Beginning Made in Case of Captain Sullivan Sufficient to Send Investigation on Down the Line.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Spokane, Nov. 17.—Following the sensational expose of graft in the police department, as developed by testimony in the trial of Captain of Police John T. Sullivan, the local police department is in a turmoil.

Detective Lee Downey, who was implicated in the charges of bribe taking, has resigned, hoping to escape facing charges, while Detective Walter Hogan has a suspension pending as investigation by the police board. Other officers fear investigation.

Captain Sullivan has not yet been suspended, but a grand jury investigation of his office, as well as of all other city officers, will be held. This grand jury will be called as soon as Judge Blunke of the superior court returns to the city.

VOLUNTEERS ESTABLISH HOME FOR GIRLS

The Young Women's home, established by the Volunteers of America, will be dedicated Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The home is located at 12 East Seventh street south, and has been well furnished and prepared for the purpose for which it is intended.

The object of this institution is to provide a home with Christian influence and protection to working girls who come to the city and are compelled to work for wages not sufficient to properly provide for them, or girls who may be temporarily out of employment, or who through sickness are compelled to take a few weeks' rest.

The formal opening of the building will be under the direction of Staff Captain Jennie F. Starks, superintendent of work in Portland. ### GARMENT WORKERS RENEW RIOTING

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, Nov. 17.—Rioting was renewed today in the strike of the garment workers here, and a general walk-out of all unionists employed in the buildings occupied by non-union garment workers is threatened as the result of the importation of 1000 non-union workers.

President Norem of the striking garment workers and the chiefs of the Chicago Federation of Labor are considering this afternoon security regarding the advisability of calling a general strike. If a strike is called 100,000 electricians, elevator men, firemen and engineers will be involved.

The arrival of the non-unionists was the signal for a big demonstration. In one place where the strikers resisted the police, the latter were forced to fire a volley over the heads of the crowd before they could restore order. Twenty-six rioters were arrested.

BOYS RIGHT OF WAY FROM JUNCTION CITY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 17.—The work of buying the right-of-way for the Southern Pacific company's proposed new railroad from Junction City to the mouth of the Siuslaw river has begun.

Major R. L. Edwards, of San Francisco, who secured the entire right-of-way for the company's Naton-Klamath Falls cut-off, has arrived in Eugene and left in company with Alf Walker, of this city, who assisted him with the Naton work for the mouth of the Siuslaw, announcing that the trip is for the purpose of beginning at that end of the line to secure the right-of-way.

The company's surveyors first ran a line from Junction City to the Lake creek valley, but it is reported that they encountered heavy grades over the coast mountains by that route, and they came back and surveyed a line southward from Junction City to Elmira and then turned westward toward the Siuslaw. They are still working in the mountainous regions west of Elmira. It is not reported whether or not they have secured a feasible route.

RELATIONS WITH U. S. PLEASE EARL GREY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—The friendly relations existing between the United States and Canada was the chief topic of the speech of the governor-general, Earl Grey, at the opening of parliament today. The speech touched on the tariff agreements of the two nations, and noted that more satisfactory arrangements than ever before were now in existence.

"The desirability of a more equitable tariff between Canada and the United States has long been felt," Earl Grey continued. "America's commercial policy heretofore has not favored the dominion. Canada has bought largely of United States products, while the United States has not purchased from Canada, and the discovery that this condition is being improved is indeed gratifying."

Earl Grey reviewed the tariff negotiations, and added: "While no conclusions have been reached and no formal proposals made, free discussion encourages my government in its hope that at an early date arrangements will be made admitting many products of the dominion into the United States on a satisfactory basis."

ASKS TO SUCCEED WOMAN IN ESTATE

Asserting that Anna Werlich, administrator of the estate of Alexander Werlich, has designs on the whole estate of A. R. Zeller, who says he is an old friend of the deceased, has asked for her removal and his own appointment.

Zeller's application is supported by 12 of the heirs. They assert that Anna Werlich knew who the heirs were, but filed a petition declaring she did not. She is also alleged to have falsified in saying she is a creditor of the estate. Werlich lived with her for over six years prior to her death and it is asserted her interests conflict with those of the heirs who live in other states. The value of the estate is about $5000.

