

J. N. TEAL URGES PEOPLE TO VOTE FOR PUBLIC DOCKS

Points Out That Willamette and Columbia of No Value Unless They Can Be Used—Business Men Listen.

The East Side Business Men's club went on record last night in favor of public docks. Its members pledged its support to the campaign for municipal control of the waterfront. J. N. Teal started the clubmen by declaring that the only salvation for the commercial growth of the city is free and open water terminals wrested from railroad monopolization. He proved his assertions by figures showing how railroads having possession of the waterfront heap up the freight tariffs until they are even more than the traffic will bear.

"Mr. Teal's address was the best thing we have heard at our meetings," said George T. Atchley, president of the club. In commenting upon last night's meeting, "We rarely have so large an attendance or so great interest. We never before listened to a man so thoroughly posted upon the subject which he discussed. Had it been a political address the startling nature of his assertions would have caused us to call him radical, but in this case he talked as a business man to business men, and every statement he backed up by facts and figures."

Dead Issue Will Carry.

"We business men of the east side do not doubt that the public docks bond issue will carry, but we are going to help make it carry so nearly unanimously that the opposition will be forever ashamed."

Mr. Teal took up in rapid review the public docks systems in this country and abroad. He showed how all large ports successfully handling great shipping own and control their waterfront. He used conclusive evidence from many sources as proof that the railroads always attempt to bring navigable streams as largely as possible into disuse by obtaining possession of the water terminals. This, Mr. Teal said, is the Portland situation. Of what use, he queried, are the Columbia and Willamette rivers unless the people are permitted their use? River traffic is not altogether dependent upon deepened channels but free and open terminals are as vital a consideration.

Appeals to Voters.

Mr. Teal laughed scornfully at the opponents of public docks and the quality of opposition. These are attempts to put public ownership of the waterfront

"IT BEATS ALL."

This is quoted from a letter of M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo.: "I recently used Foley's Honey and Tar for the first time. To say I am pleased does not half express my feelings. It beats all the remedies I have used. I had contracted a bad cold and was nearly sick in bed, having a terrible headache and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. The first doses gave great relief and one bottle completely cured me. I shall always recommend Foley's Honey and Tar." on trial, he asserted, whereas the trial of public docks' feasibility was concluded long ago and judgment pronounced in their favor. Ignorance of the benefits to come to Portland through the institution of public docks, he said, can be the only sincere reason for opposition to their institution. Mr. Teal called upon the men of Portland to campaign for public docks, to visit displeasure upon the selfish interests that oppose public docks, and to vote for public docks November 2.

Last night's meeting of the East Side Business Men's club was in the nature of a house warming for their new club-rooms. While the rooms at 12 1/2 Grand avenue were formally opened some time ago there were yet a great many of the members in attendance last night who had been unable to come to the previous meeting.

ASTORIA MILITIA MAY BE DISBANDED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Fort Stevens, Or., Oct. 21.—A joint conference is to be arranged between the officers of Fort Stevens and those of the First company, coast artillery, Astoria, for the purpose of arranging some method of arousing increased interest in artillery affairs, the cooperative support of Astoria business men and the means to be adopted for securing increased enrollments in the Astoria company. Should the above efforts fail in their desired results it is deemed probable that the Astoria organization will be disbanded. Such a course would be received with extreme regret at Fort Stevens, in view of the fact that Captain Abercromby's Company has always maintained a high standard of military excellence, and the social relations existing between the militia and regulars have been of a mostly friendly nature.

SHERIFF FIGHT WILL BE WARM IN CROOK CO.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Madras, Or., Oct. 21.—Crook county promises to have a warm fight over the election of sheriff. Falling to defeat Frank Elkins for the Republican nomination for that office the citizens who believe in a strict enforcement of the laws have placed in the field John McTiggart as an independent candidate for the shrievalty.

In the opinion of many citizens, Elkins, in the present sheriff, has shown little desire to prosecute "blind pigs" and other forms of immorality prevalent in the county, and has made poor use of the evidence given him in these cases.

T. N. Balfour, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, has promised, if elected, the enforcement of the laws without fear or favor, and it appears that the real fight will be between the Democratic and independent candidates, as in the election two years ago the local option sentiment carried more than two to one.

Dramatic Company Disbands.

Pendleton, Or., Oct. 21.—The Fox Dramatic company, which was organized as a stock company in the city of Spokane and which went out on the road for a brief trip while waiting for the Spokane theatre to be completed, has been disbanded here. Engagements were filled at Moscow, Colfax and a few other eastern Washington towns, after which the company was brought to Pendleton for an engagement. Manager Mitchell of the Oregon theatre refused to sign up, whereupon Manager Robinson of Missoula, Mont., decided to disband and reorganize, which he is doing.

GOOD CHANCE FOR BEN HILL TO WIN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., Oct. 21.—Much interest has been aroused in Pendleton and Umatilla county over the candidacy of Ben H. Hill for a seat in the legislature as representative from Umatilla and Morrow counties. Hill's name was written in by the Democrats at the primaries, and while aligned with that party, he is of the progressive type of politician and is receiving considerable support from local Republicans. His opponent is T. J. Mahoney of Heppner, the present incumbent, who has aroused much dissatisfaction because of his support of the infamous Brooke-Bean bill and because of his identification with the recent assembly movement. Hill is now campaigning in the territory of his rival, having accompanied Honorable Oswald West into Morrow county Wednesday.

Aged Couple Wed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Oct. 21.—At Creswell, on Tuesday of this week, occurred the marriage of D. B. Farmer, aged 74 years, and Mrs. Jennie C. Warner, aged 64, both of Cottage Grove. Justice of the Peace J. L. Clark officiating. Judge Clark is about 70 years of age.

AN ABSOLUTE NECESSITY

So Thinks At Least One Traveling Man.

I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage books and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food at all hours of the day and night and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest, anyway I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.

My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakery, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.

I used to have heartburn about three times a day and a headache about three or four times a week and after standing for this for four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found it when my doctor told me the best investment I could make would be a fifty cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I have invested about fifty cents a month for them ever since and when I stop to think that that is what I spend every day for cigars, I feel like shaking hands with myself for I can keep my stomach and digestion in first class order for fifty cents a month. I don't care for any better life insurance.

My druggist tells me they are the most popular of all stomach medicines and that they have maintained their popularity and success because they do as advertised. They bring results, and results are what count in a patent medicine as much as in selling barbwires.
