A DELIGRAPUL SHAMPOO.

One of the finest things to use for shampooing is plain eggol. This can be rich, creamy lather. Shampooing twice a month for a time will correct any faulty condition of the scalp and will keep it healthy and pliant. This is especially sood for those troubled with harsh scalps, profuse dandruff or excess oil. It also makes the hair soft, bright and fluffy.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Edna: A good massage cream cannot be made with grease for a base. If you get three ounces of cerol at the drug store and dissolve in a pint of boiling water, stirring until cold and smooth, you will have a massage cream of superior quality. This massaged in the skin after washing and drying removes blackheads and all impurities, and gives to the complexion a ruddy glow of health which powder and rouge cannot initate. This cream will not grow hairs and is inexpensive.

Freda: The hairy growth on your lip should not cause werry, as it is easily removed. Get an ounce of powdered deloi at the drug store and mix a little with water to make a paste, then spread on hairy surface. After two or three minutes rub off and wash the skin. You will find this effective, and seldom requires repenting. The deloi is a trick structure, but not nearly as costly as the electric needle.

Freda: The hairy growth on your lip proper condition, for there must be no delay once the batter is ready.
