

MARKET NEWS OF THE WORLD

ONLY 10 CARS OF POTATOS ARE SENT OUTSIDE OF STATE

Shipments to Date Are Light but Buyers Say There Is an Exceedingly Good Call for First Class Quality.

Potatoes Are Growing Again.

According to dealers who have recently made trips through the country, potatoes are growing again, and therefore it is quite probable that a large per cent of the late crop, while of fine cooking quality, will be of poor shape and knobby.

To date 10 cars of potatoes have been shipped to the California market this season from Portland, and these were shipped by one dealer. California wants our best potatoes, but would not buy the ordinary stock at any price because of the liberal stocks of rivers and the good quality shown there.

Oregon potatoes are worth $1 per hundred pounds at country shipping points, says W. J. Swank, a local shipper with San Francisco connections. "To date this season I have shipped 10 cars from here, in order to sell potatoes in San Francisco at this time our quality must be extra good. There is no demand at all for our ordinary stuff."

Shortage of Crabs.

There is now a shortage of crabs in the local market. While at the first of the week there was a glut of supplies and values had a wide range, dealers are not willing to pay $1.10, the price demanded here at present, and therefore are not buying.

Look for Banana Shortage.

Owing to the storms in the Gulf of Mexico, there have been no arrivals of bananas recently, and for that reason a local shortage is expected. Five cars were unloaded here today.

Two Cars Grapefruit Rolling.

Two cars of grape fruit from Florida are rolling in this direction and will soon be upon the market. Shipments are firmly held at $6 a case.

Onion Movement Is Small.

Movement of onions at Willamette valley points is small. On the market here are not willing to pay $1.10, the price demanded here at present, and therefore are not buying.

Chickens Sell Lower.

Chicken market prices are again a notch lower, and most of the dealers are now offering cleaners at 14 1/2¢ a pound. Once in a while there is a call for something extra good and for a limited lot.

NARROW SPREAD OF WHEAT PRICES TODAY

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Wheat trading was narrow today and the spread was limited. Closing for the day was 1/8¢ to 1/4¢ a bushel under yesterday after an opening 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ off.

Certain Growths That Are Wanted by Brewers Bring the Limit but General Market Is Trifle Firmer Here.

Trade in the hop market during the past 24 hours was extensive at prices that ranged from 10 to close to 12 3/4¢ a pound. Several sales were reported at the higher price or within a fraction of it, but the exact figures were not given out by either buyers or sellers. T. A. Lively & Co. of Salem is said to have taken one lot of 100 bales at Silverton around 12 3/4¢.

MILLERS TO GET PRICE CUT ON WHEAT EXPORTERS

Widespread Views as to Prices—One Interest Quoted Club at 83c and Another at 80¢ 81c a Bushel.

There is a wide difference of views in the grain market at the present time. Local millers have again started buying, and are quoting club at 83c, while exporters assert that 81c is the extreme height of their quotations, and that about 80c is their idea for local delivery today.

SONGS OF NURSERY DELIGHT AUDIENCE

The evening of Gaynor songs given at Masonic Temple last night for the benefit of the People's Institute was the most enjoyed by the 200 or thereabouts who attended. The singers, Mrs. Jessie L. Gaynor and her two daughters, the misses Rose and Dorothy Gaynor, were showered with beautiful flowers by their numerous admirers among Portland's most prominent society.

SEIZES AUTO FENDER AND SAVES HIS LIFE

Stepping before an automobile at Second and Burnside streets this morning, A. E. McMillan, a logger, was struck by the machine, but probably saved himself from severe injuries by grasping the fender of the auto. He was dragged several feet before the machine was brought to a stop, but a gash in his head was the only injury he received.

PRETTY GIRL LECTURED FOR TAKING PLUME

Margaret Marty, a young and pretty girl, appeared in the municipal court today after being held in jail all night on a charge of stealing a ostrich plume from Dolly Bachman, a waitress in a restaurant on Burnside street, where both are employed. Miss Bachman says that the plume was taken from the closet in the restaurant and, suspecting the Marty girl, secured a search warrant and was aided by Patrolman Hirsch to the residence of Miss Marty, second street, north. The young girl stoutly denied stealing the plume, but a search by the officer revealed it hidden among some clothes in a dresser. Judge Tarwell lectured the prisoner this morning and released her on a suspended sentence.

HANGING NO FUN, SO WANTS TO LIVE

While held in a cell at the city jail on an intoxication charge William Wittenberg, a laborer, at 1:30 this morning made a halter of a pair of suspenders and hanged himself to one of the bars near the top of the cell. His struggles were noticed by other prisoners and officers responding in haste entered Wittenberg's cell and cut him down before his attempt had succeeded. In municipal court today Wittenberg said that he was intoxicated and that in sober moments he had no thoughts of courting death. He was fined $1.

IGNORES TRAFFIC RULES AND FINED $10 BY COURT

Thomas Lambert, driver of a mail wagon, presumed that his position gave him special privileges, and has consistently violated the city's traffic ordinance, according to the testimony of Patrolman Lambert in the municipal court this morning. Lambert was arrested yesterday at Second and Oak streets, after he had refused to halt when the officer ordered him to. Judge Tarwell fined him $10.
