Mrs. Oscar Meyer of New York, who is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. Jacob Meyer. Miss Thompson's guests afterward enjoyed tea at the Hotel Portland. The guests were Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers, Miss Louise Carey, Miss Elizabeth Sears of the Barracks, Mrs. Harold C. Charles and Mrs. Preston W. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard, accompanied by Mrs. Howard S. Nyman of Washington, D. C., returned last Wednesday from a six weeks' trip through the east. Most of the time was spent in New York. Mrs. Nyman is a sister of Mr. Lombard and will be a Portland guest for about 10 days.

What promises to be the most brilliant social season that San Francisco has known in many years was auspiciously ushered in last week at the Fairmont through the medium of the first Greenway assembly.

Chaste simplicity might well describe the decorations of the white and gold ballroom, and never before has the handsome room appeared to such advantage as it did last night with the utter absence of ornate floral adornment. Its architectural beauty has on many occasions been marred by a too elaborate use of decorative accessories, but on this occasion the simplicity of arrangement was most artistic.

Long streamers of pink and blue tulle radiated from the central chandelier, from which hung a quaint-shaped basket filled to overflowing with pink chrysanthemums, that cast a dainty hue of rose color upon the brilliantly gowned assemblage beneath. Smaller baskets, fashioned along the same quaint lines as the large one, and also filled with pink chrysanthemums, and draped with carefully knotted strands of tulle, were suspended about the sides of the room, and added their quota of dainty coloring to the artistic scheme. Beyond in the red room more elaboration prevailed. Large vases filled with brilliant-hued dahlias and quantities of palms covered the apartment into a delightful lounging room.

Many brilliant dinner parties preceded the ball, and in the laural court of the hotel and in the private dining rooms more than half the guests assembled in parties of from six to thirty. Simplicity of adornment was confined exclusively to the ballroom decorations as the sumptuous gowns of the guests rivaled in beauty any that have before been seen in the city.

The winter modes were shown in every beautiful form imaginable, and the garnitures were brilliant with the metallic sheen of silver and gold and the splendor of oriental colorings.

Superb jewels were worn with these gowns and the whole presented a spectacle of almost baroque beauty.

Miss Margaretta Brooke, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Pitearn Pomeroy since the Brooke-Pomeroy wedding, last Thursday, was the guest of honor at Miss Harrison Stone's luncheon on last Friday. The table decorations were pink roses, with pink-shaded candles. Among the guests were several who had attended Miss Spence's school in New York with the hostess and the guest of honor. Those present included Miss Olive Hooper, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Hilda Steadman, Miss Ethel Crocker, Miss Laura Baldwin, Miss Mildred Baldwin, Miss Sue Harold, Miss Alice Albright, Miss Madeline Clay, Miss Anna Weller, Miss Katherine Kaim, Miss Helen Stone, Miss Kathleen Farrell and Miss Rhoda Nibbling. At the Greenway assembly on Friday, Miss Brooke was much admired in pale pink satin, with a slightly hobbled skirt, and a suggestion of white about the bodice of black net outlined with black jet.

James McI. Wood returned last Thursday from a six weeks' trip in the east. Mrs. Wood remained in New York where she has apartments at the Hotel Astor for the winter.

A number of the "Pal men" made a pilgrimage to Seaside last Friday for the week end. An outcome of the jaunt will be an unique bowling contest held at night on the beach. The pins will be three lighted lanterns placed some 400 feet away to be bowled over with rockets. Those who enjoyed the trip were George Willard Brown, George Durham, Rodney Gilman, Frederick B. Holman, Dr. Otis B. Wright, Ashley Vantine and R. M. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Corvill of Maine are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter last Thursday. Mrs. Corvill was Miss Lloyd Jessup of Portland, and frequently visits here with the Van Schuyvers.

A Light Hunt and Polo club has been formed at Vancouver Barracks under the direction of Lieutenant Arthur Davis of the First Infantry as president. The initial meeting was held Sunday at the quarters of Major John Conklin, where many of the officers and women of the post and several Portland guests gathered for tea. Those who went over from Portland were Miss Maida Hart, Miss Angela Kinney, Miss Lillian O'Brien, Dr. J. N. Coghlan, J. Ernest Laidlaw and Hawthorne Dent. The club's activities were formally opened with a paper chase yesterday.

