IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lewis entertained New Year's eve in the Portland grill when their guests were Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lewis and Dr. George Wilson. Mrs. John Lewis spent Christmas in Los Angeles, returning to Portland for New Year's.

An interesting event of yesterday was the wedding of Miss Alice Forbes and Lorne King, celebrated at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, 471 East Ash. Festoons of greenery and pink roses decorated all the rooms. The bridal robe was an exquisite creation of crepe over satin, cut en traine, and elaborated with pearl passementerie. Her long veil was caught with pearl ornaments in a Juliet cap effect, and her bouquet was a beautiful water fall of lilies of the valley. She wore two ornaments, one a diamond brooch set in platinum, the gift of the groom, and the other a diamond pendant, a gift of the groom's mother. There were no attendants. The groom waited for the bride at the foot of the stairs, and together they entered the room, where the service was read by Rev. McKinley, a cousin of the Forbes from Seattle. Just before the ceremony Mrs. James Alexander Ellis, accompanied by Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, sang "Gifts," by del Riego. The wedding march was played by Wilder's orchestra, which continued to discourse music during the evening. Only relatives and intimate friends were bidden to the wedding, but about 150 called later to wish the young couple well. In the receiving line were the bride and groom, Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Forbes, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. King, parents of the groom; Mrs. Lulu Dahl Miller, sister of the bride, and the Misses Frances and Queenie King, sisters of the groom. Mrs. Clifford Nichols (Miss Eva Jones) served the ices, and Mrs. William Silvertooth of Antelope, Or., presided over the coffee urn. The bride's bouquet fell to Miss Frances King. Mr. and Mrs. King left for Victoria and Vancouver on their honeymoon.

T. W. B. London left Wednesday for Vancouver, B. C., where he will open an office and act as manager for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., after a residence of 25 years in Portland. Miss Winnifred London will remain at St. Helen's Hall until spring, when she is graduated. Mrs. London is Miss Zoletta's and George Tamplin London will remain at 583 Johnson street until spring, when they will leave for Vancouver to establish a permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Menefee are the parents of a son born Wednesday.

Mrs. William A. Laddlaw and Mrs. J. C. Elliott King were hostesses at an elaborate New Year's reception given Monday at the Mount Tabor home of the Laddlaws. Between 200 and 300 guests called and the invitations were limited to Mount Tabor people. This is another in the series of receptions given by Mount Tabor people for Mount Tabor people. The first was given on New Year's two years ago. In the library, drawing room and dining room, pinsettia were used in profusion, making a beautiful effect. In the music room white rhododendrons were used and the upstairs was decorated in a color scheme of scarlet and green. In the receiving line with Mrs. Laddlaw and Mrs. King were Miss Ada Alice Tuttle, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Alice M. Crane and Mrs. Haak presided in the dining room assisted by Miss Lucy Powell, Misses Rachel and Constance King, Miss Eliza Parker and Miss Karen Hansen. Punch was served by Mrs. W. D. Deaver. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. P. P. Dabney, Mrs. R. M. Tuttle, Mrs. George S. Rogers, Mrs. J. A. Applewhite, Mrs. George W. McMath and Miss Margaret Smith. Little Misses Margaret Platt, Miriam Luton, Margaret and Helen Laddlaw also gave assistance. During the afternoon music was furnished by Miss Gibson, pianist; Miss Lewis, Miss Catherine Lewis and James Parker, violinist.

ple," says Senator La Follette. "The Wisconsin delegates to the Republican national convention of 1908 were elected under that law. They stood in that convention, a little band of fearless men, fighting to the last ditch for

Fisher's Typical Beauty of Golden West

Miss Maurine Rasmussen of San Francisco, who has been picked by the celebrated artist, Harrison Fisher, as the typical American beauty of the Golden West. Artist Fisher's choice is the culmination of a long and careful pilgrimage to the Golden West in search of a new type of beauty for his portrayal. He speaks of Miss Rasmussen as exactly the "alarming" type he was looking for. Miss Rasmussen promises to go to New York early in the New Year and pose for the pictures of the new "Fisher girl."

platform pledges vital to the public interest. Their contest in the Chicago convention fixed the attention of the country and forced the candidate nomination for president to broaden the platform by declarations in his speech of acceptance in favor of several of the important Wisconsin propositions, which the convention had impatiently rejected.

