

ALBANY APPLE SHOW IS OPEN

Exhibit Is Finest Ever Displayed in Valley—Many Contestants.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Nov. 9.—Albany's fourth annual apple show opened its doors to the public this morning in the big Alce clob gymnasium on Third street. This year's event will eclipse all previous efforts and the result is unquestionably the biggest display, and the greatest variety of apples ever exhibited in this section of the Willamette valley. Aside from the country display, which is the most comprehensive of any yet made, Eugene, Salem, Corvallis, Brownsville, Lebanon, Holley and other valley points have made entries for the prizes. Some of the highest authorities in the state on apple culture are in attendance to address the growers on handling of their orchards and the care of their crop.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW IS GORGEOUS AGAIN

London, Nov. 9.—According to hints dropped from official sources Londoners will be treated tomorrow to one of the longest and most gorgeous lord mayor's parades of recent years, when Alderman Sir Vezey Strong will be formally installed in the office of chief magistrate of the city. For some years there has been a tendency to make the annual lord mayor's show a dignified procession of military and civic organizations, cutting out the spectacular features which were formerly associated with the time-honored pageant. The public, however, did not take kindly to the change and the announcement that this year's procession is to return to the old style of spectacle, with gorgeous floats and gaily-costumed horsemen, has been warmly welcomed. At the same time, in deference to present-day ideas, the pageant tomorrow is to be somewhat "educational" in character. The chief feature will be the inclusion of four Shakespearean groups, each containing about 50 performers. The chief object of those responsible for the idea is to arouse the interest of Londoners in the proposed Shakespeare memorial. In the military division the territorial forces and the boy scouts will be represented for the first time.

TRAVEL TO HAWAII.

Steamship Accommodation Satisfactorily Keeps Pace With Its Growth.

Messrs. Roche and Thompson, managers of the "Aloha" Excursion, to sail direct from Portland February 1, 1911, on a 30-day cruise to the Hawaiian islands, are in receipt of an interesting letter from H. P. Wood, secretary of the Hawaiian promotion committee. Mr. Wood writes: "The fascinating story of our perfect climate and beautiful land, which never disappoints, has been scattered so broadcast that there is but one Hawaii left that the number of visitors to our shores continues to more than keep pace with steamship accommodations, no matter how rapidly these may be improved. American travel to Europe has practically reached high tide, the Pacific ocean and its shores is becoming the center of interest, a condition that the transcontinental railroads are now beginning to prepare to take advantage of. It is safe to say that where, seven years ago, there was but a handful of men interested in travel to Hawaii, today every line of railway of any consequence, operating in the United States and Canada, has or is about to include Hawaii in its field of operations. There is no excursion or steamship agency or hotel information bureau in the world over that is not supplied with data concerning Hawaii. Our advertising matter is being sought for on every hand. "No lecturer on travel fails to include Hawaii in his talks. "No globe-trotter considers his work well done unless he can tell of the wonderful surf riding at Waikiki, describe the entrancing Fall view and thrill his listeners with an account of how he saw the world in making his Kilanea's pit of everlasting fire. "These seven years of effort have forged an endless chain around the globe, each link being indelibly marked—Hawaii. "The wonderful strides made by our people in the matter of accommodation for the tourist is the astonishment of everyone. The trip to the volcano of Kilanea has been made one of the most easy of outings; Hilo has enlarged and improved her hotel service; the extinct crater of Haleakala, on the island of Maui, can now be visited without discomfort, the rest house at the top of the mountain affording shelter during cold or stormy weather. The hotel accommodations on the island of Maui are greatly improved. This also may be said of the island of Kauai. "The different islands have vied with each other in the building of good roads. In fact, all parts of the territory are making rapid progress in arranging for the care and entertainment of the traveler."

LONDON BEHOLDS HISTORIC PAGEANT

Lord Mayor's Show Parades the Streets With Ancient Splendor Restored.

London, Nov. 9.—The time honored lord mayor's show took place today, and the new lord mayor of London, Sir Thomas Vezey Strong, was formally installed in office, succeeding Sir John C. Knill. The old established custom showed little sign of becoming obsolete, and owing to some unusual and attractive features in the procession the occasion was the most interesting of recent years.

