Nineteen property owners have filed petition with the St. Johns council, while for an arc light at Pierce and

The Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation company has asked for a franchise to construct a sidetrack to onnect the plant of the Lauthers com-any and Bradford street. The council pany and Bradford street. The council deferred agion.

The council has decided to go shead with the improvement of Bradford street from Richmond to Fessender street. The city engineer has been instructed to make a profile of the proposed street. In order to make the improvements it will be necessary to move back the plant of the Johnson Lumber company four feet.

An ordinance pertaining to the assessment of the cost of improvements on Leonard street, from Chicago to New York streets, was paused.

A special meeting of the property owners living on Jersey street will be held December 8 to decide on the styles of paving.

City Attorney Henry E Collier, who was a prominent factor in the recent annexation fight, has sold his home and moved into Portland.

When Parisian Sage Is Guaranteed to Stop Falling Hair, or Money Back.

A luxuriant head of hair in God's birthright to every man-to every wo-If your hair is falling out; if it is splitting; if it is turning gray, if it is full of dandruff, if it is harsh and un-controllable, then it is diseased, and Parisian Sage is a real hair restorer: it will darken faded hair; it will stop dandruff in one week by promptly killing the germs that infest the roots of the hair. Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world; it is pleas-ant, invigorating and refreshing. It makes the hair soft, beautiful and lux-uriant. Wherever Paristan Sage is

We urge all women who desire beau-tiful hair to try Parisian Sage. If, after using one bottle, you do not say it is the most delightful hair dressing you ever used, you can have your money back. The price is only 50 cents a large bottle at Woodard-Clarke & Co., or, by express, charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y. The girl with the Auburn hair is on