Let All States Adopt Law.
"The lesson is obvious. Every state in the Union should adopt a primary law providing for the election of delegates to the national conventions of 1912 by direct vote of the people. With such a law in each state, the delegates will be chosen by the voters instead of by machine managers, and the national platforms of both political parties will represent the interests of the people rather than the interests of the system."

Oregon Points the Way.
"And every state should take another advance step. Oregon has just pointed the way. Under the initiative, the people of that state voted for and adopted a law at the late election in November, providing not only for the election of delegates to national conventions, but also providing that each voter shall at the April primary in 1912 have the opportunity of expressing his choice for president and vice president."

Just Time to Beat Wall Street.
"Wall street has already selected the presidential candidates of both political parties. There is just time to defeat the Wall street plan. Let the people organize and demand of every legislator the enactment of a primary law for the election of delegates to national conventions by direct vote, embracing a provision that shall give to each voter the right to express upon his primary ballot his preference for president and vice president.

"Such a primary law will beat the Wall street game and nominate and elect a president for all the people of these United States."

Minneapolis, Jan. 6.—Without concealing their intention to vote for delegates to the Republican national convention of 1912, Minnesota followers of Senator La Follette are completing an organization of progressives. The La Follette followers compose the progressive wing of the Republican party. A committee perfecting an organization in every county of the state will meet tomorrow night.

CALIFORNIANS TAKEN WITH LA FOLLETTE PLAN FOR CHOOSING PRESIDENT

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Sacramento, Cal., Jan. 6.—Direct election of delegates to national conventions of the various parties in 1912, as suggested by Senator La Follette, is under consideration today by the progressive Republican leaders of the state and assembly. The feasibility of introducing a concurrent resolution providing for popular choice of delegates to the Republican convention will probably be presented by Gates of Los Angeles, should the leaders decide that La Follette's suggestion is a good one. None of the leaders would comment on the plan before its possibilities had been threshed out. Meyer Lissner, Republican, chairman, refused to make a statement at present. Governor John-

Girls and Stimulants

By Beatrice Fairfax.

THE other day I was a guest at a woman's luncheon. Of the six guests four were girls of under 30.

"Would any one like a cocktail?" asked the hostess.

The four girls accepted her invitation with alacrity.

Each had an excuse ready and one was "tired to death from a morning's shopping."

Another had indigestion and she thought a cocktail might cure it.

The third took it because she loves the cherry in it, and the fourth because the other three urged her to.

The two other guests refused. They had work to do and knew that cocktails and work don't go together.

They are all charming girls, and not one of them needed stimulant to add to her charm in any way.

It is easy to get into the habit of taking a little drink because you are tired or blue or because you don't feel well."

Naturally some one will repeat it, for a secret is told to six women it is no longer a secret.

By this time the girl is probably heartily sorry for her betrayal of her friend's confidence.

Another one of the girls giggled a great deal and made herself and the rest of the party unpleasantly conspicuous.

Not one of the four was the modest, ladylike girl she had been before she took the cocktail.

Their faces were flushed and their conversation silly.

They are all charming girls, and not one of them needed stimulant to add to her charm in any way.

It is easy to get into the habit of taking a little drink because you are tired or blue or because you don't feel well."

The effect of the stimulant lasts but a short time, and after it has worn off you feel worse than ever.

And the worst of it is that the dose gradually grows larger until some day you wake to the horrid knowledge that you have grown dependent upon it.

If you only know the impression they create upon others when they take anything to drink they would never touch liquor in any shape or form.

Nothing ages one so quickly and nothing is so bad for the complexion as intoxication by liquor.

Women feel the effects of drink much more quickly than men. Their nerves are more delicate, and, consequently, their constitutions are more easily undermined.

Half the time a girl takes a drink because she is with people who are taking one, and she does not like to refuse.

Remember this, girls, that the man who really loves you, will never urge you to take a drink.

He will have too much regard for you to care to see your pure young lips defiled by liquor.

Don't be afraid of being looked upon as prudish.

There is not one single way in which a drink will benefit you and many in which it will harm you. Be wise and not use it.

son also declined to discuss the matter. Judge John D. Weeks went on record as favoring the plan.

"The people cannot have too direct a hand in the choosing of the president of the United States," said Weeks.

"The Oregon plan for the election of United States senators would probably work out in the election of these convention delegates. I am a La Follette insurgent, and am with him on this proposition heartily."
