Washington Man Faces Serious Penalty; Three Carcasses Found on Farm.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Seattle, Wash., Jan. 16.—Charged with having in his possession elk meat, antiers and teeth, William Bender, an old time guide and big game hunter in the Olympic mountains, has been placed under arrest at Port Angeles, Wash., by Game Warden Garfield Davis.

The shooting of elk is forbidden unonly the teeth and antiers removed.

Bender's defense was that in following the trail of a big cougar he lost way from his cabin, and having no food shot the elk. It is said that wholethe Olympics for some time. The animals, through the five years of protection they have had since 1905, have become extremely tame and have proved probable that the county authorities will make an example of Bender.

Mrs. George A. Smith of Seattle, a life member of the Equal Suffrage association, although entitled to appear and speak as a delegate, was denied her constitutional privileges of the floor and a near riot resulted when Mrs. De Voe arbitrarily ruled against the Seattle woman and caused an adjournment of the meeting.

Criminal proceedings against Mrs. De Voe, in which slander will be alleged, are threatened by Mrs. Smith. The latter charges that she has been wantonly maligned by Mrs. De Voe.

The most corruptly organized and mendaciously managed political machine Washington was in the history of Washington was broken to bits before the women who attended today's meeting at Tacoma finally adjourned," declared Mrs. Smith.

"While Mrs. De Voe was elected president of the National Council of Women Voters, her victory is a barren one. The women who attended the meeting learned, in spite of the fact that I was unlawfully deprived of a chance to speak, that Mrs. De Voe is the chief manipulator in a discreditable political . scheme to deliver the votes of the newly enfranchised women of Washington | I want to be able to preach whento Governor M. ### COOS LUMBERMEN WANT SHORTER DEER SEASON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Marshfield, Or., Jan. 16.—The petition which is being circulated by some of the sportsmen of Coos and Curry countles asking that the deer season be made longer is receiving some opposition on the part of lumbermen and timber owners. The sportsmen want a longer deer season, while some of the timber owners want the season to last only 15 days, from October 15 to Nostand that the hunters make camp fires in the woods and cause the burning of valuable timber and therefore do not want a long season in which this danger may exist. The sportsmen hold that the camp fires of the hunters do not cause the forest fires, but that instead most of the fires are started from the donkey engines or by sparks from logging locomotives.

WHITE SALMON VALLEY TOWNS MAY MERGE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
White Salmon, Wash., Jan. 16.—A petition has been presented to the White Salmon village council for a vote on the proposition of annexing Bingen, the town below the bluff, to this place. A. H. Jewett, who circulated the petition, claims that about three fourths of the people of Bingen have expressed a desire for the consolidation and a large number in White Salmon also signed the paper. The council returned the petition, as it did not properly designate the territory to be taken in. When properly drawn up the council will accept it and submit the proposed annexation to the people of both piaces for vote,

MINISTER TO BECOME UNDERTAKER: WEARY OF PREACHING THEOLOGY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, Jan. 16.—The congregation of Memorial Baptist the announcement of its pastor, Rev. C. C. Pierce, that he intended to retire from the ministry to become an undertaker. Mr. Pierce has been pastor of the church 12 years.

"Chafing at denominationalism and longing for freedom," as he expressed it, Mr. Pierce yesterday informed his congregation that he would retire on the last Sunday in February.

"I do not want to be bound to denominational affiliation, and ever, where and what I please," he told his flock. "I do not care for theology, but everything for civic righteousness and economy There are too many denominations in the church. Another thing, the constant financial strain for outside needs makes a pastor's life hard."

LYNCHES 3 MEN

Proposed Bill Would Have the Colored Culprits Taken From Jail at Shelbyville; Body of One Not Yet Found.

> Shelbyville, Ky., Jan. 16.—Admitting that they have little hope of identifying the members of the mob that took three negroes from jail here and lynched them, Sheriff Perkins and Coroner Bullock are investigating. The body of one of the negroes had not been found when the investigation began, and ofterday. The members worked quietly, the engineer of the city electric plant to shut off the power, leaving the streets in darkness. The leaders of the mob, without firing a shot, battered down the jail doors and took out the three negroes, leaving four other prisoners unmolested.

Eugene Marshall, charged with the murder of a negress, was one of the bridge.

Wade Patterson, charged with an atack on a white woman, was shot to leath and his body was thrown into Clay creek. James West the third negro, was tilled, the authorities believe, but no trace of his body had been found when the investigation began today.

Mann's Measure Gives President Power to Fix All Rates on Vessels.

Washington, Jan. 16 .- The Taft idea or the administration of the Panama and and the fixing of rates on vessels using the canal was embodied in a bill ntroduced in the house by Repesentative Mann of Illinois and erred to the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

Under the bill it will be in the discretion of the president to fix the charges on vessels passing through the canal and to fix the basis upon which they shall be made; that is, on registered displacement or cargo tonnage. If the rates connage, the charges are limited to a minimum of 50 cents and a maximum of $1.50. In this proposition the president s given power to discriminate, by charging the maximum rate, against vessels in the coasting trade, plying beween Atlantic and Pacific which are seeking to avoid or reduce the effect of ocean traffic between the two coasts, or which are owned or conrolled either directly or indirectly by a railroad company."

COOS BAY CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE WORLD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Marshfield, Or., Jan. 16.—Coos Bay has for several days been entirely cut off from the outside, all mail, telephone telegraph communication being blocked by the storm. In the cities there was three inches of snow, which was extremely unusual for this locality. The storm was the worst that has been known here for years, although no great damage was done excepting to the wires. In the mountains of the Coast range he snow is five and six feet deep, and he mail carriers cannot get through. It will probably be many days before all the mail reaches here. The vessels have been arriving and eaving Coos Bay, but it is reported that at Bandon the Fifield, Arcata, Elizabeth and Bandon are all bar bound. There was snow at Bandon, and a report from Cape Blanco is to the effect that the storm was general on the Curry county coast. The schooner Arago, owned by the Simpson Lumber company of North Bend, arrived after being 36 days out of San Pedro. She was driven out of her Some uneasiness was felt for her safety until she arrived in port.
