COMPOSITE ELEVEN SHOWS SAME MIND

Nearly All Critics Agree on the Best Football Players in Northwest.

Nine football critics and coaches have submitted their All-Northwest selections for the season of 1911, and with one or two exceptions they are pretty generally the same. In the case of end positions there were three players who got four votes each. In other positions players were switched about, so that it is really hard to get a positive line on the composite selection. However, there is no question about those of the selections, Taylor the Oregon half back, Polly Grimm, the Washington tackle, and Laird, the Washington full back, who polled every vote cast.

Keck of Oregon Aggies and Eakins of Washington were the next highest, getting eight votes each. Dunn of Oregon Aggies and Latourette of Oregon were chosen in the symposium by one vote. The Journal's All-Northwest eleven, chosen by its sporting editor last Sunday morning, named Dunn, center; Laird and Bailey, guards; P. Grimm and Eakins, tackles; Husley and Mitchell, ends, Taylor and Cox, halves; Keck, quarterback, and Keck, fullback.

Many of the coaches did not follow out the old idea of naming players or eleven other than their own, but selected their star men. For instance Oethoff of Washington State, chosen as the writer for example, named a unanimous selection, but Harter just polled enough votes to secure a composite position by Oethoff's choice. For left guard there were only four votes for two men, Harter and Groat. Some critics, the writer for example, named a tackle into guard position for the time being. But according to this composite method if a man played tackle all season and was not quite so good as two other tackles, but sided up better than any other guard, he may be placed.

- The composite selections follow:
- Center—Dunn, O. A. C. (5), Harter, W. S. C. (3).
 - Left guard—J. Harter, W. S. C. (3), Groat, U. of O. (1).
 - Right guard—Laird, W. B. C. (9), Griffith, U. of O. (1).
 - Left tackle—P. Grimm, U. of W. (6), Hunter, W. S. C. (1).
 - Right tackle—Eakins, U. of W. (4), Bailey, U. of O. (3).
 - Left end—W. Grimm, U. of W. (4), Michael, U. of O. (1).
 - Right end—Huntley, O. A. C. (4), Galbraith, W. S. C. (2).
 - Quarter—Latourette, U. of O. (5), Cagle, U. of W. (4).
 - Left half—Cox, Whitman, (6), Main, U. of O. (1).
 - Right half—Taylor, U. of O. (9), Lundstrum, U. of L. (1).
 - Fullback—Keck, O. A. C. (8).

Those who took part in naming the various eleven are: Robert A. Cronin, of the Journal; W. J. Petrain, of the Portland Oregonian; J. Newton Colver, of the Spokane Spokesman-Review; George Varnell, of the Spokane Chronicle; and Roscoe Fawcett of the Spokane Inland Herald, and five coaches: Oethoff of Washington, Oethoff of Washington State, McCas, of Whitman and Griffith of Idaho.

WRIGHT INCREASES HIS BILLIARD LEAD

"Chick" Wright put it all over W. C. Dunway, the local pride, in their handicap billiard match last night at the Waldorf. Wright completed his second string of 400, while Dunway was doing 144 points. Wright's high run was 79, while Dunway put up a high run of 32.

Wright now has a two point total of 896 points, while Dunway's grand total is 851. By the terms of the handicap Dunway's total would have been 599, making him 103 points to the bad.

The match will close tonight. The usual large crowd witnessed the matches.

BERKELEY WILL PLAY VICTORIA FOR TITLE

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 1.—That the Berkeley university rugby team will visit Victoria to meet the British Columbia champions for the Keith cup, which is the symbol of Pacific coast supremacy, there is no further doubt. The guarantee it is necessary to raise before the southerners may leave California will be procured and the three matches will take place here during Christmas week.

The dates have not yet been fixed. Yesterday a reply was received from the students of California advising they would come as soon as the necessary money was raised and it was at once placed in the bank, thus binding the big game.

WILLIE HOPPE PICKED TO WIN FROM SLOSSON

New York, Dec. 2.—Billiard enthusiasts pick Willie Hoppe to win easily from the veteran George Slosson in their match now being played here. Hoppe will begin tonight's play with a lead of 247. The youngster's showing in the first block, which he won by 500 to 207, was marvelous. He established a new record, averaging 33.5-15. The former average high record was held by lives with 31 and a fraction.