The principal feature of the parade was a pageant of kings, princes, nobles and other characters of Shakespeare's plays, arranged under the direction of Phillip Carr, one of the secretaries of the Shakespeare Memorial National theatre. The characters were presented in five groups, each containing about fifty performers in gorgeous costume. Another interesting feature of the procession was the military display, in which were represented for the first time the territorial force and the boy scouts. Other divisions of the procession were made up of the city firemen, the foresters, life boatmen, keepers of Epping forest, several detachments of the London volunteers, the court of aldermen, the members of the civic societies, together with a large number of representative citizens. The new lord mayor and his predecessor in office rode in the customary gorgeous carriage of gold and enamel, drawn by eight white horses with outriders in scarlet livery.

Will Be Made a Baronet. The route of the pageant extended from Guildhall to the Law Courts, through Princess street, Queen Victoria street, St. Paul's church yard, Ludgate hill, Fleet street and other prominent thoroughfares. Along the route the usual buntings and decorations were displayed. Among his fellow aldermen Sir Vezey is regarded as particularly fortunate for the fact that he is to hold office at the time of the king's coronation next June and is certain to receive a baronetcy as a memento of the occasion.

Mostly Honors; Few Duties. He will have no active part in the great ceremonies attending the coronation, nor for that matter will any of the duties of his office be of an arduous nature. The city of London, over which he is elected to rule, is not great metropolitan London, the largest city in the world, but a very insignificant part of it so far as territory and population are concerned. It lies between the town of London and Westminster Abbey, and contains only 668 acres and a population of about 50,000 people. There are many wards in the larger American cities that are of greater territorial extent than this famed city. It is divided into twenty-six wards, some of which cover but a few acres of ground, the largest of them having but very few voters. Each ward elects an alderman, who serves for life, and who in due time becomes lord mayor with a salary of $50,000 and an immense amount of patronage.

Typical Londoner. The new lord mayor is essentially of the type having been born in one of the city wards, where his father lived over his place of business. He was educated privately and is credited with being a self-made man. In business he has been successful as the head of a large paper supply concern. He is a pronounced temperance advocate and enjoys the distinction of being the first teetotaler chosen as chief magistrate of the metropolis.

Not a "Cure-all"

Separate Remedies, Each Devised for the Treatment of a Particular Ailment. There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies. There are different and separate medicines, each one devised for a certain human ailment or a class of ailments closely allied. For instance, Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended for the positive relief of stomach irritation, indigestion, flatulency and dyspepsia. They are rich in Bismuth-Subnitrate, Pepsin and Carminative. They are prepared by special processes which perfect and enhance the great remedial value of these well known medicinal agents. This remedy sells for 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per package. Every one suffering from stomach disorder should try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, inasmuch as they cost nothing if they do not satisfy. Remember, the Rexall Store is the only store where these remedies may be obtained, and every one in need of medicine is urged to investigate and take advantage of the frank and generous manner in which they are sold at The Owl Drug Co., Inc., corner Seventh and Washington streets.

HUGO PROMISES TO BE FRUIT DISTRICT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hugo, Or., Nov. 9.—That this section of Josephine county will produce excellent fruit is the opinion of Professor O'Gara, United States soil expert. Professor O'Gara made the examination and gave his report in which he says that apples, pears, peaches, cherries and grapes will grow to perfection in this locality and that all of them would be profitable crops. The Hugo neighborhood has made rapid progress during the past two years and many new settlers have bought land in this part of the county. Some of these new men are from Alaska, others from Mexico, and still others from Arizona. They all mean business and also mean to make Hugo a shipping point of importance at no distant day. C. S. A. Veterans at Little Rock. Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 9.—The battle-scarred flags of the old Confederacy, festooning the portraits of General Robert E. Lee and other leaders, were much in evidence here today for the annual reunion of the Arkansas division of the United Confederate veterans and also the general convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. The two gatherings have attracted to Little Rock an unusually large number of visitors. Compton-Rixey Wedding. Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 9.—Guests from Washington, Richmond and other points came to Charlottesville today to attend the wedding of Miss Mary Barbour Rixey, daughter of the late Congressman John F. Rixey, and Dr. Robert F. Compton, a member of the medical faculty of the University of Virginia. Included among the guests from out of town were Rear Admiral Rixey, uncle of the bride, and Mrs. Rixey.
