next convention of the American Feder-ation of Labor for this city. The cham-ber of commerce has for months been carrying on a campaign for the making of Washington city the great conven-tion center of the United States. The work has been pushed with 'vigor, and all citizens were asked to assist in the achievement of the desired ends. The Federation of Labor here began a movement to bring the national con-vention to this city. Application was made to the chamber of commerce to help. The chamber rafused, giving an excuse "the indeterminate statue of the fund for obtaining conventions." But it is well known here that the real reason was antagonism toward organ-ised labor by the business men who compose the chamber of commerce. While refusing to aid in bringing the labor convention here, the chamber con-Mrs. Joseph N. Teal is complimenting her house guests, Mrs. George W.
