It was not always so. Catarrh has one. It was not always so. Catarra has raged flercely through the years like a firebrand, and in the eagerness to quench it, many useless things were given out as cures, but it remains now after the slow process of experimenta-tion and discovery, to offer the posi-tive, real curs, which has been born of censeless searching and common sense.

Thousands Praise Gauss.

This is Gauss' Combined Treatment for Catarrh. The story is told over and over again a thousand times of the lost hirthright of health restored of the hap-piness caused, of the release from a degrading pestilence and the hope and comfort and sleep returned by the use of this wonderful, simple Gauss treatment. It must be true. There are stories from all over the land that bub ble up from gratitude. They tell us as nothing else can the misery in which as nothing ease can the misery in which catarrh plunges, the danger it brings, the deaths it causes, and then again there are other pictures painted in these letters of happiness and health redeemed, lost energy restored and ambition reclaimed.

Enraged Audience Roughly Handles Gagger Who Interrupts Speech.

San Antonio, Sept. 19 .-- During a publie primary meeting here today, a mid-dle-aged man in the audience who was dle-aged man in the audience who was fumbling a rolled up handkerchief in his hand and persistently sniffing and pulling his nose during the delivery of a speech, was forcibly ejected from the assembly hall. Cries of "Kick him out," and "Choke the lobster," interrupted the proceedings, and finally resulted in a grand rush for the nose-puller by some of the enraged heavers. He was grabbed by the coat collar and uncere-moniously and swiftly moved toward the door.

When the man first sat down and began loudly tearing out a throat-hawk, the audience shifted nervously. After continuing the draw-ratile of his ca tarrh through one of the most stirring parts of the speech the audience gave yent to its foelings. He was roughly handled on the way out, and sustained several severe bruises. He was taken

I walk alone, my work palls on me, my nerves refuse me. That let-her-go feeling has got me. I relish nothing I ent, and my appetite is gone. And as I think of my misery I must hawk again. My cough is a rattle. The ruby has been plucked from my cheek, the flush of my young health is gone. My head is in a fever, but my hands are cold, and I seem to feel in them the ap-proaching chill of the tomb—I have read of catarth death, and my mother's brother died of the same disease. Come on, death, and relieve me. I suffered much with the droppin into my throat, and after I had the medicine for three or four back taken weeks this nasty sensation entirely ceased, and I have never had any re-turn of it. I am now fully cured of my catarrh, and I am very grateful to you and your medicine.

I will be very glad to tell any one whom I think needs it and if you wish to use my name you may do so, as I am so grateful that I wish everybody who needs it would use it, and I am sure that it will cure them. Miss Mattle Drullinger, Birdsell street, South Bend Ind.
