CHURCHMEN FORM ORGANIZATION TO RESCUE BAD BOYS

Fifty Members of Congregational Body Pledge Selves to Become "Big Brothers" to Juvenile Court Wards.

The Congregationalists of Portland have joined the Big Brother movement. Fifty men of the First Congregational church met yesterday and pledged themselves to become "Big Brothers" to wards of the juvenile court, the purpose, as explained by Judge Gatens in an address last Sunday night, being to put bad boys under good influences and make citizens instead of criminals out of them. It has been the experience of the officers of the juvenile court that the "Big Brother" organization has actually decreased the number of youthful offenders, because of the number who have been given something interesting to do, when otherwise they would have been in mischief or petty crime.

New Church Planned.

Members of the recently organized Waverly Congregational church are negotiating for the purchase of lots suitable for the construction of the church building for which they have been planning. The pastor of the Waverly church, Rev. Mr. Winey, believes that it will be possible to begin the construction of an attractive building before the beginning of the spring season.

Dr. E. L. House, pastor of a Spokane Congregational church, has declined to become pastor of the Hassalo Congregational church in Portland. Dr. House was the unaminous choice of the Hassalo congregation and it was understood for some time that he would accept, because of other interests which made a residence in Portland fully as useful and probably more desirable. It seems, however, that the Spokane congregationalists were adverse to losing their pastor and he yielded to their requests that he stay.

Dr. Walter Benson Hinson, pastor at the White Temple, has been making an evangelizing tour of a number of Oregon cities during the past two weeks. He has spoken to large audiences in Salem, Eugene and the towns of Southern Oregon. Last Monday night the Baptist men of Portland who have joined the Laymen's Missionary movement met in the White Temple and perfected their organization.

Vice in Portland.

"Is Portland as good morally as the police say it is?" Rev. Albert Ehrgott, pastor of the East Side Baptist church proposes to answer the question in his sermon tomorrow evening. Rev. Ehrgott says he has personal knowledge that certain forms of vice in Portland are flourishing under cover if not under protection, and he proposes to expose conditions of which he has learned.

A committee having in charge preparations for the Pacific Coast Congress of Congregational churches will meet next Monday at 2 p. m. and complete plans for the holding of the congress in Portland next summer.

A commission of the Congregational ministers of Portland met yesterday in Pilgrim Congregational church and there formally dissolved the pastoral relation of Rev. Guy L. Dick to the church. Rev. Mr. Dick has been suffering from poor health and will probably retire from active service for a year.

Will Exchange Pulpits.

Some time during February or March, Dr. Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational church, and Rev. F. J. VanHorn, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church in Seattle, will exchange pulpits, and each will hold a series of special services in the church of the other. Dr. VanHorn is pastor of Seattle's leading Congregational church, while Dr. Dyott's place as one of the leaders among the ministers of Portland is well known. Special singers will assist in making both the Seattle and Portland series of special meetings more attractive. As the meetings in the Plymouth church in Seattle will be the last held before the congregation moves into its new building further down town special interest attaches to the series.

Portland Presbyterians are making elaborate preparations for the series of evangelistic services which are to commence under the leadership of Dr. John Balcomb Shaw of Chicago during the early part of February. Dr. William Hiram Foulkes, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, says that these meetings are not to be considered as exclusively for Presbyterians but for all the people of Portland. Noon meetings are to be held down town and special music has been arranged for. Dr. Shaw is known as one of the great Presbyterian preachers of the nation.

Pastor Entertains.

The men of St. James' English Lutheran church were entertained by the pastor at the parsonage last Tuesday evening. Dr. Emil Enna was present and rendered a number of piano selections and Miss Linehan and Mr. Smith rendered several vocal numbers. Professor Frederick, president of the Pacific Divinity school gave a short address along the lines of practical church work. Plans were laid for a banquet to be given in the near future when some prominent man of the city will give an address.

"Do you want to hear a woman preach?" The card announcing revival services at the Immanuel Baptist church, to be led by Rev. Mrs. Edith Hill-Booker bears the question quoted. The meetings are to commence tomorrow night and will continue indefinitely, the pastor Rev. Mr. Black, announces. Mrs. Hill-Booker's husband will lead the musical features of the services.