In the society notes of Wednesday's San Francisco Chronicle appeared the following item: "Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis of Portland returned home yesterday."

terday after a visit of several weeks here. They were accompanied by Dr. James Keeney, who will be their guest for a week. Miss Hunk Lewis, who came down for the Pomeroy-Scott wedding, will return to Portland on Saturday.

Mrs. Eugene G. Gwyer of New York, who with her son Kingsley Gwyer, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Gottner Mason for the past month, will leave for California tomorrow, going from there to New York. While in Portland Mrs. Gwyer has inspired several delightful informal affairs.

The annual football game between Stanford and Berkeley universities Saturday at Berkeley, was the attraction drawing a number of former college men some of whom, Kenneth Caddwalder and Raymond Holman Tuesday, and leaving Thursday night were Plowden Stott, Ben C. Day, Omar T. Spencer, A. L. Hampton and Stanley G. Jewett.

Miss Hattie-Joyce Keating, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating, entertained a number of her small friends Thursday in honor of her third birthday. All of the little guests were about the same age and all of them were planned with many delights for them. "Uncle Remus" in moving pictures and illustrated poems of James Whitcomb Riley and Eugene Field, with appropriate music, were the principal features. In the dining room a large Noah's ark covered the table and the little guests to each place. A birthday cake with its three candles was wished on and the lights blown out. In the drawing room the little girls received white dominoes and the little boys yellow caps. Katherine Deyette, Mildred Marsh, William Panton, Billy Brand, Riley Lee Bruce Menefee, De Boise Sanborn, Gilbert Sanborn, Ed Wheeler, Rosser Atkinson, Richard Peters, Daniel Northrup and Fritz Houser.

Mrs. E. S. Jackson has issued invitations for a bridge party for Saturday evening, November 13.

The engagement of Miss Katherine O'Hara to Joseph Mauss of Seattle has occasioned a flutter of excitement among her friends. The announcement was made last Tuesday, when the bride-elect confided the news to a few intimate friends. No date has been set for the wedding, although it is planned for the early spring. With her mother, Mrs. O'Hara, the bride-elect will leave within a fortnight to spend the winter in southern California. Miss O'Hara is a graduate of St. Mary's academy, and prominent in the social affairs of her set. The bridegroom-elect comes from a New York family, and is the western representative of the Russell-Irwin Manufacturing company, with headquarters at Seattle. He has been on the coast only a few years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicolai entertained with dinner Wednesday in honor of the sixth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander A. McDonnell. The table carried dainty decorations of pink and the favors were bridal in nature.

Mrs. John Plagemann was hostess at a birthday dinner in honor of Mr. Plagemann Thursday evening. The table was centered with a handsome arrangement of autumnal fruit and foliage. Covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster will entertain informally with three tables of bridge tomorrow afternoon, complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Arthur G. Thynne of Vancouver, B. C. Mr. and Mrs. Thynne frequently visit here, and their days are usually filled with many entertainments.

Mrs. George D. Peters has sent out invitations for two afternoons at bridge, Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17.

Successful, even beyond the hopes of those interested in the work, was the "tour of the world" given Tuesday evening for the benefit of the loan fund of the business girls' club of the People's Institute and the Y. W. C. A. The first land visited was Italy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wheeler. National colors and music were the finishing touches to a wonderful picture of Italy given with many fine paintings and pieces of the sculptor's art. Assistant Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kerr, Miss Ethel Thompson, Miss Carmel Bolton, Miss Delta Watson, C. A. Thrall and Mr. Ames. In every case the hosts and their assistants were garbed in the costumes of the country they represented. The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Merceau was an ideal Turkish harem with its low burning lights, magnificent Turkish draperies and rugs adorning the walls and floors. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Keating, Miss Dorothea Nash and Miss Walker assisted. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn and with Miss Elizabeth P. Sawyers were hosts at the Linn home, where the atmosphere of the British Isles was rampant. The floral decorations were all of Ireland in green and white, while national colors and flags of England and Scotland completed the effect. During the evening Joseph Mulder sang a number of delightful Irish songs, but quite the crowning feature was bag pipe music played by one of the Stuart clan on a bag pipe which had seen service in the battle of Waterloo. The assistants here were Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shindler, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pattullo, Miss Marjorie Forbes and Miss Eva Wrigley. A bower of Japan was the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jellison, where decorations were of chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms, wisteria. Assisting every where were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Page and Miss Lullie Hall. The occasion was closed with a grand march of all the hosts and their assistants, led by the guests of the tour, Gavin Dyott, Wayne Coe, J. Coffey, Budd Kribs and Mr. Bacon, in the land of Spain with Spanish music on guitars and mandolins. About 20 of the girls from the club assisted the hosts in the dining rooms.

