the highest authority, the ne plus ultra; the cerebrum and cerebellum and then some, of the baseball world. He was criticized liberally for what appeared sheer recklessness in pitching Coombs after Tuesday's poor showing by the big twirler; now all hats off to Connie's rare judgement.

A reorganization of the Cubs following the expected fourth defeat is a general prediction here. Several of the old standbys of the Cub machine will be disposed of and the Chicago Nationals next year will have an infusion of young blood. Many even predict that if, by some miracle, the Cubs win from the Athletics finally, changes in the team next year will be made.

Meanwhile the Athletics have broad and bland smiles adorning their frontpieces. Their percentage of yesterday's receipts amount to $30,000. If they pull down $15,000 today or whenever the next game is played, the winners will divide at least $44,000. This is almost $2000 for each player.

Comments on Game.
Here are a few crystalline comments on yesterday's faux pas:
Hugh Fenton—"The Cubs looked like a staid, without aggregation pitted against a brilliant team with a dauntless attack. Their right and courage apparently oozed out."
Fleider Jones—"The offensive and defensive playing of the Athletics were far superior to that of the Cubs."
Charlie Comiskey—"The Cubs are done for. It was the worst defeat I ever saw the Cubs take."
Joe Tinker—"Our pitchers failed us. That's all there was to it."
Ty Cobb—"Bender and Coombs have won the series. The Athletics are the world's champions."
Cap Anson—"It was a perfect slaughter. The Cubs were outlit, outfielded and outgeneraled."
Bill Lange—"I am about ready to give up hope for the Cubs. The Athletics played them off their feet."
George Mullin—"The Cubs were outclassed at every stage. The series will not go beyond the fourth game."
J. Garland Stahl, first baseman of the Boston American league baseball team, will umpire the annual football game between Ohio state and Case at Cleveland, November 5.