MAKE MISTAKE IN ARRESTING GUS FINK

The arrest of Gus Fink for grossing the fire line at the scene of the fire at Alhina, Wednesday morning, was a mistake, according to George S. Lewis, partner of Mr. Fink in the grocery business in Alhina. Mr. Lewis says that the matter was dropped as soon as the facts were known, the fine being remitted by the court.

"Mr. Fink has resided in Portland for 25 years and has never been in trouble. He is not a poor man. When the mill fire was discovered Mr. Fink went to the assistance of the firemen and helped rescue all the horses in the barn. While returning home he happened to cross a line unexpectedly and the hasty action of the police resulted in his being brought to the city jail before his identity was discovered."

Mr. Fink is an exempt fireman, having served in Portland many years.

FEDERAL JUDGE RULES AGAINST C. D. HILLMAN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, Nov. 17.—Judge Donworth in the federal court today sustained the demurrer of the government to the plea in abatement made by C. D. Hillman, the Seattle millionaire, indicted in connection with real estate transactions.

Judge Donworth will give his reasons for sustaining the demurrer next Monday. At that time he will listen to argument by Hillman's attorney to quash the indictment remaining.

SAYS HER HUSBAND IS CRUEL AND LAZY

Bertha Campbell has begun suit in the circuit court for divorce from Ernest Leroy Campbell, charging him with cruelty and indolence. She alleges he struck her four times on the head one day last July, threatened to kill her and used language too horrid to be used in the complaint. She says he loathed so much the neighbors called him a "bum" and a "dead beat." She has one child by him and three by a former marriage. They were married in Vancouver, Wash., in 1905.

DOCTOR ALLEGES HIS INDICTMENT IS FAULTY

Attorneys for Dr. W. S. Armstrong and Alexander Maxwell have filed a demurrer to the indictment in which they are charged with manslaughter in connection with an operation upon Bessie G. Richmond. The demurrer is based on three grounds, alleging more than one crime charged, that facts stated do not constitute a crime, and that the indictment does not conform to the code.

A split-up three cornered contest is being waged in Florida for the United States senatorship.

INSANITY WILL BE SLAYER'S DEFENSE

Taking Testimony in Trial of Harry Lambert, Who Killed Wife, Begins.

Advancing temporary insanity as the line of defense, John A. Jeffrey this morning outlined to a jury that he will try to prove to save Harry Lambert from the gallows on the charge of murder in the first degree for killing his wife on July 15.

Jeffrey said his client cannot remember what took place at the time of the shooting. His mind had given way under the strain of what he had been told concerning the relations of his wife with Leslie Travis, whose name is featured by the defense as the destroyer of Lambert's happiness.

Lambert went as his attorney told the story of his wife's infatuation for Mrs. Lambert. He bowed his head in his hands and appeared to be deeply depressed.

Jeffrey said Lambert, who is a carpenter, was so distressed by what he heard and knew as to his wife's conduct that he was unable to work, muttered to himself, and amused, the other workmen by muttering and talking to his brooder as though it were a live animal. He said Lambert frequently met his wife in company with Travis, and the latter had taunted him, telling him to win her back if he could.

Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald, outlining the case for the state, declared Lambert had gone about with murder in his heart. He said Mrs. Lambert held her child in her arms when she was shot, the bullet grazing the neck of the child. Such a deed, carried out in such a way, he said, meant the man was bent on murder and did not have the great love for the child he has professed.

After the opening statements were made Judge Gantenbein sent the jury to Woodlawn to view the scene of the shooting. Taking of testimony began this afternoon. The jury is composed of the following named: J. G. Horning, G. C. Stannard, O. Anderson, H. Costner, Arthur Dippel, J. F. McGrath, Henry Blackman, John Tate, T. P. Swenson, W. J. Ward, Thomas Frack, C. P. Slater.

PEOPLE'S POWER LEAGUE DISBURSED OVER $3000

(Special Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Nov. 17.—Through its secretary, W. S. Upton, of Oregon City, the People's Power League disbursed $3384.06, according to a statement and vouchers filed with Secretary of State Benson today in compliance with the corrupt practices act. This money was expended in behalf of amendments to the constitution proposed at the initiative, all of which, meager official returns show, were probably defeated. The money for the most part was furnished by the Fels fund commission, which is an organization to promote popular government.

