LU ETTA TELLS OF JOURNEY TO JAPAN

Mrs. Derrigg Handed Her the Price; Burke's Malevolence Alleged.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Santa Rosa, Cal., Dec. 21.—That Dr. Willard P. Burke, proprietor of a sanitarium, said that Miss Lu Etta Smith had blown herself up with dynamite and that it was a pity she had not killed herself, was the testimony today of Miss Lois Claussen in the trial of the doctor on a charge of dynamiting, which was resumed today after several days' adjournment on account of the illness of a juror.

"Dr. Burke told me," said Miss Claussen, who was formerly at the sanitarium, "that Miss Smith had blown herself up and that it was a pity she had not been killed, as she would be better off dead."

The witness testified that the statement was made during a conversation in the sanitarium kitchen the day following the explosion.

Lu Etta Smith was on the stand during the forenoon and testified regarding her departure for Japan to avoid being a witness at the trial.

She said Marion Derrigg of Berkeley, gave her $750 in currency and that the amount, less the amount paid for a ticket to Japan, was handed to her on the morning of the departure of the steamer. At the same time, Miss Smith said, she signed two papers for Mrs. Derrigg.

Miss Smith testified she became the confidante of Mrs. Derrigg in 1905, and that she saw her several times just before the trip to the Orient. That Mrs. Derrigg accompanied her to the steamer and insisted that she travel as "Mrs. E. E. Long," was a statement of the witness.

Her desire to avoid the notoriety of a trial was given by the witness as the reason for her journey to Japan. She said she had cabled to Dr. Burke for money for her return passage but received no response.

Mrs. Anna Macey of San Francisco, testified to a visit of Dr. Burke to Miss Smith while the latter was at the Macey home in 1908 and 1909.

5 CENT FARE FOR TICKET BUYERS

Court Rules for People in Case of Seattle, Renton & Southern.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Seattle, Dec. 21.—Patrons of the Seattle, Renton and Southern line will be able to ride for five cents hereafter, anywhere within the city limits, provided they buy commutation tickets in lots of 20 for $1.

This was decided yesterday by Judge Gilliam after listening to arguments all day on the injunction proceedings instituted by the company to restrain the passengers from refusing to leave the cars upon nonpayment of a second nickel at Orchard Beach and a third nickel at Taylors Mill.

The restraining order is not dissolved. But the court ruled that the Crawford interests had no right to take from the people privileges originally enjoyed.

Judge Webster, sitting in Seattle as a visiting judge, decided that the Seattle Renton and Southern had no right to charge more than five cent fare within the city limits. The company filed a supersedeas bond, and pending the decision of the supreme court it was allowed to maintain the old rates. Immediately the company went a step farther and withdrew from sale all commutation tickets and obtained a restraining order which compelled the suburbanites to leave the car promptly upon refusal to pay the fare declared illegal by Judge Webster.

WADDELL AGAIN IN DIVORCE COURT

Drank Wife-Beating Whiskey, No. 3 Alleges; Other Serious Charges.

(United Press Leased Wire.)

St. Louis, Dec. 21.—George Edward (Rube) Waddell, the eccentric baseball pitcher, whose matrimonial adventures have gained for him almost as much notoriety as his achievements on the diamond, was made defendant in a suit for divorce filed by Mrs. Waddell No. 3 today. Complaints that appear in the papers filed by his former wives were included in today's suit, and in addition it is alleged that Rube has broken the "Pollard temperance pledge," taken last June. Among the grounds alleged are non-support, intoxication, assault and battery and desertion.

Waddell married Madge Maguire last April, two months after he had divorced wife No. 2. Report had it that the once mighty pitcher had braced up, and shortly afterward he signed a pledge for a year, but the complaint filed by his wife today indicates that the pledge had little effect.

One of the allegations is that Waddell left the plaintiff in September, going to Newark, N. J., and leaving her penniless. Mrs. Waddell was obliged to sell her wedding trousseau in order to get money with which to buy food, it is alleged. Waddell is charged with administering a beating to his wife whenever he was under the influence of liquor, which, the complaint alleges, was most of the time.

In October, Mrs. Waddell avers, Rube promised to reform. She returned to him, she says, but a short time afterward he struck her and she determined to leave him.

Jerome Templeton, of Knoxville, who is a candidate for the seat of Senator Frazier, has long been prominent as a leader of the prohibition movement in Tennessee.

COLORED MAN SAVED FROM MOB VENGEANCE

Raleigh, S. C., Dec. 21.—Nathan Montague, a negro suspected of murdering three persons at Durham, arrived here today in custody of a sheriff's posse, which en route eluded half a dozen mobs bent on lynching him. Montague, it is charged, entered the home of Leyton Sanders, a farmer, near Durham, slew Sanders and his grandchild, 2 years old; attacked Mina Sanders, his daughter, and then cut her throat.

Mobs of farmers made desperate attempts to catch Montague. After his arrest he was taken to Durham and from there was brought to Raleigh when a mob was reported forming to lynch him.

Montague was placed in the North Carolina state prison. He was rushed here in an automobile.

M. P. MACHINISTS BACK TO THE SHOPS

Sacramento, Cal., Dec. 21. — "Strike settled; men report for work Wednesday. Particulars by mail."

The above telegram announcing the settlement of the strike of 2800 machinists on the Missouri Pacific railway was received yesterday afternoon from A. O. Wharton of St. Louis, business agent of the machinists, by J. G. Taylor, an agent for the Machinists' union living in Sacramento. The 2800 men were receiving a minimum of 37 cents an hour. They struck for 40 cents and better hours. The company granted the increase, but not the second demand. Then the men struck again.

Local unions were helping the strikers and they rejoice at the news of the settlement.

WEST SIDE SNAP BLOCK 200X250 FT. $8500—WILL TRADE

At the end of 6th st., only a few blocks south of the postoffice. It has some old buildings now rented.

This piece of property has a better future than North Portland property had seven years ago, where blocks are now worth from $50,000 to $100,000. The same increase in values may be expected in southwest Portland very soon.

The price of this block is $8500; $4500 cash, or we will trade for a residence in a desirable section of Portland; must be good value and clear of incumbrance.

If this interests you and you are able to handle it on the above terms, call at 605 Corbett bldg., and we will take you out in our automobile to see it.

75-ACRE RANCH $5600

TRADE FOR CITY PROPERTY—WILL PAY FOR ITSELF IN 2 YEARS

75 acre ranch, highly improved, on the main automobile road midway between a live railroad town and a mountain summer resort, which makes this an ideal place for a road house, just as a side issue. Owner cleaned up $700 a month this past summer off tourists and owner was not fitted up to handle the trade either. River within ¼ mile; finest of fishing and hunting. Has 30 acres cleared and in cultivation; 20 acres of good merchantable timber for which there is an immediate market at a price which will overtop the first payment on this place.

For fruit this land is unsurpassed. We have 100 Winter Banana trees now bearing, 100 trees Delicious which took the prize at the Spokane Apple show, a number of cherry trees from 8 to 15 years old, 50 bearing pear trees, 10 English walnut trees bearing, about 12 years old, 12 acres in orchard.

1 mile from school and 2½ miles from store and postoffice; has good 5 room house, barn 30x40 ft.

We produced over 2 tons of rhubarb last year and sold it all at a good price right on the place. You don't have to budge from the place to sell everything you grow.

Price $5600—We will take $1600 in Portland property, lots, rooming house, or something good, some cash and the balance can remain for 3 years at 6 per cent. If you do no better than owner did the past year the place will pay for itself in two years.

Ask for McKinley.