"The Church and the Social Crisis" is the subject of a remarkable series of sermons which Dr. J. H. Cudlipp will begin tomorrow night at Grace Methodist church. The subjects for each Sunday night in their order are as follows: January 22, "The Problem Stated," January 12, "The Tenth Annual Lincoln Memorial," address by Attorney A. F. Siegel; February 19, "The Voice of the Church;" February 26, "Watchman, What of the Night, or the Duty of the Church?" March 5, "The Solution for the Problem."

R. E. Myers is announced as the speaker for the Methodist ministers' meeting in the Y. M. C. A. building Monday morning, the subject, "Methodism and an Elective District Superintendency."

BUTTEVILLE MAKING FIGHT FOR BRIDGE

The Tri-County Push club of which Will E. Purdy is president, is leading a campaign for the construction of a bridge across the Willamette river at Butteville on the road to Salem. Citizens of Newberg are also making a fight for the building of the bridge near their town. The push club draws its membership from Clackamas, Yamhill and Marion counties. Mr. Purdy, the president, has issued a statement on behalf of the club, saying in part:

"The bridge at Butteville will be on the direct line between Salem and Portland and will make the trip much shorter. Newberg is a mile and a half away from the river. The location of the bridge near Newberg would of course benefit that town, but it would be an inconvenience for the general traveling public because of the roundabout way and added distance.

"More farmers would use the bridge if it were built at Butteville. A bill will be introduced before the legislature authorizing the construction of the bridge at Butteville probably next Monday. We believe that our plans deserve the support not only of the public we are trying to convenience but of the legislature."

EAST SIDE LIBRARY RECORDS NOT BURNED

The records of the East Side branch library have been found to be practically intact. A complete list of books out in circulation has been saved and taken to the main library at Seventh and Stark streets. Readers are requested to return their books to the Children's room of the main building between the hours of 9 a. m. and 6 p. m. The Library association regrets deeply the inconvenience to the East Side people, however, all readers' cards may be used at the main library, and until other arrangements can be made every effort will be put forth to take care of the East Side readers at this building as well as is possible under the present crowded conditions.

HOLOGRAPHIC WILL IS FILED BY ATTORNEY

An holographic has been presented to the county court, and a request for an administrator was made upon the same. The instrument was written by Carl Yenke, and is without witnesses. Attorney John Logan filed the instrument, and George Yenke, son of the testator, was appointed administrator.

Yenke wrote the will himself five years ago. He had no witnesses, and the instrument cannot be admitted to probate. The property is left to the son, George Yenke, and a niece, Miss Viola Gottscholk.

Appeal of Hyde Postponed.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 21.—The appeal of Dr. B. Clark Hyde of Kansas City, physician convicted of the murder of Colonel Swope and sentenced to life imprisonment, will be taken up by the Missouri supreme court next month. The argument was originally set for yesterday.

SLIPPERS OF BRIDE ARE HERE; WHERE IS THE BRIDE HERSELF?

What became of Mrs. W. D. Raymond, presumably a bride, and probably from Helena, Mont., whose loving friends expected she would arrive in Portland long ere this?

The clerks at the Hotel Portland want to know. They have a package for her that came by mail some two or three weeks ago, addressed in care of the hotel, and which has never been called for.

The package consists of two white kid slippers, approximating size 5, slightly worn at the heel, a little soiled by the trip from Montana, tied together with yards and yards and then more yards of white and pink baby ribbon, and bearing salutations to the bride.

Whether it was that the Raymonds got wind of what had been done and so eliminated Portland from their honeymoon, or whether they gave their Helena friends the slip altogether, may never be known. But the hotel clerks want a claimant for the ribbon bedecked white kid slippers, there being no return address on the tag.

SUNNY MONDAY

The lasting qualities of Sunny Monday laundry soap mean economy to the woman who uses it. Its wonderful dirt-starting qualities are retained until the cake is worn to a wafer, and as it is a hard soap which does not wash away quickly, one bar of it will go as far as two bars of any yellow laundry soap. You spare [illegible] clothes when you use Sunny Monday.

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience —a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.
