NO USE TALKING, THE DEMON ENVY IS A TERRIFLE THING -- By "Bud" Fisher

After canvassing the field for several months, Judge W. W. McCredie yester-day purchased the release of Nick Wil-liams, the stond beauty from Sant man new training ground further league team. The judge received a tele-gram from Williams this morning noti-fying him that he would be on hand with bells and expressed satisfaction with bells and expressed satisfaction with bells and expressed satisfaction at being given a shift of scenery. The San Francisco dispatches said that Wil-liams was released outright, but it is rarely that a manager will let a favor-ito get away from him, and Long com-pelled the Portland magnate to come through with a pretty stiff price for the dampions to train there. A suburb of Los Angeles also wants the Beavers. opposition will soon evaporate. Not only will Lynch be reelected, ac-cording to the gossip, but he will have a three-year tenure of office. It is re-ported that the magnates, weary of the annual fights over the organization of the league, have decided to make the term of office three years instead of one. This, according to the report being circulated, also will affect the other offices in the league, giving the Na-tionals a more permanent organization.