The match is at 18.1 ball five.

WOULD PROHIBIT PASS OVER SCRIMMAGE LINE

New York, Dec. 2.—The abolition of the forward pass over the line of scrimmage and the reduction of the distance to be gained from ten to seven yards, are the most important changes for next year that should be made, according to George Sanford, the man who built Yale's marvelous defense this season. Sanford also would revise the rules to permit a runner to "back onto" a player in hitting the line.

WINTER LEAGUE TEAM GETS BIG BRUSH MAN

San Diego, Dec. 2.—Manager Palmer, of the local winter league baseball team, announced that Dolly Gray, pitcher on the Washington American league team has signed to play with the locals beginning January 1.

Palmer has Carson of the Varon team, Stewart of San Francisco and Killiany, who goes to the Boston Americans next year, on his pitching staff.

Chimmie's Column

Extra! Manager McCredie has "not" received the signed contract of "Brownie" the Beaver mascot. Mac does not know just which team "Brownie" will carry bats for, but nevertheless McCredie shows signs of being worried over the mascot's failure to return his contract. Don't worry, Adonis.

Well, say—you can talk about your lovers—I never saw a man in my life who could make them kiss, hug and love each other like this chap "Chick" Wright did last night at the Waldorf billiard parlors.

"These und crackers," how he sent those ivory balls rolling over that green table! It looked as if there was a magnet in all three balls. They couldn't stay away from each other.

He rolled them as high as 75 last night. Did it just as easy. What does Wright care for a couple of points? Well, I should say he does not.

To show you how much of a real sportsman he is, once he fouled a ball on his sixtieth point and nobody in the immense throng saw it but himself, but he is made of that honest stuff and very nicely took his seat in favor of Mr. Dunway.

Dunway is some good shot himself, but the greatness of "Chick" Wright is too much for our local wielder of the cue.

Now for a little baseball.

A letter from U. Gene Rubber Krapp in Detroit says that he wishes he was back on the Bus de Washington once again. He never stops telling the folks about the nice things we have out in the west. Gene will report to Cleveland March 1.

Krapp says that everybody wanted to see the medal he received for being on the pennant winning team of the Pacific Coast league. Gene said that as they were to be made out of a very select gold, it would be some while before they discovered where this gold is located. "Give up," I think the gold is located between Albin's incline and the top of Council Crest.

It is not so very long before the team will be going on its spring training trip and then for some fun. Everybody will grab on to the papers each night, looking for good news from the season of war. You will want to know whether or not the twirlers are as good as we had last year. How the new infielders are and over so many other things.

Tomorrow is the day that you can see a real live football game at the Vaughn street grounds. It is sure to be a great battle.

A larger crowd than attended the U. of O.-Kulmounah game is apt to be on hand, if the weather is decent, so get out there early and see what is coming off, when Washington and Lincoln High mix.

Wilson Buys Another Horse. Lexington, Ky., Dec. 2.—Strains, trotter, a cup winner in three parts in harness races, has been purchased by Dick Wilson of Portland, Or., for $2500.

Kansas City offers $10,000 for a wrestling bout between Hackenschmidt and Yusef Mahmoud the Turk. The Russian Lion is touring the east and will go west early next year. He is on a four months' tour.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME COMES OFF TOMORROW

Washington and Lincoln will fight it out for the championship of the Scholastic Football league tomorrow afternoon and from the enthusiasm over the game it is expected that the largest crowd of the season will be in attendance to watch the young football gladiators.

That there may be no question about the merit of the winning team's scores, the schools have agreed on B. Warner, Cornell, and Oregon's coach last season will be the referee. The umpire will be G. W. Fairweather, former All-Western tackle from Illinois university. Bill Hunt, Cornell, who assisted Warner at Oregon last year, will be field judge and Hugh Boyd will probably be selected as head linesman.

There is an intense rivalry over the game. Washington holds a game over Lincoln by a 5 to 0 score, but that was early in the season and the west alders are determined to reverse it in tomorrow's post season game for the championship. Lincoln has sent out a quiet tip to expect a surprise and the fans are on the qui vive. Coach Earl of Washington thinks he has the greatest high school team in the northwest.

