TONIGHT'S AMUSEMENTS
HEILIG—Musical Comedy; James T. Powers in "Havana."
BAKER—Drama; Baker Stock company in "Pierre of the Plains," from Gilbert Parker's novel.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.
The central high pressure field has spread over the entire country and is central over southern Saskatchewan, eastern Montana, western North Dakota and South Dakota where abnormal high barometer readings of 31 inches or more were reported this morning.

Portland and vicinity—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Easterly winds.
Oregon—Fair tonight and Wednesday. Easterly winds.

Folician Stripped of His Star.—C. B. Hayes, who until yesterday was a special patrolman in Irvington, was yesterday relieved of his star and badge by Chief of Police Cox for alleged misconduct with a 16-year-old girl.

Professor Sees to Lecture—"Nathaniel Greene" is the subject of a lecture to be given at 8:15 this evening in the Scottish Rite cathedral, corner Fifteenth and Morrison streets.

Sleepy Sailors Are Arrested.—When C. H. Williams and Joe Davis, sailors from a ship now in harbor, went into the Austrian chop house, at 800 Couch street, they ordered a meal and when they went to sleep, when the proprietor of the place attempted to turn them out, Williams drew a revolver and laid it on the table, saying it would talk for him.

Italian Barber Denied Papers.—Citizenship papers have been denied in the circuit court to Agostino Vintrella on the ground that one of his witnesses is unable to qualify. His wife has a disease of the eyes, which it is thought should keep her from entering the United States, and admission of the husband leaves the wife free to come to this country.

County Farm Awards Tomorrow.—The contractor for the main building and power station at the county farm was not awarded this morning by the county court as planned, but the matter went over until Thursday.

Boys Club Will Give Play—"The Comet," one of the oldest clubs in the boys' department of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association will give a play in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 8 o'clock tomorrow night to which the public has been invited and for which there will be no admission charge.

Theatre Parties will find Ye Oregon Grille the most pleasant place in the city for that after-theatre lunch—Herschel Reider—the pianist prodigy is captivating large audiences every day at luncheon and during the evening hours.

Meeting of Mining Men.—There will be a meeting of mining men in the assembly room of the Commercial club at 8 o'clock this afternoon to consider plans and ways and means for the coming mining congress to be held in May.

Struggling upward from extreme poverty, leading an adventurous career as a soldier, soldier of fortune and miner, achieving an education of the face of almost insuperable obstacles, at last rising to the position of the most prominent pulp in America.

Upper Hood Folk to Boost.—(Special Dispatch to the Journal.) Hood River, Or., Feb. 21.—The Upper Valley Development association gave a minstrel and literary program at their hall Saturday evening.

Dr. E. G. Brown, Eye, Ear, Marquam.

TAX RECEIPTS FOR FEBRUARY SO FAR CLOSE TO $425,000

Yesterday was a record breaking day for the tax collection department, the receipts being $42,739. The taxes paid were mostly in small amounts, small home owners predominating. This brings the total receipts for the month close to the $425,000 mark.

Leading Man with Baker Stock Company in "Pierre of the Plains."

Portland is believed never before to have had as strong a Baker Stock company as the present one. Thurston Hall, the leading man, is giving a portrayal of the reckless half-breed gambler, Pierre, in Edgar Selwyn's great western play, "Pierre of the Plains" this week.

Woman Wishes Name Changed.—Samantha Warner asked the county court this morning to change her name to Samantha Seese. She married Thomas Warner in 1908 and he died in 1909. Her name is generally known as Seese and wishes to have this declared her legal name.

ROSE PLANTING DAY WILL BE OBSERVED AT PENINSULA PARK

Rose planting day will be observed tomorrow afternoon at the Peninsula park. It is the annual celebration when the mild climate of Portland is demonstrated by showing that it is possible to plant rose bushes which will grow in the middle of February, when in other cities farther east but of the same latitude the ground is frozen and covered with snow.
