

910 TAX ROLL SHOWS UMATILLA'S GROWTH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Nov. 17.—According to the summary of the 1910 tax roll of Umatilla county just completed by Assessor Strain, the total assessed value of all the taxable property in the county is nearly $25,000,000. The exact value is $24,512,285.

The total number of acres of deeded land in the county is 1,174,385, and their value is $22,814,940. The improvements on this land are valued at $1,072,215. There are 11,997 town and city lots in the county and they are valued at $1,331,285. The improvements on these lots are valued at $275,230. The improvements on the undeveloped land in the county are valued at $170,385.

The summary also shows that Umatilla county is still retaining its prestige as a stock county. The number of horses and mules is 18,365, cattle 12,777, sheep 114,104, hogs 3685, dogs 62, and bees 484.

Teachers Meet at La Grande.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Nov. 17.—E. E. Bragg, county superintendent of Union county, and president of the eastern Oregon division of the state association of teachers, has announced the program to be carried out here in a three day session next week, commencing Monday. The program includes some of the leading educators of the country.

Get in the Right Place
The market man on First and Alder streets, who has been up in court for using false weight scales, was not Frank L. Smith—it was the other fellow. People must be cautious when coming to Alder street, and see that they get into Smith's market, where you always get honest weight. The beef trust is at its old trick of using scales that look all right, but are actually all wrong. At Smith's big market, that runs from 328 Alder street to 145 First street, and at Smith's market, 612 Williams avenue, you get two loaves of fine fresh bread, any kind, for 5c. All of Smith's 20 markets sell fresh fish on Friday—halibut, salmon, smelt, rock cod, tom cod, etc. at 10c. Little neck clams are 6 pounds for 25c. Razor clams are 3 pounds for 25c. Smith doesn't say meat is going to be cheaper, Smith says meat is cheaper. Smith's little picnic ham is 14c. Smith's large lean ham, five ones, are 17c. Half a ham is the same price. 17c. Round steak and sirloin steak are 12 1/2c and 15c. Shoulder roast pork is 15c and 17 1/2c.

Xmas Boxes, Seals, Etc.
To Lend Distinctiveness to Your Gifts

A simple gift properly dressed is impressive. If indifference or lack of thought is shown in its appearance, the gift, however expensive, is handicapped.

Haven't you found this true in your own case—don't you always open the pretty boxes first?

Therefore, be sure to "dress" your gifts this year with pretty Christmas Tags, Labels, Seals, Crepe Paper, Holly and Poinsettia Boxes, Gold and Silver Cord, Ribbon, etc.

Our stock of Dennison's gift dressings is complete, as usual, and awaits your inspection. We also want to mention Christmas and New Years Cards and Postals, of which we have a splendid showing.

It is now time to select these goods.
