The shooting took place in Metzger's shop, shortly after 6 o'clock last night. Metager was alone when his wife entered and shot him with a 32 calibre revolver. Only one shot took effect. Nick Keges, a cook at 222 Washington street, and Monroe Goldstein, an employe of the Fortland Gas & Coke Co., heard the shots and sent for the police. Officers Flack and Leisy found Mrs. Metzger sit-

INSTRUCTIONS TO NAVAL RESERVES IN ARTILLERY TO BEGIN

Division officers of the local division of the Oregon Naval Reserve will begin work of in-struction in light artillery this evening in the O. N. G. armory. The lepture on maval topics Monday night at the Lincoln High school was a continuation of the former lecture on elementary theoretical navigation and seamanship, embracing a blackboard description of the simpler instruments used.

Lieutenant Humphrey spoke on ship's boats, their rigs and uses, singly and in flotilias. Bostswain Staron and Gunner Maltby took up mariinspike seaman-ship, while Lieutenant Blomberg and Surgeon Wolf attended applications for enlistment.

Those feeling like assisting the division in getting uniforms are requested to send at an early date their subscriptions to The Journal, as it is desired to secure the uniforms as seen as possible because upon a showing that uniforms and a place to store the property have been pro-vided, the federal government will furnish the necessary equip-
