AMATEUR SLEUTH STOPS A BULLET

Goes Gunning as a Buttniski and Runs Afoul of the Man on the Job.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
 Seattle, Jan. 25.—Edward Johnston, 24 years of age, an iron moulder, was shot in the leg by City Detective Bianchi last night, after he had borrowed a revolver to assist in the capture of a pair of suspects. The wound is not serious.

Detectives Hayden and Bianchi were on Twenty-third avenue near Cherry street when they saw two suspicious characters. They gave chase and one of them ran into an alley. Bianchi and the suspect fired several shots at each other at close range.

Johnston, sitting with friends in a house on James street, borrowed a revolver, exclaiming that it was probably a holdup. He ran toward the scene of the shooting, and Bianchi, seeing the gleam of Johnston's revolver, yelled, "Hands up!"

Johnston thought Bianchi was a hold-up man and started to run. Bianchi's first shot hit him in the leg. The suspects are still at large.