The Equal Suffrage association expended $707.85 in behalf of the suffrage amendment to the constitution. More than $600 was expended to defeat the measure which proposed to annex the portion of Washington to Multnomah county. The non-political judiciary committee expended $425.68 in behalf of its candidates. Wallace McCann expended $200 to defeat the proportional representation amendment proposed by the People's Power league.

Klamath to Be Thoroughly "Wet"

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Klamath Falls, Or., Nov. 17.—The official returns for this county show that all but three precincts in the county went wet. ### BARONESS POISONED; CAPTAIN A SUICIDE?

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, Nov. 17.—The body of the Baroness d'Ambroise was found today in the bedroom of Captain Meynier, an officer in the French army, where she evidently had been murdered. Captain Meynier has disappeared after sending by special delivery to the police a note telling of the murder and saying he intended to kill himself.

The body was found by detectives who were sent out when Meynier's letter was received at the office of the chief of police. The letter read: "I have the honor to inform you that I have killed my fiancée. God and find her. Now that I have had vengeance, I intend to kill myself."

Appended were instructions as to where the body of the dead woman would be found. The woman apparently had been poisoned.

KRAMER BUYS EAST SIDE RIDING SCHOOL

S. E. Kramer, of the Kramer riding school, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets, has purchased the horses and equipment of the East Side Riding academy and consolidated that institution with his school. This gives Portland the largest and best equipped school of horsemanship west of Chicago.

A new building has been erected, and three riding instructors are provided. The management has engaged two more instructors, a man and a woman, for the winter season, and they will arrive from New York within two weeks. Mr. Kramer has been in Portland three years, during which time much interest has been aroused in horsemanship. The new riding school opens into a country leading to the most attractive roads without encountering any of the unsafe features of congested traffic and slippery streets. The building is well lighted, and of such dimensions as to allow room for a fine tan bark ring.

The church trustees will soon move to a new edifice and Fantages has made every effort to buy the valuable downtown corner where the old church now stands.

CALLED FOR AX TO "FINISH" VICTIM

New Testimony Introduced in Trial of A. M. Richardson on Murder Charge.

"Get an ax and finish him" is one of the statements said to have been made by Aurelius M. Richardson, the slayer of Jesse C. Hale, just after he had shot his wife's paramour at the fireboat house on August 15. Testimony as to this statement was given this morning by M. C. Brown, a fireman, called as a witness for the state in Judge Gaten's court, where Richardson is on trial for murder in the first degree.

Brown gave a vivid story of the fatal shooting, when Richardson went to the fireboat station and called Hale out to kill him. The witness said that after four shots had been fired into Hale's body, Richardson was seized by two of the firemen and forced into a chair.

"He talked in a strange, wild way," said Brown, "and told why he did it. There was a little blood on his hands and he wanted to wash it off, saying, 'I am through with him now and I don't want any blood on my hands.'"

On cross-examination Brown helped out the theory of the defense as to emotion inability by saying that Richardson seemed moose in his behavior when Hale was referred to, but cried when speaking of his little boy. He said Richardson in substance said:

"I bought three guns and three from away, or they were taken away, but when I thought of my boy I could not do anything to him. My God, what could a man do? I could not sleep, I could not eat, I talked to him as man to man and told him to stay away from my home."

Edgar Martine, a patrolman called after the shooting, testified that when Richardson was placed in the patrol wagon he remarked he was sorry he did not kill his wife as well as Hale.

During the giving of this testimony Richardson sobbed and covered his face with his handkerchief. He seems more composed than at the first of the trial, but still gives way to fitful weeping.

Other witnesses who have testified are W. R. Miller, driver of the ambulance in which Hale's body was removed; Deputy Coroner Frank N. Dana, Dr. F. J. Ziegler, the city physician, and Henry Johnson, captain of the fire boat.

The jury in the case is made up as follows: Sam B. Archer, A. W. Hamersmith, E. C. Constock, Charles J. Allen, Edgar Stepe, A. D. Clutter, J. O. Hanthorn, G. M. Farr, W. E. Reed, A. N. Church, Tom Melberg, T. J. Brown.
