Admits Former Manager Delivered Short Measure Wood. 01

Admitting that the m the city sealer of weights and measures were correct and that its manager ures were correct and that its manager was guilty of sharp practice in de-livering more wood where shortage had been found, the South Portland Slabwood company entered a plea of guilty for its former manager in the circuit court this morning and paid his fine for short measure. The case was disposed of by Judge Kavanaugh. The case was fought through 'two trials in the lower court. On the first trial the defendant was convicted on testimony of the city measurers that testimony of the city measurers that a siz-cord rick of wood was one-fourth of a cord short. Then the company asked a remeasurement, and when this was granted, over six cords was found. Luckily the city found two witnesses who saw a wagon deliver more wo after the first hearing in court. Of-ficials of the company, including L. Aunuiller, the manager, denied that any additional delivery had been made, but conviction was nevertheless secured, the defendant appealing. Today the attorney for the defendant said it had been ascertained by the company that its manager had faistfied in denying an additional delivery. Au-miller himself having directed, the de-livery. The company therefore pleaded suffity for him and paid the $25 fine imposed in the municipal court. Au-miller has been discharged.

(Continued From Page One.) for inducing Cannon to withdraw from the race for the speakarship has long been considered by certain administra-tion adherents. Whether or not Prest-dent Taff favors the plan, they pro-fess not to know. It is believed, how-ever, that the president would not be displeased if Cannon should withdraw and a speaker acceptacis to both insur-gents and regulars abould be selected. The hope for the remainder of the ad-ministration program rests with the present short session of congress and there must be some quick work if the measures which Taff desires are passed.
