LONG BOXING CARD FOR FANS TONIGHT

Columbus Club's Monthly Amateur Show Promises Much Amusement.

Eight three round amateur boxing matches and one promising wrestling match compose the monthly card of the Columbus club which will be presented to the fans in Merrill's hall, Seventh and Oak streets, tonight. It is expected that the program will eclipse anything in the amateur boxing line that has been presented to the fans this year. The advance seat sale indicates that a large crowd will be in attendance, the last show making a big hit with the fans.

The card prepared for tonight's first fight follows:
105 pounds—Hefferon, C. C., vs. Len Powers, M. A. A. C.
115 pounds—Farrell, C. C., vs. Bowe, unattached.
125 pounds—Peters vs. Yett.
135 pounds—Stevens vs. Monson, Y. M. C. A.
145 pounds—Frants vs. Wheatley.
155 pounds—McDonald vs. Lorati.
165 pounds—Mankurts vs. Sax.
175 pound wrestling—Miller, C. C., vs. Fabre, M. A. A. C.

Porter Finds Opponent.
Considerable interest has been apparent in the bout between Porter Yett, the knockout and Eddie Peters, who recently gained a decision over him. Yett refused to box unless he was matched against Peters, and as the latter has been keeping in trim he was glad to accommodate Porter.

Supporters of the Winged M. are enthusiastic over the chances of their two entries, Len Powers in the fly weight class and Leon Fabre in the 125 pound wrestling division. In fact the grappling bout is expected to be one of the most interesting that has been held this season among amateurs.

Mankurts, who swims when he isn't boxing, is in first class condition and feels confident of being able to retrieve the honors lost in the last match with Sax.

The starting gun is scheduled to clang at 8:30 o'clock and it is expected that one of the largest crowds that ever gathered at an amateur event of the kind will be present.

TOMMY BURNS PROVES ONE GREAT LOBBYIST

Olympia, Wash., Feb. 17.—To Tommy Burns, former heavyweight champion in the pugilistic world, must go the credit of being the most effective lobbyist of the present session. His presence in Olympia for a few short days has accomplished for the boxing game, what no one thought would be possible to do, namely, the legalizing of ten round contests in this state.

In the house, the victory has been complete. The lines in favor of the measure remained intact upon five amendments, 51 sticking together from start to finish. The bill must still go through the formality of third reading before the final roll call is made on it, but the battle of Tommy Burns is practically won in the house.

Boer Meets Redmond Tonight.
Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 17.—Eager to get a crack at Ad Wolgast, the lightweight champion, Boer Unholz will try to use Jack Redmond, here tonight as a stepping stone to his ambitions. Redmond and Unholz will meet for two rounds. If the Boer wins he will camp on Wolgast's trail, demanding a fight.

SOLDIER IN DRAW WITH JOE CARROLL

California Boxer Is Unable to Stop Post Champion—Courtney Floors Ellison.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vancouver, Wash., Feb. 17.—Though with a determination to "get his man," Joe Carroll, the California lightweight boxer, was compelled to permit a draw in a 10 round contest at the Auditorium last night with Private Frank Jennings of G company, Vancouver barracks. It was the best exhibition of boxing yet seen in Vancouver. Both men were clever fighters, but Carroll was considered the most experienced of the two.

Carroll did most of his fighting when Jennings was crowded onto the ropes or into a corner and was thereby handicapped in his movements. Carroll had decidedly the best of the match in the first round, and expressions were freely made that Jennings would not last out the 10 rounds. Jennings rallied, however, in the second round, and, throughout the fight, though receiving most of the punishment, stood erect and guarded off Carroll's blows with the adroitness of the cleverest boxers.

Jennings was carried from the ring on the shoulders of his friends. That Jennings should stand for 10 rounds with one of the best fighters in California is considered sufficient to place him in the front ranks among the lightweight boxers of the coast.

George Ellison, colored, champion boxer of the Golden Gate Athletic club of Portland, took the count in the first round with Private Courtney of Vancouver barracks. The negro was stopped with a terrific punch over the heart before the fight had progressed a minute. "Chuck" O'Connell of Miles City, Mont., and Eddie Kehoe of San Francisco, fought a 4 round preliminary to a draw. Kehoe is a clean fighter and withstood much punishment from the Miles City lad, who played entirely on the body. He fought desperately in the clinch and the blows rained on Kehoe's ribs brought remarks of disapproval from the audience.

Bud Anderson will be matched against "Kid" Morrissey in Vancouver on February 22.

BOWLING TEAMS WILL FLOCK TO TOURNAMENT

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 17.—Bowlers in 30 states in the Union and five western provinces in Canada have assured A. L. Jenkins, secretary of the Western Bowling congress, that they will shoot for the guaranteed cash prize of $1500 for the best five men team at the fifth annual tournament in Spokane, December 9 to 12. Mayor Nelson S. Pratt will roll the first ball. San Francisco promises the Bergers and the Eugeneans and Los Angeles will have a bunch of rooters to capture the congress for 1912.

Vancouver, B. C., also is a contender for next year's tourney. R. Lewis Rutter, president of the Spokane Bowling Tournament association, who has just returned from an extended eastern trip, says that more than 2000 bowlers will be entered in the various events for cash prizes. Among these will be teams from Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia and many other cities in the middlewestern and eastern states.

