enriches Portland will enrich What makes Portland grow when what makes Portland grow make Spokane grow. Every bit of ded business for Spokane will mean ded business for Portland. That is, ovided Portland gets ready for it. "Your greatest need is harbor impovement," declared Mr. Fasselt. "Your est important duty is to prepare adeately for the commerce that will come rough the Panama canal. Freight ovements will then be revolutionized as apples that Spokane now ships in frigerator cars to the east will then by refrigerator ships not only to the ris of the Atlantic, but to the ports the world. Mr. Passett in Portland will propose closer affiliation of the commercial dies of Spokane and Portland, so that aration can be mutually me caring for the great commerce that will fellow the completion of the Panama canal. He is accompanied by his wife and family, and will leave this evening for San Francisco.

WITNESS SAYS PORTER UNARMED WHEN SHOT

La Granda, Or., Dec. 8.—Two wit-nasses for the state occupied the entire forence today in the trial of Jess Park-er, for the murder of his father-in-law, William Porter. The evidence recited the incidents of the murder and the one vitness awore that Porter did not have a gun when shot down. This is the key-note of the defense, and the testimony today indicated there will be much con-tradictory evidence.

SUIT TRANSFERRED TO FEDERAL COURT

A suit to recover $25,000 damages from the Union Bridge & Construction company for the death of Roy E. Bradley November 9, begun by the dead man's father, Walter N. Bradley, was transferred from the state to the United States circuit court today. Young Bradley was an amploye of the company and while stepping from one barge to an-

Cowitz county, according to the suit of Lee Frederikson against that company to recover $10,000 for the loss of three fingers. The suit was transferred from the state to the federal courts because the defendant is a Wisconsin corporation. Frederikson alieges on August 5, while working on the "trip line" of a donkey engine, his glove caught in broken strands of the cable and he was carried into the block and tackle, where his hand was crushed. He claims the signal boy was Il years old and the engineer of the donkey laid claim to 14 years and to one day's experience as an engineer. They failed to respond to his engineer. They falled to respond to his cries to shut off the power, he says, because of their youth and Inexperience.

ANGRY PASSENGERS KEEP CAR ON MOVE

"It was 6:15 when I boarded the car downtown last evening," said one of the passengers today. "The motorman appeared to be green and we were twice unnecessarily delayed going, out. At East Thirty-eighth street he ran onto the switch and three cars passed us. Then we were ordered to change cars. "Urged by a few leaders, we refused. When the motorman started back the trolley was repeatedly pulled off. Then about a dozen of us gave the conductor our cards and told him we would stand between him and the company, as he our cards and told him we would stand between him and the company, as he said he was following orders. The car went on, but at Fifty-eighth street we were again told we would have to change. As there were but a few of us left we decided to obey. It took me just an hour to get to my home."

WOMAN FINDS MONEY; HER LOVER DISMISSED

The charge of larceny against Robert Burns was dismissed yesterday in the municipal court. This action was taken upon the request of Jennie Rieman, who signed the complaint against him. She charged that he took $152 from her room, but the woman now states the money was found where she had left it.

Burns was arrested on board a Chiengo-bound train Monday evening by Detective Price. He was going east for business for the insurance company with which he is connected. The woman stated this morning that no marriage arrangements had been made between herself and Burns, and that trouble was all caused by a mistake.