Mrs. Morrison Van Court of New Jersey was the honor guest at a delightful luncheon given by Mrs. J. J. Labbe, Violets and maidenhair ferns decorated the table around which were seated Mrs. Frank Warren Jr., Mrs. H. L. Powers, Mrs. Edward C. Greile, Mrs. Harrison L. Corbett, Mrs. John Robinson, Mrs. Edward Kingsley, Mrs. Sam Kerr, Mrs. John Labbe, Mrs. Morris Whithouse, Miss Frances Warren, Miss Lucia B. Harriman and Miss Wright.

Complimenting Miss Florence Constance, her guest from Seattle, Miss Genevieve Kelly entertained with a theatre party at the Hotel Tuesday evening, followed by supper at the Portland. Covers were laid for eight. A skating party followed by a Dutch supper at the Kelly home was the diversion of Wednesday evening. Saturday evening Miss Constance entertained with a large party at the Orpheum.

Miss Pauline Fithian was a hostess Thursday evening when she entertained her bridal party with a beautifully appointed dinner. Bride roses centered the table and miniature suit cases, containing crescent beauty pins for the young women and scarf pins for the men, marked the places. The guests were Miss Helen Hunt Williams of Los Angeles, Miss Margaret Powell of Berkeley, Miss Lucile Addison, Miss Mabel Shea, Miss May Coon, Elmer Young, Dr. Frank McCauley, Howard Rigler, Earle Grant and Robert Fithian.

Mrs. N. B. Ayer and Miss Laura Smith were the guests of Tacoma and Seattle friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Sanborn, 710 Stowell avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anna Louise, to Theodore E. Brown, Portland. Mr. Brown was formerly of Schenectady, N. Y., and is a son of Colonel Clinton Churchill Brown of that city.

Mrs. B. S. Pagus entertained at auction bridge yesterday afternoon. Yellow chrysanthemums and palms filled the house. Six tables were played, the guests including Mrs. H. B. Adams, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Anna F. Barnard, Mrs. William C. Baker, Mrs. George B. Sellers, Mrs. Norris Cox, Mrs. C. A. Coolidge, Mrs. A. H. Devers, Mrs. T. Graham, Mrs. Ben Gadsby, Mrs. William Gadsby, Mrs. W. A. Gordon, Miss Ethel Gordon, Mrs. L. M. Hubert, Mrs. John Manning, Mrs. McKinley Mitchell, Mrs. John Plagemann, Mrs. Abe Tichner, Miss Hazel Tichner, Mrs. Stinson, Mrs. J. C. Leane, Mrs. Lydin Veysey, Mrs. Frank Van Duren, Mrs. Lionel R. Webster, Mrs. A. N. Wright and Mrs. R. C. Wright.

T. S. McGrath returned Monday from a three months' trip through the east and south. While in New York, Mr. McGrath was the guest of the management at several of the Long Island horse shows and received much attention from those prominent in the social circles of Gotham, where Mr. McGrath is well known. Some of the most beautiful fox hunting country in the south was visited and all the social delights that the southland offers in the autumn season enjoyed. Mr. McGrath has practically completed plans for a handsome home in Portland, which will include one of the most perfectly appointed stables on the coast.

The interpretative recital of Dickens' much loved "A Christmas Carol," by Montaville Flowers at the Masonic Temple Thursday night for the benefit of the scholarship fund of the Collegiate and Oregon Alumnus drew forth a noddy assemblage of representative people. The ushers were the following eight young women in caps and gowns: Miss Jessie Hurly, Miss Clara Wold, Miss Ella Bobie, Miss Stella Armitage, Miss Adele Goff, Miss Alice Collier, Miss Louise Seagr and Miss Ethel Wakeman. The next offering of the Alumnus will be on November 22, when Mrs. Langendorff, of the Metropolitan opera house will appear.

Mr. and Mrs. Villard Kiel are being congratulated upon the birth of a son Thursday. Villard Kiel Jr. is the name selected for the tiny one.

