TRICKS OF BRIDGE OBSTRUCTIONISTS ARE BROUGHT OUT

Duniway, in Role of Good Samaritan, Wires Advice to Prospective Purchasers of Bonds.

Trying to injure Portland's credit and, by scaring bond buyers to prevent conone telegram after another to the National Shawmut bank, Boston, declaring the bonds invalid, and that the city would not reimburse buyers in case the Glernan-Duniway forces won their ebstructionist case in the supreme court. Copies of telegrams sent by Duniway to the Shawmut bank with affidavits attached certifying to the correctness of he copies, were received from Judge M. G. Munly by James T. Barron, Judge Munly's business associate, yesterday The telegrams contain threats, attempted intimidations and scurrilous references to bridge advocates, calling them petty politicians.

It is stated that there is no reason for not believing that Duniway, in behalf of the obstructionist interests he was working for, did not send similar telegrams to other prospective purhasers of the first $250,000 issue of the bonds, and it is stated that it is entirely reasonable to believe from the same inference that Duniway's influence was active in securing the refusal of the second $500,000 bond issue of the Broadway bridge bonds.

Bank Contemptuous. The reasons that actuated the National Shawmut bank people in making ontemptuous references to the obstructionists in the message where they stated that they considered the issue ntirely valid and would pay the money are for the first time fully understood in the light of the revelations secured by Judge Munly, who is now traveling in the east. Evidently the latest dedision of the Oregon supreme court. the obstructionists a rehearirig, had not reached Judge Munly at time he forwarded the copies of the telegrams because other correspondice indicates that he had been using every influence in his power to secure the advancing of the obstructionist case

m the supreme court calendar, Ladd & Tilton, western agents of the National Shawmut bank evidently gave Duniway's queries scant hearing when the acceptance of the first issue of the Broadway bridge bonds was being considered, for he telegraphs on October 6 neys for the National Shawmut bank:

"SASSY"; KNIGHT LETS ANGER RISE

California's Ex-Governor and Bay City Attorney Almost Come to Blows: But They're Friends, Says Gillett.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, Jan. 7 .- An excited al ercation, which the bystanders expected every minute would develop into a lively game of fisticuffs, took place between ex-Governor James N. Gillett and Atorney George A. Knight in the entrance o the Crocker building, shortly after 4:39 o'clock this afternoon.

Both men have offices in that build-Knight was coming out and Gillett was entering. They met in the doorway and a duel of words ensued. People coming in and going out and others who ran to see what the trouble was, believed that blows would result. But Gillett finally made his way to the elevator and went to his office after a loud exchange of recriminations.

MINT'S WRECKAGE FOUND IN OF THUGS' CASTLE

Theory Recast Regarding the Houndsditch Criminals; Just Counterfeiters, or Did They Coin to Finance Anarchy.

(United Press Lessed Wire.) London, Jan. 7.—That there were ight or more desperate men, armed with the most modern of high power automatic pistols, barricaded in the Sydney house during last Tuesday's battle with the police and Scots guards, was roved tonight when searchers found six additional charred bodies in the ruins 'wo were found immediately after the battle. In addition to the bodies the police found one of the most complete coining plants they have ever seen. As many of the dies were for foreign coins, the continental police have been notified, and an interchange of cables indicates that the men were connected with an inter national band of counterfeiters. Perhaps the most startling admission of the police, however, is that the dead men may have had no connection whatever with the recent tragedy in Houndsditch, when three unarmed policemen were shot dead by a band of robbers engaged in tunneling their way into a large jewelry establishment. It is certain from evidence discov red in the burned fortress that the iead men were connected with the earlier Tottenham outrage, with the notorlous bank robberies in Scotland and with a number of other daring crimes which Scotland Yard has been unable to fathom.

That the men were desperate foreign riminals there can be no doubt, but the belief is lessening that they were notorious anarchists. In spite of this, there are many officials connected with Scotland Yard who still maintain that the men were merely engaged in counterfeiting and other oold crimes to secure money with which to carry on their propaganda of anarchism. In the ruins of the Sydney street house tonight, near the six charred odies, the police found a number of ingeniously constructed time bombs which had not exploded. The great care exercised their in manufacture strengthened the belief of the adherents of the anarchist theory, that the men were really anarchists. These officials say they have secured evidence hat there was on foot a plot to kill King George, either before or at the ime of his coronation in June.
