

THE REALM OF MUSIC

THE second popular Sunday afternoon concert will be given at the Heilig theatre this afternoon. W. H. Boyer will be director, as before, and the mixed chorus will consist practically of the members who participated in the first concert several weeks ago and which proved so successful.

The program contains many musical gems and some works that, while well known here, are seldom produced in public among them being Father Donaldi's cantata to Sam L. Simpson's immortal poem, "Beautiful Willamette." This will be the closing number.

The augmented Heilig orchestra of 16 pieces under the direction of David C. Rosebrook will furnish the greater part of the first half of the program, giving the grand march from "Aida."

The concert begins at 3 and will end at 4:30, half an hour later than the first concert, this change having been made in response to a number of requests.

Pupils' recitals were given Wednesday at 3 and 8 o'clock at St. Helen's hall with great success. The former was given by the pupils of Misses Abbott, Bernays, Schumacher and Caldwell, and the latter by other pupils of Miss Abbott, director of the music department.

The Madrigal club and the Altrui octet both affiliated with the Young Women's Christian association, under the direction of Lucien E. Becker will give a complimentary concert to their friends next Wednesday evening at 8.

The Madrigal club, "Because" (Goddard), violin solo, "On, Away, Awake, Beloved" (C. G. Taylor), tenor solo; "Spring Song" (Wagner), Altrui octet; "Aux Italiens" (Bulwer-Lytton), recitation; "Lullaby" (Mildenberg); "Noel" (Adam), Madrigal club; Nocturne, op. 15 (Chopin); Valse, op. 42 (Chopin), piano solo; "Athena" (Hehn), violin solo; "Songs of Arabia" (Clay); "A Madrigal" (Harris), tenor solo; "Barcarolle" (Offenbach) Altrui octet.

The Schubert program for the Euterpean society last Tuesday evening was a decided success, judging from the prolonged applause and many recalls of the artists. Francis Richter gave all his numbers with splendid interpretive work and faultless execution.

Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, soprano, who will be one of the soloists at the concert at the Heilig theatre this afternoon.

(Marks), Miss Agnes McLaughlin; "On the Shore" (Neidlinger); "At Nightfall" (Metzler); Miss Delta Chamberlain; "Slave Song" (Riego); "A Gift From You" (d'Harlelot); Miss Ruth Stelwer; "Consilia a Nina" (Weckerlin); "Sing Me a Song of a Lad That is Gone" (Sidney Homer); Miss Helen White.

Among Mrs. Helen Goss Williams' most interesting numbers Tuesday evening, February 7, at the joint presentation recital given by Mrs. Rose Reed-Hanscome to bring out Mrs. Williams, Miss Madeline Stone and W. A. Walters, are compositions by La Forge, Gounod, Thomas Kjerulf, Mrs. Williams' opening number will be the waltz aria from "Romeo and Juliet" (Gounod). A mixed quartet, Mrs. Helen Brigham-Gregg, Mrs. J. Ernest Laidlaw, Mr. Walters and Richard L. Hughes, will give "The Miller's Wooing" (Fanning), and "The Communion of Love" (Wilson), from the cycle "Flora's Holiday."

Mrs. Kathleen Lawler-Belcher writes to her former teacher, Mrs. Rose Reed-Hanscome, from Paris, that she is studying with Jean de Reszke and he has pronounced her voice to be one of the best lyric sopranos America has seen him, and that her production and tone placement are above criticism. Mrs. Belcher was highly complimented by Charles W. Clarke, the renowned American baritone, after singing the big aria "Louisa," by Chapientier, at a soiree the other evening at Oscar Bonaldi's home. This aria is the same one that Mrs. Belcher sang at her combout recital, given by Mrs. Reed-Hanscome.

Saturday afternoon a program of unusual merit was given by the pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Kimball Palmer. Piano numbers by Margaret Rowland and Lillian Hoekstra were especially enjoyable. Others taking part were Bertha Hauser, Ruth Reynolds, Inez Ward, Eleanor Ward, Lucy Lloyd, Gertrude Patchal, Gwendolyn McCollum, Miss George Egall, Theodore Hauser and Stanley Reynolds. Owing to illness Miss Norma McCollum was unable to attend.

