

DOG MAKES HIGH DIVE; 200 FEET

Jumps From Bridge Into Columbia River and Swims to Shore Unharmed.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Wenatchee, Wash., Nov. 23.—A jumping 200 feet off the Columbia River bridge at Wenatchee into the Columbia river, and returning to its master unharmed, was the experience of a shepherd dog owned by the manager of a garage. The dog's master had received a call that an automobile was out of gas on the Douglas county side of the river and he set out to carry a supply, the dog following behind. When the helpless machine had been filled the two automobiles started for the city over the bridge. In the center of the bridge one machine endeavored to circle around the other and get ahead. The dog, seeing that it was to be caught in a trap, jumped from the bridge. It being dark the master considered that to be the end of the dog. About two hours afterward a scratch was heard on the door and upon its being opened the dog entered, wagging its tail, and showed its nose into its master's hand. Aside from a drenching the dog showed no signs of injury after battling with the swift current in the Columbia river.

"MOTHER" POPE OF A. A. OF T. P. A. IS KILLED

M. J. Roche, one of the managers of the "Aloha" excursion to the Hawaiian islands, has received a letter from Colonel E. B. Pope, western passenger agent at St. Louis for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway company, announcing the death of his mother. Her death was due to an accident. While driving in her phaeton at Shrewsbury Park St. Louis, the carriage was struck by a St. Louis & San Francisco freight train and she was almost instantly killed. Colonel Pope says in his letter: "Mother was alone and the crossing is one of the worst you ever saw. You cannot see the train until you are right on the crossing. The engineer did not whistle and the train made very little noise. She whipped up the horse as hard as she could, but he was an old family horse and rather slow. Most unfortunately, he did not quite get clear of the track. "It was an awful shock to all of us but we have the one consolation that her life was pleasant and jolly right on to the end. If you and I do as well as we will be all right. She was with us on the trip to Texas, and we had a most delightful time. She enjoyed every moment."

"Mother" Pope, an every member of the American Association of Passenger Agents, loved to sail here, was one of the fearless and best known old ladies among the railroad men of the country. Her son, the colonel, has for a quarter of a century or more been a very prominent member of the National Passenger Association, and for upwards of 50 years "Mother" Pope has not missed the annual convention, no matter in what part of the country it was held. Mrs. Conroy, her daughter, and little Mildred, her grandchild, have been her inseparable companions for years. Twelve days they visited Portland—in 1905, when the convention was held here, and in 1908, immediately after the Seattle convention. Last month at the Texas convention the members of the association presented her with a loving cup. When the presentation was made there was not a dry eye in the crowd. Though upward of 80 years of age, "Mother" Pope was as spry as a young girl.

Twice she made the Bailey Gatzert excursion up the Columbia, and never did she stop talking of the wondrous beauty of the scenic waterway of America.

At the West Baden convention of the American Association of Traveling Passenger Agents, Colonel Pope was elected president, and the following year at Jamestown was succeeded by M. J. Roche.

GARRISON SENTENCED TO HANG; APPEAL TAKEN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Marionfield, Or., Nov. 24.—An appeal will be taken in the case of Frank Garrison, found guilty of murdering Roy Perkins, and who was sentenced to hang by Judge Coke in the circuit court. The date of the execution was not made public, being given in the sealed death warrant. The appeal will likely cause a stay of execution until decided. Garrison, on receiving his sentence, accused the officers of having given false testimony to cause his conviction.

MAN BEATEN FOR OFFICE BY WIFE

Green Creek, Idaho, Precinct Scene of Exciting Election; Woman for Constable.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., Nov. 24.—A peculiar situation in connection with the recent election is reported from Green Creek precinct, southeast of Spokane, which is a heavily populated precinct in Idaho county, Idaho, where A. J. Hoffman, who was running for two offices, constable and justice of the peace, was defeated by his own wife, who, according to the official canvass of the election returns, received two votes to his one for both places. Some of Hoffman's friends suggested to several that they write the name of Mrs. Hoffman on the ballots and vote for her instead of her husband, and the joke took so well that the candidate for judicial honors discovered that he had been relegated to the "also ran" class. Mrs. Hoffman has declined to qualify for either place, but her friends, who assert she has the courage and ability to fill either office with credit, are endeavoring to induce her to accept, and no matter which position she elects to fill she will be the only woman occupying such a position in the northwest.

MILLION DOLLAR LAND DEAL CONSUMMATED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 24.—A million dollar timber deal which has been under negotiation for the past several months and which was given publicity during the fall, wherein F. X. Wendling and associates of San Francisco, secure a billion feet of Lane county's finest timber, lying on the Siuslaw river, has been finally consummated, but the papers have not yet been passed. The former owners of the land were a large number of residents of Lane county and Eugene, who had small holdings and pooled them. Jesse Bounds, a local timber broker, has just returned from San Francisco, where final arrangements were made for the transfer of the land. The price to be received for the timber is $1 per thousand feet. In all probability a railroad will be built through this timber within the next year or two, as at least two companies have announced their intention of building from Eugene or Junction City to the mouth of the Siuslaw, and have completed their surveys.

Riggs Alleges Overcharge.

(Taken from The Journal.)
Salem, Or., Nov. 24.—Beth Riggs of Portland has filed a complaint with the railroad commission in which she alleges that the Southern Pacific company has levied an overcharge against him for the transportation of wood from his place in Polk county to the Jefferson street depot in Portland. Mr. Riggs says that whereas in 1905 and 1910 he had wood shipped to himself at Portland from Polk county at a cost of about $10 a cord, a car carrying about 10 cords, this year he was compelled to pay $22 for about the same amount for the reason, the railroad officials told him, that the minimum charge for one load was the same as if there had been 18 cords of wood on the car instead of 10 cords. He wants redress for what appears to him to be an injustice heaped upon him by the railroad company.

THE ADVICE OF A FRIEND

Given to Those Who Need It.
"San Francisco, Cal.—To anyone who is run-down or who needs a good blood purifier, I want to recommend Vinol the great cod liver and iron tonic. I was run-down, feeling badly and only weighed about 140 pounds. I took a course of Vinol—it purified my blood, gave me a fine appetite, and built me right up. Now I am well and strong, weigh 175 pounds, and, in fact, never felt better in my life." John S. Charles, 3264 17th St., San Francisco, Cal. (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

Vinol is a delicious combination of the health-giving properties of the cod's liver, with the grease eliminated, and tonic iron added, blended in a mild medicinal wine.

If your blood is poor or sluggish, your appetite poor, your digestion weak or your vitality not up to the standard, or if you are suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchial troubles, try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. It could not do what all these people claim it did for them if it was not honest. Woodard-Clarke & Co., Druggists, Portland, Or.
