AGGIES' TOSSERS START TOMORROW

Corvallis Quintet Has Many Games in View for Winter Season.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Corvallis, Jan. 6.—The college basketball season opens here Saturday with the annual game between the college team and the five selected from the alumni.

In spite of the fact that O. A. C. did not accept a place in the basketball schedule arranged by conference colleges for the coming season, the Beaver team will meet all of the Big Six with the exception of the University of Oregon.

Captain Reed has had complete command of the team during the pre-season practice, and expects his men to give a good account of themselves during the coming season.

With nearly 60 men from which to choose his squad, Captain Reed is assured of a fast team.

The Beaver team meets the University of Washington here February 14, which is the first conference game scheduled.

PECKINPAUGH FREE TO JOIN PORTLAND

Roger Peckinpaugh, the Cleveland player who has been held up by the refusal of the New York Americans to waive, has been successfully slipped through the American league, and will be a member of the Portland club next season.

When Manager McCredie left for the southland last night he was in a happy mood than usual, because he had just opened a letter from President Somers of the Naps stating that Pitcher Doane was the only man now being detained by a refusal to waive, and McCredie naturally took it for granted that Peckinpaugh had been put through all right.

Seven From Cleveland. Manager McCredie says that there are seven men coming from Cleveland this year, but beyond Ball, Peckinpaugh and Doane, he is mentioning no names.

Whether the quartet consists entirely of pitchers is something that the big fellow has yet to divulge. Inasmuch as he has only three tested pitchers, Steen, Seaton and Archer, in view at present, it is reasonable to believe that three of the four, not counting Doane, are elabsters, and the fourth a catcher to assist Murray and Bradley, who comes from Toledo.

Manager Walter realizes the need of a pair of clever catchers. He has one in Murray, but needs an equally good receiver and a better hitter to be well fortified behind the oblate.

Graham Good President. According to advices from the south, The Journal put one over on all the other papers on the coast on the announcement that Judge Graham had sent in his resignation to the league, which some will realize their hopes.

WRESTLER MAHMOUT SAYS "INDIAN GIVER"

Humbolt, Iowa, Jan. 6.—The title of "Indian giver" is being conferred on Frank Gotch by Wrestler Mahmout today following Gotch's announcement that he had never bestowed his title of champion heavy-weight wrestler of the world on the Turk.

On the strength of his title Mahmout yesterday issued a challenge to all comers.

In explaining his denial, Gotch said that his offer to back Mahmout in a match with Hackenschmidt must have confused the public, who construed it in Mahmout's favor.

"I am still the retired world's champion," said Gotch. "I intend to retain the crown."

WOMAN'S MEMORY TO BE HONORED AT P. U.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., Jan. 6.—On Wednesday, January 11, the annual exercises in commemoration of the granting of an enlarged charter to Pacific university will be held in Marsh Hall at 10 o'clock.

The address is to be given by F. H. Whitefield of Portland and will be followed by a sketch of Mrs. Tabitha Brown, by Mary Frances Farnham, dean of women. In this sketch the connection of Mrs. Brown with the pioneer school, from which Pacific University sprung later, and an old letter written by her, in which she describes the founding of the orphanage and its outgrowth, Tualatin Academy. Also an autograph letter of hers will be read which was written in 1852 at Forest Grove, in which she asks for a clear title to the log cabin and the land on which it stood, where the orphan school was situated. This day was set aside two years ago for this commemoration and a full day's holiday is given the students.

BIGGEST PRIZE IN SPOKANE BOWLING

Western Bowling Congress 5 Man Money Largest in History.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 6.—Fifteen hundred dollars, said to be the largest single prize yet offered on this continent for the best five men team, will be awarded to the quintet making the highest score at the annual tournament of the Western Bowling congress in Spokane the middle of March.

Spokane Bowling Tournament association has been incorporated under the laws of the state of Washington with a capital stock of $5000, and the following officers to finance the tourney: President, R. Lewis Rutter, secretary, W. C. Bell, representing the insurance league.

President Rutter, accompanied by a party of business men of Spokane, will leave on a tour of the western and central states on January 10, traveling in a special car. The party expects to pass several days in Chicago, also making stops at points between Spokane and St. Paul, after which Mr. Rutter will visit eastern cities, with a view to interesting bowlers in the tourney.

Spokane After Kinsella. The same Joe Cohn has learned that Pitcher Eddie Kinsella, who went from the Portland Coasters to the Northwestern league and thence to St. Louis Browns, finally landing up with Denver, is to be reduced yet further, and Joe is making inquiries about him.

Officers of the Western Bowling congress and the tournament association will visit the strongholds of bowlers in Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, the Dakotas and cities in western Canada.

BILL WARNER LAUDS HIGH SCHOOL STARS

Bill Warner, the big coach at the University of Oregon, thinks a pair of Portland boys, Anson Cornell and George Parsons, who showed the Chicago footballists a few things about western speed and cleverness, will make gridiron stars in the near future.

Warner watched the Chicago game the other day with a great deal of interest and particularly the work of Parsons and Cornell. For a little fellow Warner thinks Cornell is a wonder.

While, of course, a football coach is somewhat hesitant about talking of young high school players," said Bill yesterday, "I think that both Parsons and Cornell, with a few more pounds of flesh on their bodies would become valuable to a college team. Cornell is a spectacular player, but he is apparently, a very cool and collected one. Ordinarily the spectacular player is more or less erratic, but from what I saw of Cornell, his steadiness impresses me.

Fumbled Passed Ball. The wet ball that Parsons kicked over the goal bar from placement in the Chicago game was fumbled by Cornell, on account of its slippery condition, no doubt, but he used rare coolness and judgment in picking it up and planting it for Parsons' boot.

De Palma Will Race. Indianapolis, Jan. 6.—Ralph De Palma, driver of Simplex racing cars, arrived here today and announced that he would enter the sweepstakes race over 500 miles to be held here in May.

Some Have No Initiative. Occasionally a quarter has no initiative, but is an excellent passer and a good runner back of punts, in which case one of the backfield men calls the signals. This, however, is used only in extreme cases, the quarter being found to be the logical man by all coaches.

Buffalo wants national rowing championships. The award will be made at the annual meeting next March.

SATURDAY GAMES GO TO VANCOUVER

Indoor League Makes Switch in Schedule for Rest of the Season.

Hereafter no more Saturday night games of the Indoor Baseball league will be played in the Armory, it being found necessary to transfer them to Vancouver in order to give the soldiers and citizens there a chance to see one game each week.

Managers of the baseball league announce that next Thursday night the Spaldings will play at Vancouver with the military teams. Another game will be played there Saturday night. Then on Sunday the teams will come back to the Armory for the doubleheader. All of the Sunday games will be played at the Armory here.

At the attendance at the league has been better than in any previous year, and is way beyond the expectations of the officials. The Sunday afternoon games have become extremely popular with the fans, the fair sex being largely represented in the galleries.

PENTATHLON SWIM ON TONIGHT AT Y. M. C. A.

The 150-yard swim, the fourth event of the Pentathlon meet, will be held tonight in the Y. M. C. A. tank at 8:30 o'clock. No admission will be charged. The summary of the point winners up to date is: Gross and McDonald, 26 points each; Mankuriz, 14; Skedemo, 10, and Gregory and Mower, 5 points each.

There will also be exhibitions in fancy diving and swimming and a water polo game.

NELSON WILL BOX SIX ROUNDS WITH CROSS. New York, Jan. 6.—For the first time since he was knocked down and out by Owen Moran in San Francisco, Battling Nelson, formerly lightweight champion of the world, will appear in the ring here tonight.
