Saturday's Shopping Bulletin

Of Great Importance to Shrewd Buyers

This store is the favorite Saturday shopping place of Portland people—its splendid arrangements, its matchless assortment of fine merchandise, etc., and last, but not least, low prices make it the ideal trading place of the Western country—Special attractions in all parts of the establishment for tomorrow

DAILY LUNCH in the basement. Special 25c lunch served daily. Also service a la carte at low prices.

The basement "underprice store" is increasing in popularity every day. It's a great big economy store that is bound to find favor with the masses.

Children's Day
Wilbur's Juvenile Menagerie

Commencing tomorrow and continuing for one week we announce an engagement extraordinary of Wilbur's celebrated Juvenile Menagerie in our Auditorium, fourth floor. This splendid attraction consists of 60 trained monkeys, raccoons, two gorillas, birds, trained geese, etc. They will entertain the children from 9 A. M. to 9:30 P. M. No charge for admission. Plan to bring the children here tomorrow.

Tomorrow the Great Carnival of Spooks

Witches and Ghosts, With Their Family Connections, Make a Halloween Visit to the Toy Store, 4th Floor.

If you don't believe it possible, go to the toy store and see for yourself. The place is alive with all sorts of natural and unnatural phenomena. There are pumpkin boys with gnome-like faces, "A-squintin' at you cross-eyed, and a-pintin' at you so—" and ghostly little creatures robed in white vestments whose rational and almost human office it is to hold candy and other Halloween goodies. And the Cats! There are thousands of them. It reminds you of the famous journey to St. Ives, where "each wife had seven bags, each bag had seven cats, each cat had seven kits; kits, cats, sacks and wives, how many were going to St. Ives?" Mephistopheles is on hand, too, with his usual lack of backwardness. In fact, there are so many favors and toys and candy receptacles that we can only mention a few of the very newest. Don't fail to visit this department.