Pacific Manager

Harold E. Anthony.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., Feb. 17.—Harold E. Anthony of Portland has been elected to manage Pacific's football team for the coming season. Anthony is a graduate of Lincoln high of Portland and in his senior year there he held the position of editor-in-chief of the Cardinal, Lincoln's student publication. He is a freshman at Pacific and succeeds L. L. Hope in his present position.

ALLEN PREP TOSSERS TOO FAST FOR ACADEMY

Allen Preparatory school took a fall out of Portland Academy at basketball yesterday afternoon on the Y. M. C. A. floor, 36 to 16, in one of the good games of the season. The Preps began scoring right off the reel and led the lead, increasing it all the time.

The game from the start was fast. The basket tossing at close range was poor, while that at long range was exceedingly good. Laswell, Allen's right forward, made some beautiful horse-shoe shots. Gilbert played a good game at guard, making two field goals. For the academy, Bean, who played but part of the second half, was the star. Hayes threw the majority of the fouls.

COAST TURNBACKS TO NORTHWESTERS

Williams Will Get McCredie's Promising Young Pitchers—Other Gossip.

Manager Nick Williams, staff of pitchers already in hand will be augmented by a number of the turnbacks from the coast league training camp at Santa Maria, according to Manager Mac's statement this morning. The big fellow says that if he finds any of his youngsters not fast enough for the Class A company but pretty promising for the Class B organization, he will ship them north where Williams' camp opens about the middle of March here in Portland.

The illness of Red Wright, the big Cleveland who wrote Manager Mac that he was ill and would be unable to return this year, has made a hole in Williams' staff and it will be necessary to do some tall hustling to fill it up. Mac is undecided yet whether he will see if the present bunch of pitchers signed measure up to the standard or send east for another nabster.

Duel of Postal Cards.
Buddy Ryan and Artie Krueger are engaged in a postal card duel, which promises interesting developments when the pair come together at Santa Maria. Artie sent word to Ryan that he was fielding better balls quickly, had made two-thirds of center, whereupon Buddy immediately dispatched an answer to the effect that he would demand a bonus of Manager McCredie if he had to play center and left field this year.

Chadbourne in Deal.
Chester Chadbourne, the new fielder secured by McCredie after he had become a free agent, is mixed up in a three-cornered affair that leaves Providence out in the cold. After Chadbourne accepted McCredie's terms he signed a contract with Providence. Providence then said Hoffman to Oakland, and the National commission decided that Chadbourne belonged to Portland. Providence now has to scurry for a new outfielder. Chadbourne is a left handed thrower which helps him immensely in fielding batted balls quickly. Short hits into right field cause the batter to hurry when Chad is on the job.

Goes to Chattanooga.
Pitcher Mayberry, whom Cleveland offered to McCredie, will pitch for the Chattanooga club this coming season.

Jewish Club Winner.
By winning Wednesday night's basketball game from Oak Grove, the Jewish Boys' Athletic club made it two out of three games won this season from Oak Grove. The teamwork of the Jewish boys far outclassed that of Oak Grove.

MT. ANGEL COLLEGE TO PLAY Y. M. C. A. SPARTANS
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Mount Angel College, Mount Angel, Or., Feb. 17.—The college basketball team will again meet the Y. M. C. A. Spartans of Portland on the local floor next Sunday afternoon. The Spartans were defeated badly by Mount Angel last week, and considerable interest is being shown in this game, as the Portland boys are coming back determined to win.

With the forthcoming game the collegians will in all likelihood close their season. The year has been a very good one for Mount Angel, as they have met and defeated nearly all opponents. Van Loo, the big center, who was used so effectively against Willamette and other teams, will again be played.

BASKETBALL WILL BE SETTLED TODAY

Oregon and Washington, With Clean Records, Settle the Championship Today.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
University of Oregon, Eugene, Feb. 17.—Tonight and tomorrow the University of Oregon basketball team will meet the crack five from the University of Washington in what will probably be the deciding games of the conference series.

Oregon's players have just returned from a tour of the inland empire, where they were victorious in all of their six games.

Washington also made a clean sweep of the inland colleges. This would indicate that the coming games will be closely fought. On the inland trip the Oregon team scored 149 points to their opponents' 72. These points were made as follows:
Oregon 31, Whitman college 15.
Oregon 26, Whitman college 13.
Oregon 27, Idaho 16.
Oregon 21, Idaho 16.
Oregon 22, W. S. C. 19.
Oregon 2, W. S. C. 0.

The Oregon squad has gone into strict training and Coach Hayward is bending every effort to make the team a success. The lineup will probably remain the same as it has been in the previous games: Jamison (F), Walker (F), Fenton (C), Sims (G), and Elliott (G).

CURTISS HYDROPLANE INJURED BY WIND GUST
San Diego, Feb. 17.—While trying out his sixty horsepower hydroplane here shortly before noon yesterday, Aviator Glenn H. Curtiss was caught in a slight gust of wind just off North Island and attempted a landing, which damaged his machine, though he escaped injury.

The propeller of the water craft was broken, being caught by a wave as he struck the water. Instantly the air

YOUNG BLOODS TO RACE MONOPLANE WITH AUTO

Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—To settle a lengthy dispute, Harry Harkness, driving his Antoinette monoplane, will race Oscar Wernes in a 99 horsepower automobile for a $1000 side bet at the Los Angeles motordrome shortly. Whether the race will be for one or five miles has not been decided.

Prizes will be split at each turn and Harkness will be compelled to pass outside of them.

They will be set 20 feet inside the track rail to offset the disadvantage he will be under in rounding the turns with his larger machine.