W. H. Owens, violinist and Mrs. Ella B. Jones at the piano, discoursed music at the house party of Mr. G. Glover, Anand station, Saturday evening, and for the South Mount Tabor school, also for the South Mount Tabor school, benefit, January 27.

Howard Underhill, cornet soloist, nephew of Mrs. Ella B. Jones, has entered business college here.

The recital of Miss Dagmar Inez Kelly, to be given by John Clair Montoth Thursday, February 9, promises not only to be a brilliant musical success, but also a social event.

Mrs. Sara C. Bull, widow of Ole Bull, the famous violinist, died at Cambridge, Mass., January 15, after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Bull was the daughter of Joseph G. Thorp and was born in Oxford, N. Y., 56 years ago. She was married in 1870 to Ole Bull, who died in 1889. Mrs. Bull was interested in many philanthropic movements.

Officials and a number of violin pupils of the Oregon Conservatory of Music held a social and musical reception Tuesday evening, as an expression of their appreciation, upon the return of J. R. Knight to his violin duties, after an absence of six weeks. Mr. Knight has been seriously ill from the effects of a street car accident.

Following will be the program: "Eye Hath Not Seen" (Holy City) (Gaul), Miss Brown; prelude and Fugue in C minor (Bach), Miss Lambertson; (a) "Verborgenheit" (Wolf); (b) "Schwesterlein" (Brahms), Miss Brown; Concerto in G major (Hornig Packler); "To a Wild Rose" (Pastorale) (Maddow); "Annette and Lubin" (Aug. Durand), Miss Lambertson; "The Shooxy Shoe" (Mayhew); "Were I Gardner" (Chaminade); "Eleanor" (Maljinson), Miss Brown; "Marche Heroique de Jeanne d'Arc" (Dubois), Miss Lambertson.

Tuesday evening, February 7, Miss Edith June Chapman will give a piano recital in the Centenary church, East Ninth and Pine streets, assisted by Miss Helene Schumacher, soprano, recently from the New England conservatory, Boston, and now vocal instructor at St. Helens Hall. An exceptionally attractive program has been arranged, consisting of Bach's Italian concerto, first movement, Schumann's "Novellette" in F major, Miss Chapman; group of German songs, Miss Schumacher; "Missa Schubertiana" (Schubert) and "Simpson et Pellah" ("My Heart to Hear Thy Voice"), Miss Schumacher; Chopin's nocturne and Greg's "On the Mountain," Miss Chapman; Chadwick's "Venez," Margaret Ruthven Lange's "Mavourneen," and Lehman's "Bloss After Rain," Miss Schumacher; "Santabat's" "Vox Populi," Stash's "Sous Bois," and Padrowski's "Tracovienne Fantask," Miss Chapman.

Wednesday evening, February 8, pupils of Mrs. Edward Alden Reals will give their second operatic recital at 153 Sixteenth street, North, assisted by Lucille Berry, piano, and Mrs. Gertrude Hoebber, violin, will assist. Pupils whose names appear on the program for the evening are Miss Eileen Yerex, Miss Lillian Gardner, Miss Florence Gilmore, Miss Charlotte Banfield, Miss Winifred Lewis, Miss Ella Butler, Mrs. Jeanne Simmons, piano and Miss Gaea Wood.

A concert will be given Tuesday evening, February 7, in Baker's hall, Seventeenth and Alberta streets, by the Norwegian Lutheran Synod church. Among those who will appear are Miss Madeline Sheldon, piano; Mrs. G. F. Salmon, vocal solo; Jefferson High School Glee Club, under direction of Madame d'Auria; E. G. Mellem, clarinet; Mrs. E. Berger, piano; Miss Olga Golberg, vocal solo; Jefferson High School quartet; Mrs. A. L. Johnson, vocal solo. Miss Della Hosing will recite.

