SEATTLE FAR BEHIND, PROBABLY FOREVER, IN POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS

That Portland has finally left Seattle so far behind in postal receipts that it is doubtful whether the latter will ever approach the returns of the Portland office again, is shown by a comparison of the receipts for the month were $79,009.06, a gain of 18.6 per cent over those for February, 1910.

BELLBOY, RECENT GROOM, GETS SENTENCE OF YEAR

Oscar Ostenson, aged 21 years, a bell-boy who has been married less than two months, was this morning sentenced to 366 days on the Kelly Butte reformatory for larceny, and his heartbroken wife, who for two years has had faith in the lad, has collapsed.

YOUNG MORPHINE USERS GET WORK SENTENCES

Robert McMonies, who was arrested Wednesday night in the north end in company with John Davis for having morphine, was this morning sentenced to 30 days on the rockpile and fined $200 by Judge Harwell. The boy will be taken to Linton to serve both fine and sentence. Davis was sentenced to the same, but was turned over to the Portland Commons, which will put him on the Eagle Creek farm to work out his time. Here he will be paid for his work and the proceeds turned over to his mother.