Complimenting Miss Grace Stokes of Astoria, Miss Nina Guthrie entertained with three tables of bridge Thursday at her home on Everett street. A color motif of pink was beautifully carried out with pink cosmos and pink chrysanthemums. In addition to the guest prize, Mrs. Clifford Marshall captured first honors at cards. Miss Guthrie's guests were Mrs. Kenneth MacKenzie, Mrs. Frank Wood, Mrs. George Beach, Mrs. Clifford Marshall, Mrs. Oliver G. Walker (Miss Evelyn Rigler), Mrs. Gerald Goodsell (Miss Lorena Strauch), Miss Caroline Benson, Miss Hannah Connell, Miss Clara Howell and Miss Bess Allen.

The Auction Bridge club met last Tuesday with Miss Clara Howell, White and yellow chrysanthemums formed the decorations. Card honors were captured by Mrs. Clifford Nichols (Miss Eva Jones). Miss Grace Stokes, of Astoria, who will be with her aunt, Mrs. Frank R. Stokes, on Johnson street, until Thanksgiving, was a substitute at the club.

Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong was the complimentary guest at an informal tea given Wednesday by Mrs. Charles H. Brannin. The tea party was a pretty picture with its arrangement of pink carnations and pink shaded candles. Mrs. May Dearborne Schwab poured and Miss Clara Howell and Miss Margaret Derby assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Lively entertained at cards Saturday evening. Prize winners were Mrs. A. L. Fish and Mrs. Edward F. Baird.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Fithian to Dr. William Bertram Watson of Harrogate, England, took place at the Marshall Street Presbyterian church, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The church decorations were lavish, pink and lavender chrysanthemums, combined with greens being used in abundance. Miss Helen Hunt Williams of Los Angeles, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Powell of Marysville, Cal., Miss Lucile Addison of Berkeley, Miss Mabel Shea and Miss May Coon. The ushers were Robert Fithian, Earl Grant, Dr. S. B. McCauley and Howard Rigler, while Elmer C. Young was the groomsmen.

The bride was given away by her father. Her gown was ivory white satin embellished with old lace. She wore a long tulle veil, which was fastened to her coiffure with orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride roses and orchids. Miss Powell and Miss Coon were in pink chiffon and carried pink chrysanthemums. Miss Shea and Miss Coon were in lavender chiffon and carried chrysanthemums of the same shade.

Following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. C. W. Hays, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Fithian. Dr. and Mrs. Watson have gone to California, thence to New York. They will sail November 26 for their home in England.

Mrs. Frank Vanduyt has issued cards for bridge for Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Brandt Wickham entertained informally with four tables of bridge Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman entertained a few friends informally at bridge Monday evening. Prizes were won by Miss H. Harris and Mrs. Fred H. Seller.

Mrs. Emanuel Meyer complimented Mrs. Polasky of Los Angeles with a bridge afternoon Tuesday. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Polasky and Mrs. Abe Hexter. Mrs. Polasky is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry A. Beck.

The Pan Hellenic held its regular monthly meeting with Miss Caroline Benson yesterday afternoon. The next meeting will be held with Miss Louise Brace on December 10.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cook entertained with a box party Thursday evening at the Hellig and supper following at the Portland grill. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Eastman, Miss Hazel Tichner and Robert Montgomery.

The Ladies Aid society of the Cathedral parish will hold their annual musical and tea Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 at the home of Mrs. P. H. Flynn, 774 Northrup street. The tea is for the benefit of the Catholic Babies' home, and it is expected that the affair will be elaborate in detail.

The young women of St. Patrick's parish to the number of about 60, completely surprised the Young Men's club of the parish by walking in on them during the regular bi-weekly meeting last Thursday evening, and taking absolute possession of their club rooms and their society for the evening. The meeting which was in progress promptly adjourned and the young ladies were given a most cordial reception by the young men, who were present in like numbers. The evening was very pleasantly spent by the young people in many different forms of amusement, consisting of games, music, recitations, vocal and instrumental music, etc., after which a delicious repast, provided by the young ladies, was indulged in. A handsome prize was awarded to Miss Katherine Wolf for being the most adept in the games played during the evening. The committee from the ladies who prepared and served the supper, consisted of Mrs. Edward Harold, Mrs. John McCallig, Mrs. William J. McGinn, Miss Maud Murphy and Miss Lena Harold. The following program was rendered: Vocal solo, Miss Florence Gilmore; airs on the melody, Andy Campbell; piano solo, Miss Mary Connaman; vocal solo, Miss Florence Ahearn; recitation, Charles Kennedy; vocal solo, Anthony Campbell; songs by the club trio, W. D. O'Connor, G. Bodway, A. Campbell. The club will hold its next winter party Tuesday evening, the 15th, in the basement of the church.

