Growers Offered 17c but Will Not Sell—Some Poor Goods Moved at 16c.

Seventeen cents has been offered for 1910 hops, but no sales are reported by growers, because they are asking 20c or more.

Some trade between dealers is reported. One of those in especially significant of the general market in values. A lot that was a drug on the market and could not be moved at 16c a short time ago has been moved to another dealer at 16c, and he has been offered 16 1/2c, but is asking 17c.

Old hops are reported sold at 11c for 1909, and there are reports out as high as 11 1/2c, but nothing over 10 1/2c has been confirmed.

IDAHO STOCKMEN FORM LARGE ASSOCIATION. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Jan. 2.—With Representative Paul Clagstone of Idaho recently defeated in the gubernatorial election of that state as its president, the Northwestern Live Stock association has been formed at Grangeville, Idaho, through a merger of the Northwest Live Stock association and the Inland Empire Breeders' association.

Says Saloonman Violated Pledge. Salem, Or., Jan. 2.—Attorneys for the city of Woodburn today filed an action in the circuit court for Marion county asking for the forfeiture of a bond for $1000 given by G. H. Applin, a saloon proprietor of that city. It is alleged that Applin violated the pledge for which he gave bond by selling liquor to minors and to men intoxicated.

INLAND EMPIRE SHOWS WEALTH

Gross Total of Productions Estimated to Have Reached Over $187,000,000.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Spokane, Wash., Jan. 2.—Through Spokane, the hub of the Inland Empire, wealth so great that the figures are staggering has passed during the year of 1910. It is roughly estimated that the combined agricultural, mining and commercial wealth produced during the past year in the region embracing eastern Washington, northern Idaho, northeastern Oregon, western Montana and south British Columbia has reached $187,000,000 for last year.

Ukiah, Cal., Jan. 2.—Following the finding of a sack of charred human bones, believed to be those of Joseph Cooper, an aged prospector, Pietro Gianoli, a neighbor and copy of Cooper, was arrested today and is held in the Ukiah jail pending an investigation of the disappearance of the old miner.

Centralia, Wash., Jan. 2.—A movement is under way by which 10 counties of southwest Washington are seeking divorce from Pierce county (which means Tacoma), in the redistricting of that part for congressional representation. The counties are Lewis, Chehalis, Clarke, Klilklat, Cowlitz, Clallam, Thurston, Wahkiakum and Jefferson.

Ukiah citizens are greatly aroused over what the authorities allege is a murder and searchers today are going over the mountains near Gianoli's cabin in an effort to locate some bit of evidence that will serve positively to identify the bones as those of Cooper.

Capital invested, output of products and wages paid laboring men in this territory amount to $52,000,000 against $38,000,000 last year. Mineral productions amount to $45,000,000 while the wealth from the same source a year ago was $43,000,000.
