WATERHOUSE TAKES SHIP

British Steamer Strathtay Goes on

British Steamer Strathtay Goes on Australia Route. According to report received this morning by one of the local shipping firms the British steamer Strathtay, 2019 tons net register, has been taken by the Waterhouse people, probably for their Australian line. From the same source came the information that the British steamer Heliopolis, 2967 tons net, now at Honolulu, has been taken for loading at one of the Pacific coast ports, but no details were given. The Strathtay is now on her way to Balbos from San Francisco. December 20 she was reported at San Jose de Guatemala. From Balbos she will pro-ceed to Australia. The Heliopolis ar-rived at Honolulu December 17 with a cargo of coal from Newport News for the government.

IDAHO JUDGE GOES VIOLENTLY INSANE

Lewiston, Idaho, Dec. 17.—Judge J. E. Jucques became violently insane here last Saturday night and was taken after a hard fight. Breeding over his failure to secure enough votes to reelect him probate judge of Idaho county is at-tributed as the cause of his condition. Judge Jacques, who was a candidate for reelection on the Republican ticket, was beaten by but 14 votes by his Democratic dpponent, Judge J. H. De-haven of Grangsville. Since then he has been gradually failing in bealth, and this morning was started for Hot Lake in charge of Fenn Batty of Grange-ville, a close personal friend. Just before the departure of the