On Friday evening the Scottish Rite cathedral, Lonsdale and Morrison streets, was the scene of a brilliant social affair, the occasion being the opening "at home" given by the members. The spacious ball room was a veritable fairyland with the beautifully gowned women, splendid music and the elaborate decorations of flowers and potted plants. The ball was opened by an intricate and beautiful grand march led by Professor and Mrs. Robert Krohn.

Vol. 1

NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 13, 1910

No. 12

DEAR MADAM:

It is worth your while to learn all about "Lastikops Webbing," our new fabric that DOESN'T WEAR OUT.

This fabric is already doing wonders in producing corset-comfort with perfect style; but that's only one of its uses—it can do lots of other good things for you, as we'll show you later on.

Just REMEMBER, please, that Lastikops Webbing is a NEW KIND OF A FABRIC; our own patented invention, used ONLY in Nemo products.

Keep this in mind—then you won't be fooled by imitations that you'll find are nothing but the same old UNRELIABLE elastics.

Lastikops Hose Supporters

Every Nemo Corset (except the few $2.00 models) is finished with Lastikops Hose Supporters, guaranteed to outwear any corset.

Health and Slender Grace

The fame of Lastikops Corset No. 330 has already spread from ocean to ocean. Who said that slender women don't need a supporting corset? One that does support? It is evident that slender women THINK THEY DO, for re-orders for No. 330 are pouring in like a flood.

Those two broad bands of Lastikops Webbing (see cut) stop all dangers of tight lacing. You can pull in the long skirt as hard as you like—it won't harm you in the least.

This is an entirely NEW EFFECT—can't be done with any other elastic.

No. 330, for slender figures; fine white coutil, sizes 18 to 24—$3.50.

No Substitute for Nemos

Nemo Corsets are sold everywhere at fixed and fair retail prices. If any dealer tries to sell you another make when you ask for a Nemo, it is probably because that other make gives him more profit—and you less value.

The "Shapeless Stout Woman" Has Vanished

Only a few years ago, stout women of the "meal-bag" type could be seen everywhere. Now they are extinct—like the dodo. Or, to be more exact, there are as many stout women as ever, but they are now stately and graceful—yes, and COMFORTABLE. Flesh no longer means a shapeless mass; and, for this happy change, millions of women, in every civilized country, give full and due credit to the Nemo Self-Reducing Corset.

No fleshy woman need now look "fat," nor pay a big price for a made-to-order corset. There's a Self-Reducing model for every kind of stout figure, each an extra value simply as a corset, saving nothing of its invaluable and EXCLUSIVE Nemo features. Your dealer will show you.

HOW TO SELECT YOUR Self-Reducing Corsets

If you are tall and stout, ask for No. 320, at $3.50; No. 406, at $4.00; No. 522 or 523, at $5.00; or, if you are medium stout, and want a genuine corset de luxe, ask for No. 990, at $10.00.

If you are short-waisted and stout, ask for No. 318, at $3.50; No. 408, at $4.00; No. 528, at $5.00; or No. 801, at $8.00.

And please remember that the wonderful style and health features peculiar to Nemo Corsets are entirely due to our original patented inventions, which, of course, cannot be used in any other corsets.

The Failure of Imitation

No imitation is ever as good as the original. Imitators cannot lead—they have to follow.

All imitations of Nemo Self-Reducing Corsets have been flat failures. The present imitations of Lastikops Webbing are equally worthless.

Look for the word "Nemo," and accept no substitute—then you'll get satisfaction and your money's worth.

Nemo Lastikops Bandlet

The illustration shows the construction of this invaluable device, and its position in the corset; also, that comfortable supporting curve which insures complete ease with extreme reduction.

Used only in Nemo Self-Reducing Corsets Nos. 522 and 523, the most wonderful figure-reducing corsets ever made. Thousands of physicians are "prescribing" these corsets in place of abdominal bands—$5.00.