Washington has probably a shade in experience and a pound in weight, but the age is the same. By the way the "Links" have been coming these last few weeks it is a tossup as to which is the better eleven. Washington has beaten Lincoln, but Lincoln did a trick Washington could not accomplish, the defeat of Columbia university.

Those who have followed football at the two schools for years, say the teams are the best that ever represented them. It will be the last appearance of several stars among them Toomey and O'Neill, the best end and guard in the league for Lincoln, and Parsons, Cornell and Frazier for Washington.

The tickets are on sale at Rowe & Martin's drug store and there has been a heavy demand on them ever since they were placed on sale.

The whistle will start the game exactly at 2:30 o'clock and the period will be the usual 15 minute quarters with three minutes rest between the first and second, 10 minutes rest between the second and third, and three minutes more between the third and fourth.

NEW YORK GIANTS TO PLAY OLD MEN AGAIN

New York, Dec. 2.—John T. Brush, president of the local National League baseball club, who is on his way to San Antonio, Texas, to spend the winter, in an interview just before he started for the south, said he was greatly pleased with the baseball outlook for next year.

"I am certainly well satisfied with the prospects for next year," said Brush, "and I believe the Giants will make a great showing."

Brush intimated that he expected the team would "stand pat" and that there would be very little money spent for new material. Considerable attention will be paid, however, to developing the men who wore the New York uniform last year.

JACK JOHNSON FULL FLEDGED CAPITALIST

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Champion Jack Johnson blossomed out as a real capitalist today, when he secured an option on property valued at $50,000 at State and Thirty-first streets. It was expected the deal would be completed today.

The property consists of an auditorium, two dance halls and several lodges. Johnson surprised many sports who have been saying that he has been wasting his money and was about broke by showing that he has an account of $185,000 in a local bank.

Syracuse freshmen are instructed in rowing by Coach Jim Ten Eyck as a part of their gymnastic work and the plan is working out successfully.

BROKEN RIB MAY GET HOWELL CAPTAINCY

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 2.—The gameness of Quarterback Ingram C. Howell of the victorious naval academy football team in playing through the army game with a broken rib, probably will win for him the captaincy of the navy team in 1911.

The little quarterback, at the end of the first period in the game learned that his rib was broken but he refused to quit the game. Howell's injury is being watched for fear that a lung may have been pierced by the broken bone and infection started.

Supporters of the navy claim the championship, Annapolis beat West Point 3 to 0; Army beat Yale decisively, and Yale beat Princeton and tied with Harvard.

"Tigers" Play Turners

C. Y. M. C. "Tigers" basketball team will play the Turners in the gym of the latter team Friday evening. The game was scheduled for Tuesday evening but it was necessary to postpone it as the Turners were unable to get the floor for Tuesday.

TO EXTEND MEDFORD-JACKSONVILLE LINE

N. F. Barnum, owner of the six mile railroad between Medford and Jacksonville, will extend the road a distance of 10 miles into the aggregate valley. George A. Kyle, small recently chief engineer for the Oregon Trunk line, but now engaged in general engineering, will have charge of the construction of the extension.

The present motive power of the road consists of two steam locomotives and two gasoline motor cars, and mixed freight and passenger trains are operated. Orders for equipment to satisfy the needs of the extension will be placed at once, as it is intended to have the new line ready for operation next summer.

The line will be a feeder to both the Hill and Harriman systems. Grading will be started at once. The survey runs through a level country, and construction will be easy.

GLEASON VIEWED WITH SUSPICION

Easterners Think He Is Cooking Up Third Major League.

New York, Dec. 2.—As Russian-Japan war correspondents need to put it, there are "persistent rumors" in regard to a third major baseball league. A number of well known players have bobbed in and out of the city of late and they are suspected of conferring with men said to be back of the scheme.

Gleason and Cal Ewing are partners in San Francisco. Gleason claims to have leased a plot twenty minutes from Herald Square where he can throw up a ball park in time for next spring's opening.

He had many a talk with prominent players over the third league proposition, and the supposition is that Gleason, backed by Tex Rickard and other western men, are ready and willing to take D. Fletcher's contracts off his hands and establish the nucleus of a third big league organization.

Gleason was in Buffalo and went so far as to offer $25,000 for the playing ground of the Bisons, providing he could get the eastern league team thrown in. Buffalo is figured upon as a portion of the new league.