Ethel La Roy De Koven and Hans Klerstedt Hudson were married in Grace church, New York, January 18. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Reginald De Koven, the composer.

The entertainment given at the South Mount Tabor school, January 27, was an interesting affair. A number of vocal and instrumental solos were rendered by pupils.

"Il Canto" is the name of a new musical and social club formed on the east side.

"Fogels" has been suggested as a fitting name for the "grunting machine" which Mascagni is said to have introduced in the score of his "Vesuvio."

Titta Ruffo, Italian baritone, plans to tour America next season under his own management.

Albert M. Schuff, R. C. M., Leipzig, Germany, violin and piano, Healy bldg., Grand ave. and E. Morrison.

WEDDINGS

On Wednesday evening, February 1, at 8 o'clock, a quiet home wedding took place at Laurelwood. Miss Elsie Herrick and Edward Dunlop were united in marriage by Rev. D. M. McPhail, pastor of the Arleta Baptist church, in the absence of about 25 relatives and friends. The house was very artistically decorated. The bride was charmingly dressed in white satin trimmed with pearls, and she carried white carnations and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Norma Minckley, of Ashland, wore pale pink chiffon and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother H. C. Dunlop. Miss Ruth Sheldon, of Portland, played the wedding march. Dainty refreshments were served after the ceremony. The young couple will be glad to welcome their friends in their new home, corner Sixty-fourth street and Forty-fifth avenue, after February 10. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Herrick, of Ashland, Or., were present.

A pretty home wedding took place at noon on Wednesday when Miss Sue Marston Bates, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bates, became the bride of Jeff Wayne Forrester, Dr. Oswald Taylor officiating. The house was artistically decorated with palms and floral arrangements. The ceremony was witnessed only by members of the two families. The bride, who wore an attractive traveling suit of gray, was given away by her father. Her maid of honor was Miss Johanna McDonald and John Forrester, brother of the groom acted as best man. Miss Nellie Edson played the wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. Forrester will spend several weeks in California and upon their return will remain in Portland until Mr. Forrester is called back to Alaska where he is connected with the Guggenheim railroad.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gillett at 6 p. m. January 22, when their daughter Lucella became the bride of Clarence Bloss. The house was decorated with Oregon holly. What Family Does Not Wish to Have a Piano?

To gratify this praiseworthy desire we have assembled at our warerooms a wide selection of honestly made pianos, which commands the attention of the man or woman who wants to buy "a very inexpensive piano for the children's practicing," as well as the person desiring a magnificent member of the piano family for the Louis XVI drawing room.

It is the object of this firm to give the best possible instrument for the money in every grade. To this end the range of our assemblage runs from an excellent piano at $195 to the most sumptuous of Hardman grands and the supreme Mason & Hamlin, "the finest piano in the world."

ALL DEPENDS UPON THE AMOUNT YOU CARE TO EXPEND.

If a prospective purchaser calls at our store and asks for a piano around which there lingers the traditions of three generations of musical critics, we shall point to the Hardman, which, in either grand or upright, is sure to commend itself on account of the exceptionally enduring nature of its tonal and musical qualities.

If he asks for a quality of tone that is unapproached, unapproachable, the greatest piano that the world has yet known, and is willing to pay $750 or up, he need look no further than the many models of the Mason & Hamlin, sold on the Pacific Coast exclusively by the Wiley B. Allen Co.

Almost as gigantic in reputation is the Krakauer, a name synonymous with piano excellence.

And if something less costly than this magnificent triumvirate of pianos is required we are able to commend for sweetness and long service the Hobart M. Cable.

We also point with pride to the reliable Harrington, the Milton, the Price & Teeple, and, last, a crowning achievement in the way of excellent construction at little cost is the piano we offer at $195—so good that it challenges the usual piano at $250 and has proved a boon to the people who cannot afford a more costly instrument.

TERMS OF PAYMENT will be arranged to suit each individual purchaser—a first payment of some modest sum and small monthly payments.
